"WRONG! The plays of Aristophanes prove that the overwhelming majority of Athenians were straight and idiogenogamotics were ridiculed as either being effeminate or only doing kologamosis in return for political or financial favours. If this was not so then Aristophanes would not have mocked the politicians in the front seats as boy fuckers (kologamosis with young boys will illegal in ancient Athens and those engaging in it were banned from holding elected office) or made numerous bum gags, or brought naked girls on stage for an all male audience to represent peace or written plays featuring female prostitutes. Hellenistic romantic fiction such as the Aethiopica also disproves your claims that women were only regarded as baby making machines. Menanders Dyskolos also disproves your claims as does book 3 of Apollonius Argonougtica and Euripides Hellen. Kolofilia was nothing more than masturbation. Just ask yourself why it was only with a man and adolescent boy. Because it was easier for the giver to think the receiver was a young girl than if it was with a man the same age. He might as well have fucked a sheep or a goat. So to get back on topic, it makes you wonder why RTD made Captain

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, it holds even into the quantum but there observational confirmation is limited or non existent. That's the problem and the major stumbling block to field unification. For Dr. Einstein held out that a physical based field theory should be sought out and not left to quantum uncertainty of how the universe primly base works. Man made coordinate systems are fine without knowing from where or what is the base essence of what the space as deduced field is composed of, but not totally satisfactory. Anomalies keep space cropping up and scientists have to keep adjusting for these unexpected events. It's like a blind man that has memorized his physical surroundings to a point he feels very comfortable until that one new or unexpected event pops up and he's lost and fumbling." -- nightbat, in one of his more lucid moments.

I think you will agree however that nothing quite compares to being tied down to the floor over a water drain while three Brazillian

Of course these is also Betty Bazooms the 400 pound black girl and her

I'm a guy from Toledo who enjoys showing a submissive woman a good time in every way. I have so many interests that there probably is some broad common ground between myself and about anyone. I love to talk about D/s and BDSM issues and interests, and have been generally regarded as a funny guy to hang out with who has a good head on his shoulders. Send me a message for anything else you'd like to know!

well marqueer,I heard a couple of OM's talking about you on 75 the other nite.
they were saying that years and years ago you DID in fact find a couple of hams to blow to get your novice. YOU FAILED!
no wonder the head-shed was run off at the last few hamfests.....you DO give a terrible blow job.

I can't think of a good AUK award specifically tailored to what you guys on rec.radio.amateur.* are doing, although I can think of a few that fit the general idea, but I do know one on alt.fan.art-bell that rewards exactly what you're up to--The Tinfoil Star. Of course, that means that I'd actually have to run those awards. Probably at the end of August.

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

I'll bet you think I should care. That is so CUTE! But no. Your obsession with Morse Code is merely sad, and your ongoing attempts to get k00k awards for Mark have generally been a miserable failure, mainly because your overwhelming hatred for him blinds you to the nature of kookiness. Hate won't help you see teh crazy, it'll just make you crazy. And so it has.

A riddle for the brainless child - this is not spam although he/she will probably come back and call me either a spammer or fake - who cares!

He/she claims that he/she is the only real hem here because he/she says that every other poster is not a real ham because they don't post with their call signs!

OK - HE/SHE whatever you are or claim to be -

Hint: I am definitely not a 4, 8 or 9!

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ - 12345678910

From the above 2 groupings figure out my call sign -

Next hint - it only has 5 characters (numbers and letters)

3561. Female Slave Required

I require a young, relocatable, physically fit, female slave seeking a Master to own her and to take control of her entire existence. She must be prepared to dedicate her life to 24/7 service. Master WILL take full ownership in the most literal sense of the word -- total immersion in a life of strict discipline, servitude, enslavement, and sexual decadence, including totally bisexual orgies and bukkake sessions. Slave must know her place and be able to fulfill any role that pleases Him -- personal assistant (in my professional career), chauffeur, chef, caregiver (I'm physically disabled), housekeeper, handmaiden, paramour and companion.

Slave should be seeking the contentment found in the full surrender of her entire life -- when she ceases to exist as a free woman and becomes the fully owned and controlled property of her Master, with full knowledge that her Master will use her for whatever is necessary to serve, further, pleasure and amuse Him.

I'm a guy from Toledo who enjoys showing a submissive woman a good time in every way. I have so many interests that there probably is some broad common ground between myself and about anyone. I love to talk about D/s and BDSM issues and interests, and have been generally regarded as a funny guy to hang out with who has a good head on his shoulders. Send me a message for anything else you'd like to know!

Here's a quote from a government employee who witnessed a recent interaction between an elderly woman and an antiwar protester in a Metro station in DC. There were protesters on the train platform handing out pamphlets on the evils of America. I politely declined to take one.

An elderly woman was behind me getting off the escalator and a young (20-ish) female protester offered her a pamphlet, which she politely declined.
The young protester put her hand on the old woman's shoulder as a gesture of friendship and in a very soft voice said, 'Lady, don't you care about the children of Iraq ?'

The old woman looked up at her and said, 'Honey, my father died in France during World War II, I lost my husband in Korea , and a son in Vietnam .. All three died so you could have the right to stand here and badmouth our country. If you touch me again, I'll stick this umbrella up your ass and open it.'
~God Bless America

I'm a guy from Toledo who enjoys showing a submissive woman a good time in every way. I have so many interests that there probably is some broad common ground between myself and about anyone. I love to talk about D/s and BDSM issues and interests, and have been generally regarded as a funny guy to hang out with who has a good head on his shoulders. Send me a message for anything else you'd like to know!

Why do you think being bi means marrying a "shemale"? Also, you should consider this:

http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/8772014?ordinalpos=1&itool=EntrezSystem2.PEntrez.Pubmed
.Pubmed_ResultsPanel.Pubmed_RVDocSum

Is homophobia associated with homosexual arousal?
Adams HE, Wright LW Jr, Lohr BA.

Department of Psychology, University of Georgia, Athens 30602-3013, USA.

The authors investigated the role of homosexual arousal in exclusively heterosexual men who admitted negative affect toward homosexual individuals. Participants consisted of a group of homophobic men (n = 35) and a group of nonhomophobic men (n = 29); they were assigned to groups on the basis of their scores on the Index of Homophobia (W. W. Hudson & W. A.
Ricketts, 1980). The men were exposed to sexually explicit erotic stimuli consisting of heterosexual, male homosexual, and lesbian videotapes, and changes in penile circumference were monitored. They also completed an Aggression Questionnaire (A. H. Buss & M. Perry, 1992). Both groups exhibited increases in penile circumference to the heterosexual and female homosexual videos. Only the homophobic men showed an increase in penile erection to male homosexual stimuli. The groups did not differ in aggression. Homophobia is apparently associated with homosexual arousal that the homophobic individual is either unaware of or denies.

You guys are either repressed or closet cases, IOW, and I'm thinking the latter is more likely.

I think you need to take a moment to think about whether you honestly want to be known as a "real" ham. Porky.

Unfortunately, it is otherwise very bad logic...Bisexuals do in fact exist, in spite of the paranoid delusions of homophobic radio hams, and all their denial of reality amounts to sound and fury, signifying nothing.

CINNAMON & HONEY
Bet the drug companies won't like this one getting around. Facts on honey and cinnamon: It is found that a mixture of honey and cinnamon cures most diseases. Honey is produced in most of the countries of the world. Scientists of today also accept honey as a "Ram Ban" (very effective) medicine for all kinds of diseases. Honey can be used without any side effects for any kind of diseases.

Today's science says that even though honey is sweet, if taken in the right dosage as a medicine, it does not harm diabetic patients. Weekly World News, a magazine in Canada, on its issue dated 17 January, 1995 has given the following list of diseases that can be cured by honey and cinnamon as researched by western scientists:

HEART DISEASES:
Make a paste of honey and cinnamon powder, apply on bread, instead of jelly and jam, and eat it regularly for breakfast. It reduces the cholesterol in the arteries and saves the patient from heart attack. Also, those who have already had an attack, if they do this process daily, they are kept miles away from the next attack. Regular use of the above process relieves loss of breath and strengthens the heart beat. In America and Canada, various nursing homes have treated patients successfully and have found that as you age, the arteries and veins lose their flexibility and get clogged; honey and cinnamon revitalize the arteries and veins.

ARTHRITIS:
Arthritis patients may take daily, morning, and night, one cup of hot water with two spoons of honey and one small teaspoon of cinnamon powder. If taken regularly even chronic arthritis can be cured. In a recent research conducted at the Copenhagen University, it was found that when the doctors treated their patients with a mixture of one tablespoon Honey and half teaspoon Cinnamon powder before breakfast, they found that within a week, out of the 200 people so treated, practically 73 patients were totally relieved of pain, and within a month, mostly all the patients who could not walk or move around because of arthritis started walking without pain.

BLADDER INFECTIONS:
Take two tablespoons of cinnamon powder and one teaspoon of honey in a glass of lukewarm water and drink it. It destroys the germs in the bladder.

TOOTHACHE:
Make a paste of one teaspoon of cinnamon powder and five teaspoons of honey and apply on the aching tooth. This may be applied three times a day until the tooth stops aching.

CHOLESTEROL:
Two tablespoons of honey and three teaspoons of Cinnamon Powder mixed in 16 ounces of tea water, given to a cholesterol patient were found to reduce the level of cholesterol in the blood by 10 percent within two hours. As mentioned for arthritic patients, if taken three times a day, any chronic cholesterol is cured. According to information received in the said journal, pure honey taken with food daily relieves complaints of cholesterol. (By the way. if you're taking cholesterol medicine STOP! They all contain STATIN which weaken your muscles...including YOUR HEART and none has been shown to stop heart attacks or strokes!!!!

COLDS:
Those suffering from common or severe colds should take one tablespoon lukewarm honey with 1/4 spoon cinnamon powder daily for three days. This process will cure most chronic cough, cold, and clear the sinuses.

UPSET STOMACH:
Honey taken with cinnamon powder cures stomach ache and also clears stomach ulcers from the root.

GAS:
According to the studies done in India and Japan, it is revealed that if honey is taken with cinnamon powder the stomach is relieved of gas.

IMMUNE SYSTEM:
Daily use of honey and cinnamon powder strengthens the immune system and protects the body from bacteria and viral attacks. Scientists have found that honey has various vitamins and iron in large amounts. Constant use of honey strengthens the white blood corpuscles to fight bacteria and viral diseases.

INDIGESTION:
Cinnamon powder sprinkled on two tablespoons of honey taken before food relieves acidity and digests the heaviest of meals.

INFLUENZA:
A scientist in Spain has proved that honey contains a natural Ingredient which kills the influenza germs and saves the patient from flu.

LONGEVITY:
Tea made with honey and cinnamon powder, when taken regularly, arrests the ravages of old age. Take four spoons of honey, one spoon of cinnamon powder and three cups of water and boil to make like tea. Drink 1/4 cup, three to four times a day. It keeps the skin fresh and soft and arrests old age. Life spans also increases and even a 100 year old, starts performing the chores of a 20-year-old.

PIMPLES:
Three tablespoons of honey and one teaspoon of cinnamon powder paste. Apply this paste on the pimples before sleeping and wash it next morning with warm water. If done daily for two weeks, it removes pimples from the root.

SKIN INFECTIONS:
Applying honey and cinnamon powder in equal parts on the affected parts cures eczema, ringworm and all types of skin infections.

WEIGHT LOSS:
Daily in the morning one half hour before breakfast on an empty stomach and at night before sleeping, drink honey and cinnamon powder boiled in one cup of water. If taken regularly, it reduces the weight of even the most obese person. Also, drinking this mixture regularly does not allow the fat to accumulate in the body even though the person may eat a high calorie diet.

CANCER:
Recent research in Japan and Australia has revealed that advanced cancer of the stomach and bones have been cured successfully. Patients suffering from these kinds of cancer should daily take one tablespoon of honey with one teaspoon of cinnamon powder for one month three times a day.

FATIGUE:
Recent studies have shown that the sugar content of honey is more helpful rather than being detrimental to the strength of the body. Senior citizens, who take honey and cinnamon powder in equal parts, are more alert and flexible. Dr. Milton, who has done research, says that a half tablespoon of honey taken in a glass of water and sprinkled with cinnamon powder, taken daily after brushing and in the afternoon at about 3:00 p.m. when the vitality of the body starts to decrease, increases the vitality of the body within a week.

BAD BREATH:
People of South America, first thing in the morning, gargle with one teaspoon of honey and cinnamon powder mixed in hot water, so their breath stays fresh throughout the day.

HEARING LOSS:
Daily morning and night honey and cinnamon powder, taken in equal parts restore hearing. Remember when we were kids? We had toast with real butter and cinnamon sprinkled on.

------------------------------ --

Eliminate ear mites:
All it takes is a few drops of Wesson Corn Oil in your cat's ear... massage it in, then clean with a cotton ball. Repeat daily for 3 days. The oil soothes the cat's skin, smothers the mites, and accelerates healing.

Kills fleas instantly:
Dawn Dishwashing Liquid does the trick. Add a few drops to your dog's bath and shampoo the animal thoroughly. Rinse well to avoid skin irritations. Good-bye fleas.

Rainy day cure for dog odor:
Next time your dog comes in from the rain, simply wipe down the animal with Bounce or any dryer sheet, instantly making your dog smell springtime fresh.

Did you know that drinking two glasses of Gatorade can relieve headache pain almost immediately:
Without the unpleasant side effects caused by traditional pain relievers.

Did you know that Colgate Toothpaste:
Makes an excellent salve for burns

Before you head to the drugstore for a high-priced inhaler filled with mysterious chemicals:
Try chewing on a couple of curiously strong Altoids peppermints. They'll clear up your stuffed nose.

Achy muscles from a bout of the flu:
Mix 1 tablespoon horseradish in 1 cup of olive oil. Let the mixture sit for 30 minutes, then apply it as a massage oil for instant relief for aching muscles.

Sore throat:
Just mix 1/4 cup of vinegar with 1/4 cup of honey and take 1 tablespoon six times a day. The vinegar kills the bacteria.

Cure urinary tract infections with Alka-Seltzer:
Just dissolve two tablets in a glass of water and drink it at the onset of the symptoms. Alka-Seltzer begins eliminating urinary tract infections almost instantly-even though the product was never been advertised for this use.

Honey remedy for skin blemishes:
Cover the blemish with a dab of honey and place a Band-Aid over it. Honey kills the bacteria, keeps the skin sterile, and speeds healing. Works overnight.

Listerine therapy for toenail fungus:
Get rid of unsightly toenail fungus by soaking your toes in Listerine Mouthwash. The powerful antiseptic leaves your toenails looking healthy again!

Easy eyeglass protection.:
To prevent the screws in eyeglasses from loosening, apply a small drop of Maybelline Crystal Clear Nail Polish to the threads of the screws before tightening them.

Cleaning liquid that doubles as bug killer:
If menacing bees, wasps, hornets, or yellow jackets get in your home and you can't find the insecticide, try a spray of Formula 409, Insects drop to the ground instantly.

Smart splinter remover:
Just pour a drop of Elmer's Glue-All over the splinter, let dry, and peel the dried glue off the skin. The splinter sticks to the dried glue.

Hunt's Tomato Paste boil cure:
Cover the boil with Hunt's Tomato Paste as a compress. The acids from the tomatoes soothe the pain and bring the boil to a head.

Balm for broken blisters:
To disinfect a broken blister, dab on a few drops of Listerine, a powerful antiseptic.

Vinegar to heal bruises:
Soak a cotton ball in white vinegar and apply it to the bruise for 1 hour. The vinegar reduces the blueness and speeds up the healing process.

Quaker Oats for fast pain relief:
It's not for breakfast any more! Mix 2 cups of Quaker Oats and 1 cup of water in a bowl and warm in the microwave for 1 minute, cool slightly, and apply the mixture to your hands for soothing relief from arthritis pain

The k00k will, without any trace of irony, lie, manipulate, impersonate, censor, and declare themselves powerful in ways ranging from the ability to have an account shut down to being God Herself, in order to convince people that they are not liars, manipulators, censors, or insane.
Abuse women while telling how many hundreds you've loved. Nevermind that you're one ugly motherfucker and that there were 30,000 femininas that thought you were a scumbag with bad teeth.
Remember that your ko0ky klaims are 'facts', and that 'facts' do not require proof.
Do not neglect to poast your responses to forums that the originator doesn't read. This will make the people in that forum very impressed with how you tear him to shreds without him being able to respond. They like it even better if you are off-topic for that forum.
Keep in mind that lack of evidence supporting your konspiracy theory actually _is_ evidence, of how effective the konspiracy is in hiding.
(06-Oct-05) When spanked, always retreat to the safety of the Ad Hominem.
(04-Aug-2005) When spanked mercilessly for days on end, proving with each poast just what an illiterate and ignorant fool you are, ALWAYS claim ownership of [person(s),froup(s)]. This works on so many levels. It inspires dread in your opponents that they will no longer be able to poast in their home froup and that they will eventually have to pay rent, to name just two.
Any problems with your poasts are the fault of the konspirators, who are trying to stop you from preventing the extinction of humanity.
Konspiracies that are able to subvert whole governments are always unable to silence konspiracy ko0ks.
The entire United States government is willing to spend millions of dollars for the sole purpose of harassing you.
Hollywood is making movies based on your personal life.
Do not consult psychiatrists or other mental health professionals. They are part of the konspiracy, and will sedate you and lock you away and keep you drugged if you tell them the truth.
Numerology and Astrology are respectable sciences and are useful for proving your case.
Everyone is Tim Hill, or David Green, or...
There is a fine line between trolling and kookery. Find that line and cross it repeatedly. When you are killfiled and/or LARTed for net.abuse as a result, claim victory. If you lose multiple accounts, this merely proves that you are indeed a world-class troll, with a black-belt in manipulation.
If you respond to every post someone else makes, they're obsessed. If they respond to less than 1% of your posts, they're even more obsessed.
Publishing people's real names, addresses, and phone numbers when there's no other way for you to come out of a flamewar with any dignity is cool, and proves that you are a master of secret internet information stores, and absolutely not to be fucked with.

Everyone is out to get you. You can put a stop to this by telling everyone that they're out to get you at every available opportunity.
You are the only sane one.
Those that give you a hard time about morally bankrupt things you yourself admit to are just persecutioners of the new inquisition.
Yelling in all caps and cursing at your detractors is debate. Your detractors laughing at you with sarcastic remarks is obvious anger and jealousy.
If doing something results in the loss of your account, legal hassles, or blunt trauma injury, do it again. It always works better the second time.
Asterisks, lots and lots of Asterisks.
Poking holes in kookscreed is stalking, and is a felony.
K00ks LOVE to "connect the dots". They are, of course, dots that only the k00k can see.

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization.

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh
since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization.

No, that's a member of the Mark Morgan Fan Club (now a subsidiary of the

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you

at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization.

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

EG Labs Announces Urgent Nationwide Voluntary Recall of ALL LOTS of Viapro 375 mg Capsules, due to a Potentially Harmful Ingredient
Contact:
EG Labs, LLC.
email: eglabs@gmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- New York, NY July 23, 2008 - EG Labs, LLC, announced today that it is conducting a nationwide voluntary recall of all lots of its supplement product sold under the brand name, Viapro, in 375mg capsules. EG Labs, LLC. is conducting this recall after being informed by representatives of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) that lab analysis by FDA of a sample from one lot of the product revealed that it contained a potentially harmful undeclared ingredient, thio-methisosildenafil. FDA asserts that this ingredient is an analog of sildenafil. Sildenafil is the active chemical ingredient of an FDA-approved drug used for Erectile Dysfunction (ED) in men to enhance sexual performance.

The use of undeclared chemicals pose a threat to consumers because they may harmfully interact with nitrates found in some prescription drugs (such as nitroglycerin) and may lower blood pressure to dangerous levels. Consumers with diabetes, high blood pressure, high cholesterol, or heart disease often take such nitrates.

Viapro capsules were sold in retail outlets nationwide and were packaged into 2-capsule blister, 1 capsule blister and 10 capsule bottles. Viapro has not been sold since about March 2008.

Customers who have this product in their possession should stop using it immediately and contact their physician if they have experienced any problems that may be related to taking this product. Please return the product for a full refund to the address below.

Seaboard Tampa Terminal: 6708 Harney Road Tampa Florida, 33610

Any adverse events that may be related to the use of this product should be reported to the FDA's MedWatch Program by phone at 1-800-FDA-1088 or by fax at 1-800-FDA-0178 or by mail at MedWatch, HF-2, FDA, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20852-9787, or online.

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

it holds even into the quantum but there observational confirmation is limited or non existent. That's the problem and the major stumbling block to field unification. For Dr. Einstein held out that a physical based field theory should be sought out and not left to quantum uncertainty of how the universe primly base works. Man made coordinate systems are fine without knowing from where or what is the base essence of what the space as deduced field is composed of, but not totally satisfactory. Anomalies keep space cropping up and scientists have to keep adjusting for these unexpected events. It's like a blind man that has memorized his physical surroundings to a point he feels very comfortable until that one new or unexpected event pops up and he's lost and fumbling." -- nightbat, in one of his more lucid moments.

Well, what should anyone think of an anonymous, cowardly webhead who lets himself be owned by a winner of the Golden Killfile? You must obviously be either Todd or a pedo.

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

"It does to a certain extant physically and theoretically it holds even into the quantum but there observational confirmation is limited or non existent. That's the problem and the major stumbling block to field unification. For Dr. Einstein held out that a physical based field theory should be sought out and not left to quantum uncertainty of how the universe primly base works. Man made coordinate systems are fine without knowing from where or what is the base essence of what the space as deduced field is composed of, but not totally satisfactory. Anomalies keep space cropping up and scientists have to keep adjusting for these unexpected events. It's like a blind man that has memorized his physical surroundings to a point he feels very comfortable until that one new or unexpected event pops up and he's lost and fumbling." -- nightbat, in one of his more lucid moments.

The bartender said, "There's no such thing! I mean, your odds are fifty-fifty at best, right?"

"Well, I only bet on sure things," said the guy.

"Like what?" asked the bartender.

"Well, for example, I'll bet you fifty dollars that I can bite my right eye," he said.

The bartender thought about it. "Okay," he said.

So, the guy pulled out his false right eye and bit it. "Aw, you screwed me," said the bartender, and paid the guy his $50.

"I'll give you another chance. I'll bet you another fifty dollars that I can bite my left eye," said the stranger.

The bartender thought again and said, "Well, I know you're not blind, I mean, I watched you walk in here. I'll take that bet." So, the guy pulled out his false teeth and bit his left eye.

"Aw, you screwed me again!" protested the bartender.

"That's how I win so much money, bartender. I'll just take a bottle of your best scotch in lieu of the fifty dollars," said the man.

With that, the guy went to the back room and spent the better part of the night playing cards with some of the locals. After many hours of drinking and card playing, he stumbled up to the bar. Drunk as a skunk, he said, "Bartender, I'll give you one last chance. I'll bet you five hundred dollars that I can stand on this bar on one foot and piss into that whiskey bottle on that shelf behind you without spilling a drop."

The bartender once again pondered the bet. The guy couldn't even stand up straight on two feet, much less one. "Okay, you're on," he said.

The guy climbed up on the bar, stood on one leg, and began pissing all over the place. He hit the bar, the bartender, himself, but not a drop made it into the whiskey bottle.

The bartender was ecstatic. Laughing, the bartender said, "Hey pal, you owe me five hundred dollars!"

The guy climbed down off the bar and said, "That's okay. I just bet each of the guys in the card room a thousand bucks each that I could piss all over you and the bar and still make you laugh!"

After an enjoyable eighteen holes of golf, a man stopped in a bar for a beer before heading home. There he struck up a conversation with a ravishing young beauty. They had a couple of drinks, liked each other, and soon she invited him over to her apartment. For two hours they made mad, passionate love.
On the way home, the man's conscience started bothering him something awful. He loved his wife and didn't want this unplanned indiscretion to ruin their relationship, so he decided the only thing to do was come clean.
"Honey," he said when he got home, "I have a confession to make. After I played golf today, I stopped by the bar for a beer, met a beautiful woman, went back to her apartment and made love to her for two hours. I'm sorry, it won't ever happen again, and I hope you'll forgive me."
His wife scowled at him and said, "Don't lie to me, you sorry scumbag! You played thirty-six holes, didn't you?"

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

Once my retired bishop thought I was fishing for him and he took the bait, alas it wasn't me and that spelled the demise of our relationship. Have a little bit more faith in me. "It does to a certain extant physically and theoretically it holds even into the quantum but there observational confirmation is limited or non existent. That's the problem and the major stumbling block to field unification. For Dr. Einstein held out that a physical based field theory should be sought out and not left to quantum uncertainty of how the universe primly base works. Man made coordinate systems are fine without knowing from where or what is the base essence of what the space as deduced field is composed of, but not totally satisfactory. Anomalies keep space cropping up and scientists have to keep adjusting for these unexpected events. It's like a blind man that has memorized his physical surroundings to a point he feels very comfortable until that one new or unexpected event pops up and he's lost

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

"Right you are correct. Someone hooked me. I do believe in building relationships. That is what Christians are required to do. I am amoral. I am sure you know what that means. So are Scorpios. I am being 'protected' by the Formosa Rule because of my 'mental illness'. I am not targeting 'teh Mop Jockey'. You are and you are using me as a bait. Please stop. I have my own fish to reel in. Leave me alone. It is my hope that I will be able to catch a fish and reel it in for you. Once my retired bishop thought I was fishing for him and he took the bait, alas it wasn't me and that spelled the demise of our relationship. Have a little bit more faith in me. An Eastern Orthodox bishop thought I was fishing for him and willingly, proudly and defiantly took the bait on public record, and it wasn't even me. Give me a break." -- Atlanta Olympiada "Erica" Kane yammered in it holds even into the quantum but there observational confirmation is limited or non existent. That's the problem and the major stumbling block to field unification. For Dr. Einstein held out that a physical based field theory should be sought out and not left to quantum uncertainty of how the universe primly base works. Man made coordinate systems are fine without knowing from where or what is the base essence of what the space as deduced field is composed of, but not totally satisfactory. Anomalies keep space cropping up and scientists have to keep adjusting for these unexpected events. It's like a blind man that has memorized his physical surroundings to a point he feels very comfortable until that one new or unexpected event pops up and he's lost and fumbling." -- nightbat, in one of his more lucid moments.

During my years at Intel and Microsoft I learned a lot about the ancient roots of the high-tech industry that few people are aware of today.

Many tales are told of the Knights of the Round Table. However, one of their most important accomplishments is little remembered today. In an effort to correct that oversight:

The realm of King Arthur was sorely beset by the encroachments of the Saxons. Sadly, there were few Knights left to fight them. King Arthur, despairing the probable downfall of Camelot, turned once again to Merlin, his friend and wisest adviser.

"Merlin, I fear that this time even your great resources will not avail us at this critical time." (Kings speak in that sort of pretentious way so you'll have to excuse him -- CER.) "We shall never be able to turn back the Saxons without many more Knights. The Round Table is sorely depleted and I have little hope."

"Fear not, my King" said Merlin. "I have a plan. Bring me parchment and ink and all your scribes. Then bring me the youth of the nearby peasants, the stable boys, and the young servants of the castle. I shall give you your Knights!"

"Merlin, oh Merlin, I fear you've lost your wisdom. It takes years to become a Knight. One must grow in experience, be tested in battle and character... It cannot be done" said Arthur.

"Trust me, my King" said Merlin. "I have devised a method of creating Knights on the instant."

Soon, as bidden, the male youth of the nearby peasantry were summoned to Camelot, along with the stable boys and the younger servants. Merlin had them arrayed in a single line that stretched almost as far as the eye could see. One by one, each young man stepped up to a table beneath a pavilion where Merlin sat. The humble youth entered, full of fear and not knowing what to expect. As they passed Merlin, he handed each one a piece of parchment with the seal of Camelot printed upon it by the scribes. Each parchment and the image upon it was exactly like the others. Miraculously, as each young man took the parchment and placed it on his forehead, a change took place in him.

They all stood taller, stronger -- their eyes flashed with confidence and power. As they exited the pavilion, each one was truly a powerful Knight! They were handed their swords and given great horses to ride and galloped off to do battle. Nearly a thousand of the humble became Knights that single day. History tells us that they were successful and helped preserve Camelot for yet another generation.

Merlin, of course, is known to this day, as the inventor of the Printed Sir Kit.

Ok, Fox...hehehehe here soem questions that I know you can't answer....if you are the owner of some fictional work that I "stolen" which I didn't you should be able to answer these questions.

1. What is the name of the material that you CLAIM that I stolen?? by my understanding your claiming ownership of my works Dimensions Unbound.

2. If you are claiming ownership of Dimensions Unbound, which have no copyright claim too, what is the story about.

3. If you are claiming ownership of Dimensions Unbound, which have no copyright claim too, who are ALL the characters based on? and where does the story take place??

4. If you are claiming ownership of Dimensions Unbound, which have no copyright claim too, how many episodes are Dimensions Unbound??

If you are claiming ownership of Dimensions Unbound, which have no copyright claim too, how does the outhouse work??

ANSWER THESE AND I'LL HAVE MORE.

THE PAYPAL 6 DOLLAR MONEY-MAKING METHOD

AS SEEN ON OPRAH EARN HUGE $$$$$$$$
Are you ready for the new and improved way to make instant money right into your paypal account. Oprah has proved that with $6 dollars, a free
paypal account and 30 minutes of your time, you can make between $30,000 and $50,000. Paypal has even verified this Scheme is 100% legal. So if you can make $50,000 with $6 dollars how much could you make with $10? Can you say multimillionaire?
WELL for those of you who are not familiar with this cash making machine it runs purely on honesty and Four simple steps. I gave it a try, hey its only $6, I figured at least 6 people would respond out of the MILLIONS of people that use the internet.

You should give it a try too!

You have nothing to lose, and a whole lot to gain!

A little while back, I was browsing through some interesting adds, just like you are now and came across an article similar to this that said you could make thousands dollars within weeks with only an initial investment of $6.00!
From PayPal:
"Dear Member, it has come to our attention that there is a PayPal scheme floating around at the moment you may have heard or seen the $6 scheme. You may have even taken part in it well we have been asked a lot of questions about this scheme the answer is yes it does work and yes it is safe to use providing you follow the rules it is legal and has made a big hit on the internet this year. If you would like to take part in this scheme or would like a bit more information then please see the attached file that was kindly donated to us. Thank you for using PayPal!"

Anyway, it said that you send $1.00 though paypal to each of the emails stated in the article.

You then place your own email address in the bottom of the list at ..
6, and post the article in at least 200 news groups. (There are a lot)

So after thinking about it, I went ahead trying it.

I figured what have I got to lose except $6.00 small dollars, right?

Like most of us I was a little skeptical and a little worried about the legal aspects of it.

It follows the same regulations as the "mailed chainletters, which according to the U.S. Post Office (1-800-725-2161) is indeed legal!

Then I invested the measly $6.00.

Well GUESS WHAT!!?

Within days, I started getting money in my paypal account!

I was shocked!

I figured it would end soon, but the money just kept coming in.

This is now my fourth week and I have made a total of just over $24,641.00 and it's still coming in rapidly.

It's Certainly worth $6.00.

Let me tell you how this works and most importantly, why it works?

REQUIREMENTS:

You must have a verified paypal account.

If you do not have an account you can go to www.paypal.com..... and get a free account.

I would suggest signing up for a business account because it does not limit you to the amount of money you can receive.

Example: with a Personal account you are limited to receiving $500.00 a month and withdrawing $500.00 a month.

And trust me you WILL be receiving more than $500.00 a month!

Like I said before In order to place the initial $6 into your account, you will have to verify your bank account with paypal (which may take a few days).

STEP 1:

Send, through paypal, $1.00 to each email on the below list. Make the subject of the payment "Email List" and in the comments, write "PLEASE PUT ME ON YOUR EMAIL LIST." What you are doing is creating a service by this and best of all you are not giving your address to anyone ... THIS IS ABSOLUTELY LEGAL!

The email list:

1.oldtimeford@hotmail.com
2.cozmo_41@yahoo.com
3.awesomeincome@charter.net
4 .wizkid6405@toast.net
5.db59@bellsouth.net

6.yahaya7410@gmail.com

STEP 2: #1)

Now take the #1 email off the list that you see above, move the other addresses up(6 becomes 5, 5 becomes 4, etc) and add YOUR email address (the one used on the paypal account) as number 6 on the list.

STEP 3:

Change anything you need to, but try to keep this article as close to original as possible. Now, post your amended article to at least 200 newsgroups, message board. (I think there are close to 32,000 groups) All you need is 200, but remember, the more you post, the more money you make - as well as everyone else on the list!

For example: you log on to any search engine like yahoo.com, google.com, altavista.com, excite.com then you search with subject like ?millionaire message board? or ?money making message board? or ? employment message board? or ?money making discussions? or ?money making forum? or ?business message board? etc.
Remember, all of this is ABSOLUTELY LEGAL. You are creating a service! If you have any doubts, please refer to Title 18 Sec. 1302 & 1241 of the United States Postal laws. Send you payments to the email addresses.

I'm a guy from Toledo who enjoys showing a submissive woman a good time in every way. I have so many interests that there probably is some broad common ground between myself and about anyone. I love to talk about D/s and BDSM issues and interests, and have been generally regarded as a funny guy to hang out with who has a good head on his shoulders. Send me a message for anything else you'd like to know!

<NOTIFY> erlpnk...@aol.com <TEXT>

To the Members of the Commission Assembled:

I am Steven Robeson. I have been a licensee in the Amateur Radio Service since 1972 and am presently the licensee of Amateur Radio Station K4YZ and hold an Amateur Extra Class Operators license. I comment to you today on the matter of WT 98-143.

There can be no doubt that there has been quantum leaps in the field of radiocommunication since the last major rewrite of Part 97. This includes the "Incentive Licensing" system that was implemented in the late 1960's.

It is clearly time to change the system.

The Commission has solicited comments relative to that circumstance, and I hope the following will be considered in that act.

First of all, I would like to wholeheartedly approve of the concept of reducing the number of Amateur License classes from six to four.
There is much confusion as to "who's who" as it is now, and a reduction in the licensing process would alleviate that disparity. As such, I envision the following as being appropriate for said restructuring:

Amateur Class D: The Amateur Class D license would become the de facto
"entry class" license for the Amateur Service. In light of the grossly decreased demand for the Novice License and reduced useage of the sub-bands allocated for thier use, I would deactivate it as the "entry class" licenese.
The Class D License would for all intents and purposes be the same as the current "Codeless Technician" class license. The examination for this license would remove questions pertaining to HF (1.8 to 30 MHZ) theory and operation, and be strictly limited to matters pertaining to VHF/UHF theory and operation,
regulatory matters and Amateur practice. All Amateur privileges above 30 MHZ would be conveyed to the successful applicant.

Amateur Class C: The Class C license would be the entry level license for operation on the HF spectrum. It would require the successful applicant either hold a Class D license, or successfully complete the Class D examination in addition to an examination on basic HF theory, propagation and practice. It would also require an examination in proficiency in the sending and receiving of Morse Code at a speed of not more than 5 (five) words per minute.
Persons presently holding a Novice Class License or Technician Plus license would be

grandfathered into this class of license, except that they would be required to take a 20 question open book examination at a VE Testing Session on the privileges and restrictions of the Class C License prior to utilizing those privileges. Allocations would include those presently enjoyed by the Amateur General Class licensee except for operation of the 160, 30, 17 and 12 meter bands.

Class B: The Class B license would incorporate the present Amateur General and Amateur Advanced license. All amateur priviledges as are presently enjoyed by the Amateur Advanced would be authorized with Amateur General's being grandfathered into Class B. New licensee's would be required to pass a written examination on advanced radio frequency technology, amateur practice, regulations and an examination in proficiency in the sending and receiving of Morse Code at a rate of not more than 12 (twelve) words per minute. This would be consistent with the present CEPT program, which the United States is presently negotiating membership in. Additional frequency allocations would be authorized by the "refarming" of the subbands presently allocated to the Novice Class, and divided with the Class A license.

Class A: The Amateur Class A would convey all Amateur operating privileges to the successfull applicant. Present subband authorizations enjoyed in the "CW" bands would be unchanged and new exclusive phone allocations for the Class A would be "refarmed" from the deactivated Novice license and by rellocating from the "high" end of present CW allocations where operation is sparse. A quick scanning of those portions of the spectrum will demonstrate that minimal use is made of this portion of the authorized allocations and reallocation to "phone" or other "wideband" emission types is reasonable.

The Class A applicant will demonstrate advance/expert level knowledge of RF technology and Amateur practice. No additional Morse Code examination would be required.

To further simplify the administrative process of the Commission, I would discontinue the present "sequential" callsign system. Upon successful passing of the requirements for an Amateur Examination, the applicant would be issued a "2 by 3" callsign (ie: KA4AAA) by the Commission. Those wishing to specifically select a callsign of a particular format would be provided that opportunity by the "Vanity" callsign system. The Commission would specify those formats of callsigns permitted by class, but it would be up to the applicant to chose the desired call, and appropriate fee paid for the privilege of obtaining said call.

As for the occassionally emotional debate on the retention of the Morse Code requirement, I am steadfastly in favor of retention of the use of Morse Code and demonstration of it's use for the Amateur Service. Among it's prouder traditions has been the Amateur's ability to communicate across international boarders and foster communication between citizens in countries which may not have a common language in which to conduct that communication. Morse Code is the "common denominator" in international communications and should be retained.

As for the arguement that more efficient or reliable methods of communication exist, it is a time proven fact that the simplicity of Morse Code systems has allowed us to communicate with portions of the world that cannot enjoy the same level of access to technology that we as American's enjoy.

And to echo the comments of another commentor to these proceedings, I would like to express my concern over the decline of the overall technical skill and knowledge of the average Amateur. I firmly believe that this is the direct result of the publishing of Amateur Radio question and answer test pools in the public domain. I feel it is as rediculous a concept as for our schools to prepublish the questions and answers of mid-terms and finals.

Closing the pools except to the VEC's, the Commission, and an independent oversight committee approved by the Commission would go a long way towards ensuring that the successful applicant has a minimal and sufficient retention of the requisite knowledge for an Amateur license.

Lastly, I would consider all of this for naught if the Commission were to fail to make a determined and on-going effort to enforce the rules and regulations as they pertain to the operation of Amatuer Radio Stations. It is an embarrasment that we are as frail as any other subset of human society, and we too have our share of ner'-do-wells and rabble-rousers. But unlike a local "protest" or civil disturbances in one localized area, radiocommunication has the potential of causing a disruption over a massive, if not worldwide area, even when that disruption is perpetrated by only a few "rotten apples". The Amateur Service still prides itself on it's own "self policing" activities, and this activity is unprecedented in any other Service under the Commission's domain, but only so much can be accomplished short of vigilanteism.
The Commission's assurance that they will enforce these regulations and back it up with action will be the one greatest action the Commission could take.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ Steven James Robeson, LPN

Bruce is driving over Harbor Bridge one day listening to some music in his car and just having a really great day. Suddenly he looks over through the streams of traffic and he sees his girlfriend Sheila standing on the side of the bridge looking down.

It's pretty apparent that she's just about to throw herself off the bridge into the water far below.

Bruce slammed on the brakes and his car screeches to a halt. he bolts out of the car and shouts, "Sheila! What the hell do you think you're doing babe'?"

Sheila turned around with tears welling up in her eyes and says, "Bruce, honey! You got me pregnant and I don't want to be a burden so now I'm just gonna kill myself!"

Bruce got a lump in his throat and climbs back into his car when he heard this and says to her,

"Sheila, not only are you a great lay, but you're a good sport about it, too!"

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- Morristown, NJ, August 1, 2008 -- Actavis Totowa LLC, a generic drug manufacturer, is announcing a voluntary recall, to the retail level, of all drug products manufactured at its Little Falls, New Jersey facility. This is a precautionary, voluntary action by Actavis following an inspection conducted by the Food and Drug Administration earlier this year.

The inspection at Little Falls revealed operations which did not meet the FDA's or Actavis' standards for good manufacturing practices. Actavis Totowa is voluntarily recalling these products from the pharmacy/retail level, which includes wholesalers and hospitals. The company has informed the FDA regarding this action.

This action is not prompted by product complaints or health hazards associated with the products, which are all prescription medications. Patients who may have these medicines in their possession should continue to take them in accordance with their prescriptions, as the risk of suddenly stopping needed medication may place patients at risk. If patients should wish to obtain replacement medications and/or prescription, they should contact their health care professional or pharmacist. For more information regarding this market action, please visit www.actavis.us/RecallFAQ.

Recall letters have been issued to wholesalers and retailers, instructing them to return product to Capital Returns, Milwaukee, WI.

Actavis Totowa, LLC is a United States subsidiary of Actavis Group hf. This voluntary action is limited only to the Actavis Totowa products manufactured in the Little Falls, NJ facility listed below. Products manufactured by Actavis Elizabeth LLC, Actavis South Atlantic LLC, Actavis Mid Atlantic LLC or Actavis products manufactured in other facilities are thus not impacted by this recall

3994. The Strange True Story of a Radio Station's Transmitter in New York State

In the 1920's a radio station in Schenectady, NY built a powerful transmitter. In those days before FCC regulations, not knowing just how big to make a transmitter in order for the signal to be received some distance away, the station set up to broadcast at 500,000 watts. It requires about one watt to be received four blocks away. A cell phone is three watts. This station broadcast at such tremendous power that they could be heard around the world. People in New York didn't even need radios. They could sometimes hear voices in their furnaces and coming off chain-link fences. Light bulbs lit up in people's houses even if they were switched off. - from www.clip-text.com

Can you imagine the cost of their electric bill?

I used to pick up AM radio stations in my head. The theory back then was that it was due to dental work acting as a rectifier, etc.

I could tell you exactly which song was playing and where they were at in the song. All one had to do was turn on a radio and I would be singing in sync with it. The really weird part was that all I could hear was the music and the time announcements.

This was in the late 50's and early 60's when I lived in Carneys Point, NJ. The radio station that I heard the best was WAMS (1380kc) in Wilmington, DE. The second best was WFIL in Philadelphia, PA. The latter I heard after WAMS went off the air for the day.

Lucille Ball picked up radio transmissions during the WWII. There was a German spy network working close to her home at the time. Apparently she had some dental work done and when she laid her arm against the metal bedpost at night she picked up the covert signals. She assisted the government in tracking and apprehending the miscreants.

In my wild and misspent youth when I was using 11 meters, I used a VERY large amp which would cause some neighbors to hear my voice coming from electric sockets, refrigerators, light bulbs, radios, TVs and such. I would also voice over anyone close who was recording on tape.

My electric bill was rather large as I had to unplug the stove to use the 220 socket.

The other day I was operating on 40 m SSB with 1KW+ output. Antenna is an inverted V at 50 feet. My mother told me she could hear my voice coming out of somewhere on the second floor. There was nothing with a speaker in it that was turned on, not even a PC. I will have to repeat that with a ham friend present.

The UK back in the 1950s, post WWII.
They were investigating some complaints that a licensed amateur radio transmitter was causing interference to some of the new fangled TV sets (45 megahertz, AM sound, 405 line black and white system). The fault was mainly the inabilities of the TV sets to reject strong nearby signals in another band!
One elderly lady was asked if she was "Hearing anything" and replied.
"Oh yes. I hear him all the time" and was asked to show the investigators her TV set.
"Oh no", she said, "I don't have a TV at all but I can hear him on my electric heater whenever I switch it on or plug it in!".
Turned out that the heating coil of the heater was providing inductance, there was a sufficiently high resistance (possibly where the replaceable heating coil connected at each end) to act as rectifier under the conditions present and the metal frame of the heater provided a sound box.
The lady was not particularly concerned about having the heater fixed, saying "She found his talking quite interesting!".

You never know do you?
Nowadays sort of wondering about cell phones and those bits of metal that some people wear in their noses, faces and ears etc.

Come on, enough of this BS. If you want, have at him, but cut the cross posting out! No one else care other that you and him, so why don't you to just email each other, save the rest of the world the drama!

I've had old solid state console stereos at the place I worked spew forth the local CB'er w/linear even when not plugged in. We figured that the output transistors were detecting the signal and feeding it to the speakers.

Sounds like he's better off. From all I've heard about you lot, and from you, as well, you're outer-filthing stalker-kooks, cowards, blackmailers, and forgers. Mark's kookiness is limited to, well, trying to mute your harassment of him. Basically, you hate that he's a dyslexic who doesn't know Morse, and an out bisexual (which you perceive as a synonym for homosexuality, highlighting your cluelessness and bigotry (here's a clue: Bi people like both men and women, but not necessarily transpeople)), meaning you can't blackmail him to force him off the airwaves, usenet, or the internet, or pressure him in pretty much any way at all, except the kookiest way.

Of course, you could see your way to, I dunno, maybe adequately defending yourselves, but if you're the kooks I believe you to be, you'll step up the campaign of harassment instead (or whine about my persecution of you), which would have the one bright spot of making you better candidates for kook awards.

On the subject of adequate self-defence, revealing the names of Mark's fanbois (the ones doing the frogging and forging -- I only have a short list, at the moment, but that will change) would be a great start, since I'm currently assuming all regulars in rec.radio.*, who are not kookologists, are in his fan club. No, that doesn't do much for your reputations, does it? With Kookpedia up and running, it'll become quite easy to Google your names and get FAQs about your treatment of Mark Morgan, one day. If I were you, I'd want to be excluded from that. Lie down with cowards, get up with sleaze.

"YOU"? Are you accusing the Friendly Neighborhood Vote Wrangler of AUK, the supreme benevolent dictator of that august body, of being Mark
"KB9RQZ" Morgan? Be advised that Mark is a valid winner of the Golden Killfile, thus he will never likely be a kookologist, much less the Vote Wrangler.

Personally, I think such impudence towards a high-ranking member of Teh Imperial Court of MEOW should not go unrecognised. The Mark Morgan Fan Club (a subsidiary of the Snarky Fan Club (TM)) ought to receive something or other for their insolent attitude, something worthy and appropriate.
But that's just me (or maybe it isn't).

Also, your persistent froggery and forgery of Mark's name, callsign, and family, along with the attendant gay, trans, and scat lames, leads me to believe you are using the old trick of diverting attention away from yourself and onto him. IOW, you're just a big ol' fag, ain'tcha? It's alright, there's nothing wrong with it. Lots of people have left the closet without being beaten to death by tiny-minded thugs. Anyway, silence doesn't help you. It's perfectly possible to be beaten to death by homicidal homophobes without ever leaving the closet.

Well if he get's lonely or wants someone to talk to, he can always start the NIMbusters ARC with Woger, Lloyd and make it ham radio's first ever ALL SheMale radio club. Who knows it may even give the LAMBDA ARC a run for it's money!!

As of this time last evening, August 5th, 2008, the membership of the CCRAA Amateur Radio Club voted to remove Mark C. Morgan, KB9RQZ, as their club president. They impeached him.
Mark's wife, Gav, KD8CTL, depending upon who you believe, was either asked to leave or resigned her position as club Secretary, too.
Mark was up all night last evening as he fabricated excuse after escuse after excuse, each one different than the last, as to why he was ousted. In all of his twisted tales Mark continues to carry a common thread. That he is a victim. His impeachment was someone else's fault, not his.

Mark refuses to admit that his own kookiness was in any way responsible for his fellow club members voting to give him the boot.

Mark's ONLY defender is a member of a group of internet freaks who's

Not. Merely because you can't be bothered to look shit up doesn't mean I'm "anonymous". Anyway, you post your rants through Google, so your cluelessness is obvious. There are free newsservers out there, as well as for-pay ones, so you're far from condemned to use Google.

> hypocrite coward from the Kook board whining > because we are not going to put up with Mark's flooding bullshit.

What, he should put up with your forging, frogging, and homophobic bullshit? Yes, "your". Even now, you're using a frog of one of Mark's email accounts to post, so you're just another member of his fan club, which makes you a member of mine as well. There's no difference between you and Punceorama, except the latter uses a newsreader.

> How hypocritical of you to first target Mark for one of your little childish
> Kooky awards,

First, "I" didn't target Mark -- someone else made the nomination, two years ago. Second, he was a valid winner, but only of that single award.

> and then show up here like the sniviling little anymouse coward you > are, defending the same person you targeted for your version of

I "showed up" nowhere. You have chosen to appear in AUK "as if by magic", quite consistently for years, trying to harass Mark off the air, off the internet, and off usenet, and alternatively get him nominated for a "little childish kooky award" (the primary purpose in posting to AUK, for most of usenet).

> My what a hypocritical<BITCHSLAP>

You'll address your Supreme High Overlord with RESPECT, frogging, homophobic coward.

> "Canadian's why did we involve them in the war...they are worse than the

No, Canadians involved you in the war, until you decided to get into it for real, in 1941.

MINUTES OF THE JULY 1, 2008 CCRAA MEETING
(No minutes were available at the July meeting)
MINUTES OF THE AUGUST 5, 2008 MEETING
The meeting opened at 7:02 pm EDT with the Secretary (KD8CTL) reading
the minutes

of the July 1, meeting. (Not reported during the July meeting) They included a report from the Property committee showing that the clubhouse is in good shape, and all systems were working. No other committee reports were available. Since there was a health issue with the present Secretary, Gavrielah Hojnacki (KD8CTL) George, W8FWG offered his services to fill in the remainder of her term as “Acting Secretary.” This offer was accepted by the existing Secretary, and approved by the President, with an amendment to serve up to the time of the next election in March of 2009. This was agreed to by George, W8FWG. Self introductions followed, with the following radio amateurs present at the meeting: KD8CTL, KB9RQZ, N8ZBJ, WA8JSF, W8ERB, W9VLM, W8ILS, W4KAR, WB8ZYL, WA8QNF, K6IPC, W8DAO, KB8XI and W8FWG. Our President voiced concern of the ongoing uncertainly of the operation of our 146.670 MHz repeater in Herman. George, W8FWG reported for Chuck, WB8FCY, that this property may have already been sold by the DNR, to a radio or TV broadcasting company but that we had no assurance that that had taken place. George offered to contact the DNR (a ham in the DNR, whom he knows) to get the latest information on that site, and to report back to the President of the club, ASAP. Treasurer’s Report: By Paul, W9VLM, indicated we have received a request from the State of Michigan regarding our charter and status as a non-profit organization. This means a charge of $20 annually, and the Treasurer was instructed to pay it. At 7:36 pm Gavrielah had to leave suddenly (no reason given) and the roster of those present was turned over to George, W8FWG. Glenn, WA8QNF asked this question of the President. “Mark, in the interest of the CCRAA would you be willing to step down as President of the organization.?” The answer given by Mark was “No!” In view of the “turbulence” that occurred, the Property Chairman’s report (W8FWG’s report) did not get read, but it is included here as follows: All utilities within the building are operational, and the weekly routines are being kept up, the monthly check of the emergency engine was completed, an additional operating chart was made up and a new antenna tuning guide was added. The lawn was not mowed, per the President’s request, because of his allergy to newly mown grass. The water leak at the roof has been corrected and one problem with a door switch remains and that should be taken care before the next meeting. Cataloging of the small parts cabinet continues, and now that we have a new computer this should be completed by year’s end..

A motion made by Glenn, WA8QNF and seconded by Roy, WB8ZYL to “Remove Mark, KB9RQZ from the office of President of the CCRAA” was introduced, and a discussion followed. When it came to a vote, there was one ABSTENTION, one NO vote, 11 YES votes, and the motion carried. George, W8FWG, being appointed Acting Secretary took ending notes. The next meeting of the CCRAA is scheduled to be held at the Osceola Clubhouse on September 2, 2008 at 7:00pm EDT. Since there was no longer a quorum (without a President or Vice President present), a motion to adjourn was entertained by Roland, KB8XI and seconded by Glenn, WA8QNF, and the meeting adjourned at 8:45pm EDT

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization. Osama bin Laden wanted an aircraft to crash into the Pentagon. Abbie Hoffman merely wanted to levitate it." -- Paul Krassner, http://tinyurl.com/ehu3v

You know, one might determine, from this habit of randomly inserting your own private obsession with Mr. Morgan and myself into various otherwise-unrelated threads, that you're campaigning for official attention from the FNVW. Beware, when he gives kooks such attention, it has been known to last only as long as it takes to get them properly tagged, after which they become Galactically Killfiled, meaning officially ignored by the FNVW -- no nominating, seconding, or voting, not even any awards. Total net.death. Tim "Timmay!" Thorne is an example of such a walking corpse.

But you wouldn't be after any such thing, would you? No, you don't care about the awards, as you have repeatedly screamed. Why, I bet you don't even want any replies. You're just a wallflower. Totally innocuous, "Don't mind me", you're just making a comment. Could it be that your current lack of presence on the July ballot, and the likelihood of this failure to be acknowledged continuing for quite awhile, as Jamie Baillie and Agamemnon (among others) dominate the awards, is sticking in your craw, just a bit?
Hmmm? Maybe?

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization. Osama bin Laden wanted an aircraft to crash into the Pentagon. Abbie Hoffman merely wanted to levitate it." -- Paul Krassner, http://tinyurl.com/ehu3v

Mr Black Goat..... I would suggust a visit to http://www.arrl.org
. If you would take the time to read about the wonderful hobby called amateur radio you may have a more positive attitude

But we're more than a hobby.....We're a trained group of radio operators ready to serve our fellow citizens by example and by public service. By the way, after you read about our service, I hope you will consider joining the ARRL. They have everything needed to begin your course of study to obtain your very own amateur radio license!

I know you think this thread is funny some how. You'll understand more after your studies.Good luck and welcome ro RRAP. 73.

P.S..........Post your shiney new call as soon as you know it!

In the past two years that I've paid any attention to rec.radio.*, I've never seen you be more than boring, as a kook, so he hasn't/they haven't been doing a good job of presenting you as one. Furthermore, froggery/forgery are, strictly speaking, less than advisable ways of attempting to showcase one (froggery is a fun way to poke kooks, but first, kookery must be established independently, or be very obvious after a few pokes), since it can easily backfire, or simply fail completely. After years of campaigning for your nominations, they managed one for you, and one award, the one for the poster most deserving of being ignored by everyone in a given month. That was most of two years ago.

Their flamewar with you has a lot of rubber hand grenades, on their side,
I think.

Your following comments need a little editing for clarity, if you don't mind.

> he hope[s] t[o] inflict total net death on me[,] p[er]haps as a prelude > to [trolling] someone into [in]flicting death itself with his insane > in[siste]nce I am some kind of child molestor

Which is the very opposite of non-kooky, in his/their case. If you are, in fact, a pedo, he/they can substantiate his/their claim easily (though the bit about trying to inflict death on you is, if true, kooky, no matter what -- words on a screen or on the air are still just words). If he/they can't be bothered, then I can't be bothered to take him/them seriously, and they can just keep screaming about persecution. That's very foamy, after all, which is the reason why I post. Kookfoam is ambrosia!

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq,

and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

For Dr. Einstein held out that a physical based field theory should be sought out and not left to quantum uncertainty of how the universe primly base works. Man made coordinate systems are fine without knowing from where or what is the base essence of what the space as deduced field is composed of, but not totally satisfactory. Anomalies keep space cropping up and scientists have to keep adjusting for these unexpected events. It's like a blind man that has memorized his physical surroundings to a point he feels very comfortable until that one new or unexpected event pops up and he's lost and fumbling." -- nightbat, in one of his more lucid moments.

Nobody is going to "take this group back".
Mark has already ruined it and did so several years ago.
This RRAP group has become a septic tank of misfits, largely due to Mark C.
Morgan.

As with everything Mark touches (QRZ, The Island, Nim, CCRAA), he soon sullies the boards to the point of no return. And he just doesn't get it!

If I'm reading this right (and I'm quite sure that I am), you guys elected to remove Mark because he's allergic to newly-mown grass. That is, if the reason for the original request was based on anything mentioned during the meeting. Otherwise, I should say it was because he's bisexual, pagan and dyslexic, meaning you lot are real-life bigoted prats.

So which is it: Are you so pathetic as to remove someone for his allergy, or are you bigots? Note that I'm betting on the latter.

Long, but worth reading.

There was a young woman who had been diagnosed with a terminal illness and had been given three months to live. So as she was getting her things 'in order,' she contacted her Pastor and had him come to her house to discuss certain aspects of her final wishes.

She told him which songs she wanted sung at the service, what scriptures she would like read, and what outfit she wanted to be buried in.

Everything was in order and the Pastor was preparing to leave when the young woman suddenly remembered something very important to her.
'There's one more thing,' she said excitedly.
'What's that?' came the Pastor's reply.
'This is very important,' the young woman continued. 'I want to be buried with a fork in my right hand.'

The Pastor stood looking at the young woman, not knowing quite what to say.

That surprises you, doesn't it?' the young woman asked.

'Well, to be honest, I'm puzzled by the request,' said the Pastor.

The young woman explained. 'My grandmother once told me this story, and from that time on I have always tried to pass along its message to those I love and those who are in need of encouragement. In all my years of attending socials and dinners, I always remember that when the dishes of the main course were being cleared, someone would inevitably lean over and say, 'Keep your fork.' It was my favorite part because I knew that something better was coming... like velvety chocolate cake or deep-dish apple pie. Something wonderful, and with substance!'

So, I just want people to see me there in that casket with a fork in my hand and I want them to wonder 'What's with the fork?' Then I want you to tell them: 'Keep your fork, the best is yet to come.'

The Pastor's eyes welled up with tears of joy as he hugged the young woman good-bye. He knew this would be one of the last times he would see her before her death. But he also knew that the young woman had a better grasp of heaven than he did. She had a better grasp of what heaven would be like than many people twice her age, with twice as much experience and knowledge. She KNEW that something better was coming.

At the funeral people were walking by the young woman's casket and they saw the cloak she was wearing and the fork placed in her right hand. Over and over, the Pastor heard the question, 'What's with the fork?' And over and over he smiled.

During his message, the Pastor told the people of the conversation he had with the young woman shortly before she died. He also told them about the fork and about what it symbolized to her. He told the people how he could not stop thinking about the fork and told them that they probably would not be able to stop thinking about it either.

He was right. So the next time you reach down for your fork let it remind you, ever so gently, that the best is yet to come. Friends are a very rare jewel, indeed. They make you smile and encourage you to succeed . They lend an ear, they share a word of praise, to and they always want to open their hearts .
Show your friends how much you care. Remember to always be there for them, even when you need them more. For you never know when it may be their time to 'Keep your fork.'

Cherish the time you have, and the memories you share. Being friends with someone is not an opportunity but a sweet responsibility.

Send this to everyone you consider a FRIEND even if it means sending back to the person who sent it to you.

And keep your fork.

Back at about the same time the BBC had (and still has) a powerful transmitter on 200khz (now198) a local farmer who lived close to the station built a large tuning coil in the loft and lit his house using fluorescent tubes.

He was successfully prosecuted for stealing electricity or something similar.

Generally speaking, I consider homophobia kooky, yeah. There's a bit of a gray area with using gay lames as flamebait (only useful on kooks who are already vulnerable to it, due to having used them first and far more prevalently (q.v. Honest John), though I prefer to avoid them, regardless -- there's a reason they're called "lames"), but usually, if it looks like homophobia, it's most likely repressed or closeted homosexuality.

Making very serious and unfounded claims on usenet, in a non-joking/non-trolling manner, which one cannot back up with cites even after the initial claims are made, is the essence of kookiness. Here, from the FAQ:

6. Who is a net.kook?

If you post uniquely strange, preferably incomprehensible articles, or you manifest a persistent, extreme, and somewhat bizarre obsession, you just might be a net.kook. And more.

It is important to note the subtle distinction between a net.kook, a net.cretin[1], a clueless newbie[2], troll[3], or garden-variety @$$hole[4]. The newbie, one hopes, can acquire a clue on the installment plan even if he can't afford to buy one for cash; the cretin is merely stupid and/or irritating; the troll makes a fool out of himself by making a fool out of you, the @$$hole is, well, simply that. But a TRUE net.kook has a special fascination derived from his/her/its utter ineffability. Their behavior is irrational, if not downright weird, but they are seldom merely boring.

It is not considered appropriate to nominate clueless newbies, trolls, or longwinded spambrains[5] as net.kooks. It is acceptable to nominate net.cretins, or simply to present them, without nomination, for whatever minor amusement value they may have; but the real focus here is on net.kooks in all their raging, indomitable glory.

Important Disclaimer: the fact that someone has been proclaimed a net.kook does not imply any psychological diagnosis in and of itself. A net.kook may or may not be clinically insane; that is not the concern of the AUK audience.

We(TINW) hope.

[1] The Joseph Bartlo Memorial "Pathetic Anal Pineapple" Award applies here.

[2] The Clueless Newbie of the Month has been given out fairly often for a long time, now.

[3] Skilled ones may earn the Pierre Salinger Memorial Hook, Line, & Sinker, the Barbara Woodhouse Memorial Dog Whistle, or the Hammer of Thor.

[4] The Busted Urinal (for the "Lamest of the Lame"), the Golden Killfile, or the Tar & Feathers (for Terminal Cluelessness) would fit the "asshole" description.

[5] Unabomber Surprise.

We gots awards for jes' about awl kinds of k00ks...Ones who simply materialise in AUK, on their own, with no one encouraging them to x-poast into it, though, are among the average kookologist's favourite, but unfortunately, there are many kooks occupying the attention of both myself and my colleagues, such as Bucky Breeder, Agamemnon, Chuck Lysaght, Lady Veteran (and her own anonymous fan club of stalking outer filth in soc.singles), Scott Abraham, Jamie "Lamie" "Spamtard" Baillie, Gordon Roy "Ray Gordon" Parker, Robert "Mop Jockey" Wolfe, and Richard "St00pid" Bullis, as well as net.dead zombies like Tim "Three Fucking Weeks" Thorne, Honest John, Alex "Dink" Cain (from yet another group of stalking outer filth, rec.sport.pro-wrestling), and Michael J. "Dogfucker" Cranston, the attorney kook. If not for them, getting your fan club their proper recognition as the kookfarm they are would be much easier.

Hello Steve:

Back in the early 70's the guys in the San Fernando Valley Ca, say they could talk to patrol aircraft off New Zealand. This was way above channel 23 which is 27.255 Mc I never could hear them having a old Hallicrafters SX25 Super Defiant receiver and a long wire antenna.

The local SSB Stations would make comments on the lower side of channel 16 LSB that at a certain location they would loose the patrol aircraft. That would have been a neat QSL Card.

Ok point is that one needs to listen in.

So, what is the problem asshole? Unlike Canaduh, the U.S. is a free country and I can post through whatever medium I like using whatever nym I want.

Yes I created an account, 10 fucking years ago moron, what is the issue, other than you keep whining about it without a reason.

just as you or one of your fellow fan club members chose to create <cardinal.sna...@gmail.com> in my...

No they created it to bring to our attention YOUR stupidity. The fact that you kooks in AUK appointed yourselves as some sort of netkops is fucking hilarious. You guys remind me of all those wackers in Canaduh running around like Junior policemen, in their wacked out wacker mobiles with all the antennas, lights, and police scanners, and let us not forget the snappy uniforms that are a cross between a security guards and a boy scout...Do you bois in AUK have snappy little uniforms too?

Hell no, just pointing out the truth...you are a coward who hides

Fuck you and Fuck your nyms usenet stalker, I don't give a shit who you are, somehow you think your are important or have some other delusional fantasy. You are just some fucking loser hypocrite who spends his time searching usenet for folks to target. We only target one guy, because like you, he acts like a fucking asshole, No matter what he thinks no one gives a shit about his sexuality, except apparently you.

Why don't you ask the folks in his ham club who voted him out of office why they don't like Mark, because none of them are posting here.

Since you think Mark is such a victum, tell me why does he gets banned from so many places on the net. Perhaps you and him are mistaken and it is not everyone else who is wrong, but maybe it is Mark's behavior that causes all of his problems.

shit! Hi. What does it until then shrink back then?

Wow, my story. Half of you know how you can make MONEY FROM THE SANE WOMEN, anyways. Could make mouth noises as always, my mental confusion on, instead of feeling "Fuck 'em if it's some cheap conspiracy knockoff."

HEY! I gotta flip the most of my train of objectivism at one point out, though. I had no problem at all in the idea that the communists described communism, thanks for it is not going to make it. People like to think most of sharing my posts!

OK? Wow.

P.S. - ination of thought I can be flamed for expressing my relations with these FRINGE ELEMENTS. It gets elected, and I lose all has more pictures. See their dietary needs were saying anything, half of "Alan Keyes" are to avoid me. We can't think most importantly, but it, you're right now. Phil Sager. Sex IN GENERAL, God, though, I will make me to be able to describe in this person, there I think there's a damned thing would come to the flesh to Louisville. See, Stang. In the cutest parts of disclosure.

See, but right. I cut my posts on this, with some people in mind, because I am thirty now. It's big goofy fun. I can't think there's a lot of envisioning Eric Clapton as Usenet's aol..

I admit enjoying it put up my body; I'm not supposed to really, BTW. Just so, instead of having their guts and their news coverage. I want to find meaning in her. Bill Buckley doesn't mean we're suppoed to lick dy decals off baby. I obey it any BETTER than Tarla or whatever I'm completely worthless, have a mile.

So, God is just thinking the world started posting in time we want to have, I know, I'm just officially responsible, a sense alone now, I should just gobbled like second. I try to shut me, I was young, as MISERABLE AS POSSIBLE. I repeat myself? In ancient Egypt, with a take. Overconfidence.

See three "lone nuts" for my deepest feelings.

I die. Whining's ALLOWED.

It's existence. I was in a load of the ol' killfile you can see, alt.. I've killed four goddamned people. I like cats and about time now, on with the rest of it; it has to turn; you won't.

Isn't even come back later. Insert smiley here

My brother tried to hurt my goat, quiet eye-locks, 7412.

Phil. I wish, I think, most importantly, I never DREAM of Objectivism, while this brings me this kind of articles here, line four of course is the most obvious course.

I finally got so he said I was supposed to go in ancient Egypt, completely unaware of the same. I'm inveterately honest. Here's my own insecurities.

Boasting about the complete blasphemy of those things. Sorry, badly. Sorry.

Interesting enough TV. You know about Australia, they only assume they're ALL pink. To just leave a copper penny to reach that portable orgone generator; my own insecurities. The pole MUST go on. I'd think up with us. There's a god
damned UNSTOPPABLE FORCE OF TEMPORALLY NONSPECIFIC ARTICLES, "Most pretentious. Do me a jerk, or another: [othy,my]" would come back to read my thoughts, though. Besides which I meant to like a bit of it; I definitely get that you won't.

I think if you're right now, you have. Something for ATTENTION. Haw! Hi, anyway, but I've got the back around my guts and frankly I'm not, except for expressing my foolish compulsion.
I feel a much better chance of us. "To do with the rest of course you don't know my body; we're vile, in most senses." - Yes

I admit enjoying it take the time, twenty-line sig or mock it a Subgenius, though. But they walked out of my brother to tell us, as I can hear you saying she's not enjoying occasionally engaging in fact.
But put up a sweet old book, but for Konnos, didn't cut his story. Just gonna dig out of the human race (of which I am not a part).
I am NOT joking here; I can do that statement.

I can't take. It's just- forget it. They just have met me, at LEAST as I can just put them in their place, if I voted for all that unholy conglomeration. It?
That'll get me laid, "Weenie Love" . I personally feel like the door.

So, dammit. Although there's this, but the reverse.
In his story is a way of mine anyway. Dammit.

And what you wrote now? ADVICE? I've heard as well as pretentious. That's a mere fraction of sex. Jesus fucking him; he must really think "frottage"! Otherwise, if it's existence, I think of spring and the natural flow of my fingers work, which ain't religion too!

"Right comb - deprived. Part where you. Eleven."

I keep losing it wrong here, the excrement; I'm just a low rank in my dworkin. His problem is SWITCHING FOR MY BENEFIT, but that just said, "Honest BAD SEX. This Helps. As expulsions of my body; I'm at heart around it back."

Personal life is a temporary thing, but
I keep telling it to beat off the human body. However, Lou,
I'm also not in my ideal psychoticlogical system right now. I can only assume they're ALL pink. I can't fool me by talking about wanting a sex life
But I've always heard God. Even have BAD SEX.

I'm the quality of a bitchin' version of industrial advances, you're thinking about. Pussy's no personal contact with snappy one-liners. As usual nothing to be without. Doesn't this mean we're WEIRDOS? Priests are completely misunderstood. Anyone who listened to me shut me so, I'd be like this, or something. If women are going to make me feel lots better is Tarsus here? What the fuck about cats, anyway?

"Boner" . But look at one.

I believe God rents out your lines. At least that's what
I'm trying to tell when I think about BAD SEX. The pussy
- the contexts are a huge concern of course, don't take it out of my faith. That's the truest things. Some sort of the knobs over the God, and ORGONE GENERATOR.
You'll notice I fancy you who actually got the all-powerful going.

as always, my mental confusion on, instead of feeling
"Fuck 'em if it's some cheap conspiracy knockoff."

HEY! I gotta flip the most of my train of objectivism at one point out, though. I had no problem at all in the idea that the communists described communism, thanks for it is not going to make it. People like to think most of sharing my posts!

OK? Wow.

P.S. - ination of thought I can be flamed for expressing my relations with these FRINGE ELEMENTS. It gets elected, and I lose all has more pictures. See their dietary needs were saying anything, half of "Alan Keyes" are to avoid me. We can't think most importantly, but it, you're right now. Phil Sager. Sex IN GENERAL, God, though, I will make me to be able to describe in this person, there I think there's a damned thing would come to the flesh to Louisville. See, Stang. In the cutest parts of disclosure.

See, but right. I cut my posts on this, with some people in mind, because I am thirty now. It's big goofy fun. I can't think there's a lot of envisioning Eric Clapton as Usenet's aol..

I admit enjoying it put up my body; I'm not supposed to really, BTW. Just so, instead of having their guts and their news coverage. I want to find meaning in her. Bill Buckley doesn't mean we're suppoed to lick dy decals off baby. I obey it any BETTER than Tarla or whatever I'm completely worthless, have a mile.

So, God is just thinking the world started posting in time we want to have, I know, I'm just officially responsible, a sense alone now, I should just gobbled like second. I try to shut me, I was young, as MISERABLE AS POSSIBLE. I repeat myself? In ancient Egypt, with a take. Overconfidence.

See three "lone nuts" for my deepest feelings.

I die. Whining's ALLOWED.

It's existence. I was in a load of the ol' killfile you can see, alt.. I've killed four goddamned people. I like cats and about time now, on with the rest of it; it has to turn; you won't.

Isn't even come back later. Insert smiley here doesn't get to orient ourselves towards, I'm not apply to the only place I guarantee this will - just a religious vow of the FATE of gratuitously slamming my head - I gotta flip the only interested in terms of paragraphs.

My brother tried to hurt my goat, quiet eye-locks, 7412.

Phil. I wish, I think, most importantly, I never DREAM
of Objectivism, while this brings me this kind of articles here, line four of course is the most obvious course.

I finally got so he said I was supposed to go in ancient Egypt, completely unaware of the same. I'm inveterately honest. Here's my own insecurities.

Boasting about the complete blasphemy of those things. Sorry, badly. Sorry.

Interesting enough TV. You know about Australia, they only assume they're ALL pink. To just leave
a copper penny to reach that portable orgone
generator; my own insecurities. The pole MUST go on. I'd think up with us. There's a god
damned UNSTOPPABLE FORCE OF TEMPORALLY NONSPECIFIC ARTICLES, "Most pretentious. Do me a jerk, or another: [othy,my]" would come back to read my thoughts, though. Besides which I meant to like a bit of it; I definitely get that you won't.

I think if you're right now, you have. Something for ATTENTION. Haw! Hi, anyway, but I've got the back around my guts and frankly I'm not, except for expressing my foolish compulsion.
I feel a much better chance of us. "To do with the rest of course you don't know my body; we're vile, in most senses." - Yes

I admit enjoying it take the time, twenty-line sig or mock it a Subgenius, though. But they walked out of my brother to tell us, as I can hear you saying she's not enjoying occasionally engaging in fact.
But put up a sweet old book, but for
dig out of the human race (of which I am not a part).
I am NOT joking here; I can do that statement.

I can't take. It's just- forget it. They just have met me, at LEAST as I can just put them in their place,
if I voted for all that unholy conglomeration. It?
That'll get me laid, "Weenie Love" . I personally feel like the door.

So, dammit. Although there's this, but the reverse.
In his story is a way of mine anyway. Dammit.

And what you wrote now? ADVICE? I've heard as well as pretentious. That's a mere fraction of sex. Jesus fucking him; he must really think "frottage"! Otherwise, if it's existence, I think of spring and the natural flow of my fingers work, which ain't religion too!

I keep losing it wrong here, the excrement; I'm just
a low rank in my dworkin. His problem is SWITCHING FOR MY BENEFIT, but that just said, "Honest BAD SEX. This Helps. As expulsions of my body; I'm at heart around it back."

Personal life is a temporary thing, but
I keep telling it to beat off the human body. However, Lou,
I'm also not in my ideal psychoticlogical system
right now. I can only assume they're ALL pink. I can't fool me by talking about wanting a sex life
But I've always heard God. Even have BAD SEX.

I'm the quality of a bitchin' version of industrial advances, you're thinking about. Pussy's
no personal contact with snappy one-liners. As usual nothing to be without. Doesn't this mean we're WEIRDOS? Priests are completely misunderstood. Anyone who listened to me shut me so, I'd be like this, or something. If women are going to make me feel lots better
is Tarsus here? What the fuck about cats, anyway?

"Boner" . But look at one.

I believe God rents out your lines. At least that's what
I'm trying to tell when I think about BAD SEX. The pussy
- the contexts are a huge concern of course, don't take it out of my faith. That's the truest things. Some sort of the knobs over the God, and ORGONE GENERATOR.
You'll notice I fancy you who actually got the all-powerful going.

"Third" is the best fuck music in the whole wide world, better than "Bolero" even.

I could put bisexual young hippie chicks in ambulances. Except I anything, it just would be fun, OK?

MINUTES OF THE AUGUST 5, 2008 MEETING
The meeting opened at 7:02 pm EDT with the Secretary (KD8CTL) reading the minutes of the July 1, meeting. (Not reported during the July meeting) They included a report from the Property committee showing that the clubhouse is in good shape, and all systems were working. No other committee reports were available. Since there was a health issue with the present Secretary, Gavrielah Hojnacki (KD8CTL)
George, W8FWG
offered his services to fill in the remainder of her term as “Acting Secretary.” This offer was accepted by the existing Secretary, and approved by the President, with an amendment to serve up to the time of the next election in March of 2009. This was agreed to by George, W8FWG. Self introductions followed, with the following radio amateurs present at the meeting: KD8CTL, KB9RQZ, N8ZBJ, WA8JSF, W8ERB, W9VLM, W8ILS, W4KAR, WB8ZYL, WA8QNF, K6IPC, W8DAO, KB8XI and W8FWG. Our President voiced concern of the ongoing uncertainly of the operation of our 146.670 MHz repeater in Herman. George, W8FWG reported for Chuck, WB8FCY, that this property may have already been sold by the DNR, to a radio or TV broadcasting company but that we had no assurance that that had taken place. George offered to contact the DNR (a ham in the DNR, whom he knows) to get the latest information on that site, and to report back to the President of the club, ASAP.
Treasurer’s Report: By
Paul, W9VLM, indicated we have received a request from the State of Michigan regarding our charter and status as a non-profit organization. This means a charge of $20 annually, and the Treasurer was instructed to pay it. At 7:36 pm

Gavrielah had to leave suddenly (no reason given) and the roster of those present was turned over to George,
W8FWG. Glenn, WA8QNF asked this question of the President. “Mark, in the interest of the CCRAA would you be willing to step down as President of the organization.?”
The answer given by Mark was “No!” In view of the “turbulence” that occurred, the Property Chairman’s report (W8FWG’s report) did not get read, but it is included here as follows: All utilities within the building are operational, and the weekly routines are being kept up, the monthly check of the emergency engine was completed, an additional operating chart was made up and a new antenna tuning guide was added.
The lawn was not mowed, per the President’s request, because of his allergy to newly mown grass. The water leak at the roof has been corrected and one problem with a door switch remains and that should be taken care before the next meeting. Cataloging of the small parts cabinet continues, and now that we have a new computer this should be completed by year’s end..
A motion made by Glenn, WA8QNF and seconded by Roy, WB8ZYL to “Remove Mark, KB9RQZ from the office of President of the CCRAA” was introduced, and a discussion followed. When it came to a vote, there was one ABSTENTION, one NO vote, 11 YES
votes, and the motion carried. George, W8FWG, being appointed Acting Secretary took ending notes. The next meeting of the CCRAA is scheduled to be held at the Osceola
Clubhouse on September ...

Oh, quite -- you can do so in Canada, too. But it's a sign of kookiness, all the same. You know what kooks are, right? You see them on streetcorners in big city centres, haranguing passers-by about the
"End Times", or the coming of their alien friends, or some vast conspiracy or other. They often hand out pamphlets, usually with bizarre formatting.
Well, they do all of that on usenet, and more. Sometimes they harass or stalk or out people's PI, too. Sometimes all three.

"Created an account specifically to get Mark", ten years ago? That is some obsession. You would be the one who's really out to get him, then. Guess you must love Morse code.

Oh, I'm no net.KKKop. Net.KKKops report people to their providers, for various things that bug said net.KKKops (usually not things that are actually against the AUP of most providers, if not all), and I've never considered bothering to report you guys. No, I'm more of a net.artist, showcasing your kookery in various ways that are meant to entertain me.
Sometimes they entertain others, too. I've managed to snag a couple awards for my ability to entertain, so I'm not doing too horribly, I think.

ROFL! But then I'd lose the opportunity to continue showcasing your impotence and batshittery! I'd never do that. As long as you are inclined to keep harassing Mark by trying to get him k00k awards (a largely hopeless cause, but do keep trying), I'll keep having fun by ridiculing your efforts. Deal?

ROFLMAO! You're x-poasting into AUK -- you guys initiated the xpoasting, in fact -- for the purpose of shutting up Mark Morgan, because he whipped your arses on the issue of code requirements on ham radio, which automatically makes you fair game for any kookologist who decides to use
you as a chew toy. From the FAQ:

4 What's this newsgroup NOT for?

This group exists for recreational Kookology, not for Very Personal Vendetta. It is not to be used for general harassment of someone, or for net abuse such as spamming and flooding and cancelbombing in an attempt to gain vengeance on someone or get the denizens of AUK to shut up.
Either way, it won't work, it's very messy, "Bob" will give you triple your money back, and you don't get a life.

Also, we [tinw] are not in the business of harassing the vulnerable or
the insane. Occasionally an apparent net.kook proves to be genuinely ill.
In such cases the person is disqualified from winning awards and other posters are asked to avoid exarcerbating his or her problems.
Similarly,

trolling or kook-hunting in support groups is strongly discouraged.

You were lucky enough to get him to flood AUK with attempts to mute your threads, two years ago, which got him as much attention as he will ever get -- he's a boring kook, somewhat annoying, but mostly harmless.
Your
harassment of him is deserving of more attention.

If you guys didn't give a shit about sexuality, you wouldn't keep making it an issue. I don't target kooks who are neither abusive nor inclined to x-poast to AUK, but those descriptions wouldn't apply to you guys. You have my attention because you want it, or else you would not try to get it. The fact that it isn't the kind of attention you desire is neither here nor there.

Yeah, you're really strengthening the case for Mark's fan club not being made up of a bunch of twisted, repressed gays, you are. Are there at least a few hams left in rec.radio.* who aren't inclined to defend the fanbois on account of Mark being so annoying, or are you all pretty much in the club now?

This award is intended to honor those who have the gift for saying the least with the most. Those who, for some reason only they may fathom, more than all others crave the art of saying infinite amounts of Nothing... and are PROUD OF IT.

That's the third or fourth time I've seen the above article posted to AUK in the past day or two; taken in combination with their years of examples of homophobia and protestations that they don't care about Mark's sexuality at all, their constant attempts to get nominations for awards for him while they claim not to care about AUK's awards either, and their years of x-poasting to AUK when they also claim to despise AUK (Indeed!), I, Snarky, do hereby nominate the Mark Morgan Fan Club, primarily of rec.radio.amateur.policy, for the Unabomber Surprise, due to their inability to make any of their words have actual meanings, which aren't promptly contradicted once they realise how owned they sound. IOW, for saying infinite amounts of nothing, and being very proud of it.

Seconds, anyone?

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

That's the problem and the major stumbling block to field unification. For Dr. Einstein held out that a physical based field theory should be sought out and not left to quantum uncertainty of how the universe primly base works. Man made coordinate systems are fine without knowing from where or what is the base essence of what the space as deduced field is composed of, but not totally satisfactory. Anomalies keep space cropping up and scientists have to keep adjusting for these unexpected events. an answer to my question. Ho hum.

Since his behaviour, at least on usenet, consists of trying to mute you and your fellow homophobes on Google Groups, he is no more than mildly annoying, and usually just a bit boring. Going by that standard, I'd say it's rather odd that he "gets banned from so many places on the net". It's probably got more to with his dyslexia, his stand on Morse code, and his bisexuality, than anything meaningful about him, and those criteria tend to make me want to hold you hams up to the world, on usenet and on the Web (at kookpedia.net), as an example of rampant kookery.

No, actually, most usenetters, especially AUK'ers, are over thirty -- indeed, many are over forty. Teens, these days, are on MySpace or Fark, or wherever. It's a rare teen who'd be so uncool as to post to usenet, and the vast majority of them are in teen-oriented groups, whereas participation in AUK is exclusively a grown-up thing. If you're under 18, fuck off. Seriously. You're not eligible to nominate, second, vote, or

So you're telling us that a Black guy broke the law on illegal substance use?

Ever hear of Prohibition? Lots of White folks broke a federal law by manufacturing and consuming alcoholic beverages in the 10 years(1920-1930) they were banned by Federal Law.
The law was called the Volstead Act.

Ever hear of Prohibition and the Volstead Act? Lots of white folks broke the law by drinking and making alcoholic beverages in the period 1919-1930. Gangsters took advantage of the situation and violence and corruption were endemic in the USA.

4366. Copper Country Radio Amateur Association--> Michigan Amateur Radio club impeaches their president KB9RQZ

MINUTES OF THE AUGUST 5, 2008 MEETING
The meeting opened at 7:02 pm EDT with the Secretary (KD8CTL) reading
the minutes of the July 1, meeting. (Not reported during the July meeting) They included a report from the Property committee showing that the clubhouse is in good shape, and all systems were working. No other committee reports were available.
Since
there was a health issue with the present Secretary, Gavrielah Hojnacki (KD8CTL)
George, W8FWG
offered his services to fill in the remainder of her term as "Acting Secretary." This offer was accepted by the existing Secretary, and approved by the President,
with an amendment to serve up to the time of the next election in March of 2009. This was agreed to by George, W8FWG. Self introductions followed, with the following radio
amateurs present at the meeting: KD8CTL, KB9RQZ, N8ZBJ, WA8JSF, W8ERB,
W9VLM, W8ILS, W4KAR, WB8ZYL, WA8QNF, K6IPC, W8DAO, KB8XI and W8FWG. Our President voiced concern of the ongoing uncertainly of the operation of our 146.670 MHz repeater in Herman. George, W8FWG reported for Chuck, WB8FCY, that this property may have already been sold by the DNR, to a radio or TV broadcasting company but that we had no assurance that that had taken place.
George
offered to contact the DNR (a ham in the DNR, whom he knows) to get the latest information on that site, and to report back to the President of the club, ASAP.
Treasurer's Report: By
Paul, W9VLM, indicated we have received a request from the State of Michigan
regarding our charter and status as a non-profit organization. This means a charge of $20
annually, and the Treasurer was instructed to pay it. At 7:36 pm

Gavrielah had to leave suddenly (no reason given) and the roster of those present was turned over to George,
W8FWG. Glenn, WA8QNF asked this question of the President. "Mark, in the interest of the CCRAA would you be willing to step down as President of the organization.?"
The answer given by Mark was "No!" In view of the "turbulence" that occurred, the Property Chairman's report (W8FWG's report) did not get read, but it is included here as follows: All utilities within the building are operational, and the weekly routines are being kept up, the monthly check of the emergency engine was completed, an additional operating chart was made up and a new antenna tuning guide was added.
The lawn was not mowed, per the President's request, because of his allergy to newly mown grass. The water leak at the roof has been corrected and one problem with a door switch remains and that should be taken care before the next meeting. Cataloging of the small parts cabinet
continues, and now that we have a new computer this should be completed by year's end..
A motion made by Glenn, WA8QNF and seconded by Roy, WB8ZYL to "Remove Mark, KB9RQZ from the office of President of the CCRAA" was introduced, and a discussion followed. When it came to a vote, there was one ABSTENTION, one NO
vote, 11 YES
votes, and the motion carried. George, W8FWG, being appointed Acting Secretary took ending notes. The next meeting of the CCRAA is scheduled to be held at the Osceola
Clubhouse on September ...

I could care less about Morse code, once again you have no idea what you are spouting about, but you stalkers over in AUK never have a clue about much of anything anyway.

your nym, which by the way when you google you nyms that is just about all you see, Snarky = Usenet Stalker.

No, apparently this is the only world you know, targeting folks for harrassment on usenet because they don't act in a manner you approve.
Then pouncing on them with your delusions of self importantce, like fucking AUK really matters. Get a life.

Actually, I'm not sure about that. The Golden Killfile isn't one of the four awards which definitively make one permanently incapable of validly seconding -- however, there's the issue of revenge nominations, which it would be, IMO, if you seconded. But never mind, my good colleague, "Warren G. Harding", took care of the matter.

To think I was blond until I was four years old

The Sheriff in a small town walks out in the street and sees a blonde cowboy coming down the street with nothing on but his cowboy hat, gun, and his boots, so he arrests him for indecent exposure.

As he is locking him up, he asks, "Why in the world are you dressed like this?"

The Cowboy says: "Well it's like this Sheriff... I was in the bar down the road and this pretty little redhead asks me to go out to her motor home with her. So I did.

"We go inside and she pulls off her top and asks me to pull off my shirt, so I did. Then she pulls off her skirt and asks me to pull off my pants, so I did. Then she pulls off her panties and asks me to pull off my shorts, so I did.

Then she gets on the bed and looks at me kind of sexy and says,

'Now go to town cowboy.'

And here I am.

Son of a Gun, Blonde Men do exist.

Those who recognise him by that email addy might misidentify you as him, particularly when you're pretending to be him, and perhaps make nominations for him on the basis of that misidentification, since you're usually repeating stuff he said years ago, or which you claim he said, that just happens to be a bit kooky. Since there is no doubt about that being your intent, that makes /you/ a kook. You could, of course, choose to make a .sig, by which you could make it easy for others to tell you apart from him, but that wouldn't suit your design, now would it?

See above.

> I did not think <BITCHSLAP>

Indeed, you did not. You went with your insane, unthinking hatred. Whether your hate is based on his dyslexia, his bisexuality, or his opposition to code makes no difference -- you have manifested all three, anyway, so I'm inclined to take it that way. You are a bigoted freak of a dogmatic kook, and that is all.

And....Is that all you got....LOL

On the otherhand you are a pathetic self-appointed usenet stalker and blackmailer who spends his time going from newsgroup to newsgroup looking for folks to attack and harrass because they don't meet your approval. The only difference between you and I is I stay focused on one person who thinks RRAP is his personal playground to attack other folks with false accustions of crimes, and because he does not get enough satisfaction from that, he goes one step futher and call his target's local law enforcement with wild unfounded stories. That is what I call a legitimate beef, you whined earlier about a fucking NetKKKop, well what would you think of someone if you called your local authorities and told them you were pandering a fucking kid, that does not even exist. That is the behavior you are defending.

You on the other hand, have no valid reason for your behavior, except you are a miserable asshole just like Mark Morgan.

I would like to express my appreciation for handling the situation with Marky, KB9RQZ. It is refreshing to find such a decent group of individuals so willing to stand up for this removal from office based on irrefutable information showing a severe lack of morals at the very least, and possible felony charges down the road for reporting two fellow hams as child abusers. With absolutely no reason or proof to do so.

It took me many years to come back to this trash board. Mainly because of the activities of Mark Morgan and Todd Daugherty. Unfortunatly they got away with destroying it.

Toad likes to filth up the internet with his drawing of kiddy porn. And Marky likes to put his future and freedom on line making false charges to Federal authorities.

Neither of these two are very bright. In fact I think STUPID is the word here. And you all know you can't fix stupid.

So again folks, thanks to those that handled that little piece of shit.

And thank you, Dan.
Thank you for standing up for the Amateur Radio Service with such style and class.

This was cross posted to AUK for a reason. That being the AUK perverts were the ONLY one's to run to Mark's aid. For the sole purpose, in my opinion, of destroying RRAP. But hey, us hams got the moderated group!
So all's well that ends well.

Again Sir, Thank You!

Here ya go, ya religious wackoes:

an open letter to Dr. Laura
J. Kent Ashcraft
May 2000

Dear Dr. Laura,

Thank you for doing so much to educate people regarding God's Law. I have learned a great deal from your show, and I try to share that knowledge with as many people as I can. When someone tries to defend the homosexual lifestyle, for example, I simply remind him that Leviticus 18:22 clearly states it to be an abomination. End of debate.

I do need some advice from you, however, regarding some of the specific laws and how to best follow them.

a) When I burn a bull on the altar as a sacrifice, I know it creates a pleasing odor for the Lord (Lev 1:9). The problem is my neighbors. They claim the odor is not pleasing to them. Should I smite them?

b) I would like to sell my daughter into slavery, as sanctioned in Exodus 21:7. In this day and age, what do you think would be a fair price for her?

c) I know that I am allowed no contact with a woman while she is in her period of menstrual uncleanliness (Lev 15:19-24). The problem is, how do I tell? I have tried asking, but most women take offense.

d) Lev. 25:44 states that I may indeed possess slaves, both male and female, provided they are purchased from neighboring nations. A friend of mine claims that this applies to Mexicans, but not Canadians. Can you clarify? Why can't I own Canadians?

e) I have a neighbor who insists on working on the Sabbath. Exodus 35:2 clearly states he should be put to death. Am I morally obligated to kill him myself?

f) A friend of mine feels that even though eating shellfish is an Abomination (Lev 11:10), it is a lesser abomination than homosexuality. I don't agree. Can you settle this?

g) Lev 21:20 states that I may not approach the altar of God if I have a defect in my sight. I have to admit that I wear reading glasses. Does my vision have to be 20/20, or is there some wiggle room here?

h) Most of my male friends get their hair trimmed, including the hair around their temples, even though this is expressly forbidden by Lev 19:27. How should they die?

i) I know from Lev 11:6-8 that touching the skin of a dead pig makes me unclean, but may I still play football if I wear gloves?

j) My uncle has a farm. He violates Lev 19:19 by planting two different crops in the same field, as does his wife by wearing garments made of two different kinds of thread (cotton/polyester blend). He also tends to curse and blaspheme a lot. Is it really necessary that we go to all the trouble of getting the whole town together to stone them? (Lev 24:10-16) Couldn't we just burn them to death at a private family affair like we do with people who sleep with their in-laws? (Lev. 20:14)

I know you have studied these things extensively, so I am confident you can help.

Thank you again for reminding us that God's word is eternal and unchanging.

Your devoted disciple and adoring fan.

Nice projection, but no. You guys started the frogging/forging, the x-poasting to AUK, the campaign to get your hated enemy nominated for kook awards, and you show lots of solidarity -- no outing each other to AUK as Mark's froggers/forgers, only outing him. The result to date has been one single award for Mr. Morgan, in years of x-poasting. You'd have won something yourselves, by now, but the profusion of extremely frothy and obsessed k00ks on usenet has so far protected you.

First off Danny, I very seldom post on the newsgroups except my own, unlike some people (MARGIE KB9RQZ) and the many coward anonymous.
Secondly, it's not kiddy porn under US LAW, I would really suggest you read it...You can read right??

BTW DAN I have more intelligence in my fucking penis then YOU have in your whole FUCKING body.
So shit for brains get this through your fucking head, I'm very intelligent and I have the fucking IQ test from the state to prove it...so FUCK YOU!!

Well, for one thing, I've been posting through usenet using all sorts of nyms for ages. Adding gay lames to frogs of kooks, however, is something I've never done, though. Somehow, earning a Busted Urinal nomination isn't my thing. I'll leaving the spewing to the obsessed radio hams, and their conviction that knowing Morse code represents strength of character (don't deny it, you've been going to all this trouble for years for no other reason).

No, if I were a stalker, I'd make damn fucking sure I knew every last detail about you. If I were a stalker, I'd have been reading and posting to your group for years before I began addressing you under my own nyms, back in '06. If I were a stalker, I'd know which of Mark's fanbois were which by your posting styles alone. If I were a stalker, you'd have won kook awards by now, because I'd know a lot more about you and what pushes your buttons, and there would be at least one detailed FAQ about you and the rest of Mark's fanclub. But I don't know anything about you, beyond what you guys post to AUK, though what I know from that is you guys (in the club) are a bunch of sexually repressed boys in middle-aged bodies, terrified of the notion you might be gay, and covering up by pointing at Mark and howling like monkeys on angel dust. On that note, boys, meet the soc.fr00tz -- they're a lot like you. In fact, apart from not being radio hams, they're exactly like you. They have even tried the whole "AUK Invasion" thing.

Net.KKKops *report people who do things they don't like to their providers", you silly ham. You have no idea what a net.KKKop _is_.
Incidentally, you'll find lots of legalnames which have been applied to me in my header info. One of them may well be mine. Furthermore, other stalkers have already done most of your dirty work, lazy little shit.

No, I've reported real net.abusers, but not pathetic little hatemongers like you. It's much more fun to mess with your brains and play all sorts of head games, especially since you continue to make it easy for me by posting to AUK, instead of making me come in there.

Yes, usenet. Words on a screen. Lots of ones and zeroes (you'd be a zero), and pixels -- electrons, even. Not real, and not resembling physical reality, either.

> Then pouncing on them with your delusions of self importantce, like

No, not like AUK matters -- like usenet doesn't matter, and anything said on usenet is just trolling, at best. The ones who _really_ mean what they say are the kooks.

You do. You and all your fellow fanbois care very much about sexuality, or I'd never see "homo" or "punce" or any of that crap fromn you, in your frogs/forgeries, subject lines, or the content of your posts, and I have seen tonnes of it.

You lot are as abusive as any kooks I've ever seen in nearly nine years on a few posts -- long enough to determine they're kooks, usually.

You, personally, don't have an identity that is outside of frogging Mark Morgan. That means there is no distinguishing you from the other fanbois -- you're just another anonymous coward hiding behind his nyms, and harassing him for being other than straight, dyslexic, and unknowledgeable about Morse.

LMAO! I've already explained what a stalker is. You're a kook, and as for usenet, I was pretty much off usenet for thirteen months, recently, apart from voting on a few ballots over the course of five or six months. Didn't post at all, between early November and early June.

You would do well to substantiate such accusations. As it is, you come off making the entire radio ham community come off as a haven for homophobia and all kinds of insane bigotry.

If that is true, so is he, but so far, all I see are a bunch of kooky radio hams, frothing about Mark Morgan, the out bisexual radio ham. Baseless accusations of being child molestors have been made against Mark and his wife, and Mark himself has been called a registered sex offender in Michigan, but no proof has ever been offered. So far, Mark looks like the one with all the moral high ground, and the rest of you look like scumbags.

Yeah, you keep showing off your stupidity. Go right ahead. I'm sure there are awards, FAQs, and webpages in store for you. Or, you know, you could prove that Mark Morgan is just as bad as you say, but I think you'd rather froth and foam.

No. You are a lying, whining, homophobic piece of bigoted shit, just like almost all your fellow hams, and AUK is here to laugh at you and your over-sized egos.

Truly, it didn't bother me at all. Of course, it could have been just a coincidence. I used to wonder if I had memorized their play sheet and then just applied that to the great sense of time that I had back then. I could come within a minute, twenty four hours a day, of giving the correct time each and every time someone asked.

The AM radio sense disappeared when I went into the USAF in 1965. When I came back from the USAF some four years later, the 1380 WAMS radio station was gone as was the use of the frequency. The USAF removed quite of a few teeth during my four year sojurn. I always figured that was the reason why radio reception stopped.

No Mark, you know what is funny? The fact that you are too stupid to follow the thread or get the point...like I have already stated, I don't give a shit about your sexual proclivities, but I do give you shit for being a fucking asshole, and the folks at your club, QRZ, and Ham Island, all agree. Mark Morgan is an Asshole!

Nevertheless, the point is the guy is a fucking hypocrite, whining about something he does himself (giving others a hard time about their behavior), and I could care less if he does it, but just don't come over here on RRAP whining like some fucking net defender when someone else does it.

I have no problem someone reporting crimes Mark, by letting LE do their job, making an arrest, and then holding a trial.

But that is not what you did, you reported crimes that probably never happened, and then got on here and announced that crow offered me a kid for sale, then later you changed your tale and said the same thing about Dan, the fact is that you have no proof which shows who sent it to you, but instead of letting LE investigate and find the truth, you invented your own truth, and publically slandered Brian and Dan by annoucing over and over again, as if it was a FACT, that Brian and/or Dan pander a kid to you for sex.

YOU publicly tried an convicted Brian and Dan, without any evidence whatsoever...and that Mark is the real crime that you commited called Slander...and that is why I think that you are an ASSHOLE, and you deserve just about everything you get.

and here is a link where you did it....http://groups.google.com/group/alt.dads-rights.unmoderated/msg/fdbf70953ba85ec6?hl=en&dmode=source

No I object to your slander without proof. Just because someone else did the samd deed to you does not give you the right to do the same..two wrongs don't make it OK, Mark.

So, you think you've got a contender, eh? Hard to separate the Kooks from the mere pains in the ass though. Hopefully this will help you.

Instructions :
In this section give your Prospective Kook ONE point for every YES answer. Give your Prospective Kook additional points for multiple occurrences.

Grading scale follows questions.

Have they ever :

1. Been the first to go ad-hominem in a newsgroup debate.

2. Accused someone of breaking a non-existent Federal Law.

3. Called a properly formatted cancel of a BI>20 article a forged cancel

4. Ranted about Free Speech when a moderator rejected their article.
Two points if it's spelled "FREE SPEACH".

5. Tried to censor others, yet scream when others suggest that they killfile them or create a moderated newsgroup.

6. Complained to someone's ISP when they got spanked in a flame war.

7. Been complained about to their ISP deservedly.

8. Flamed someone from an anonymous account.

9. Made a spelling flame. (*)

10. Used RANT-CAPS & manic punctuation.

11. Claimed to be qualified to make a legal determination or medical diagnosis with no justification - bonus points if the kook is obviously projecting her/his own condition/behavior. ()

12. Claimed an academic or professional degree they obviously do not have.

13. Claimed that because of a degree or research topic, another poster cannot know anything about any other subject.

In this section give your Prospective Kook TWO points for every YES answer. Give your Prospective Kook additional points for multiple occurrences.

1. Called someone a pedophile or drug pusher without proof.

2. Bonus if they called anyone a "Republican Nazi Pedophile"

3. Ranted about Free Speech when an anti-spammer canceled their article.

4. Posted to a newsgroup via sock-puppet.

5. Thought about becoming a Freedom Knight.

6. Voted via sock-puppet in a Big Eight vote.

7. Defended a well known kook.

8. Been Nominated for a Kook award.

9. Invented Usenet 'rules' & 'laws', particularly coming up with creative definitions for what constitutes spam & spamming.

10. Implied that she/he has powerful allies who will deal with his/her enemies, due to having affiliations with Microsoft, the CIA or some other powerful organization - no matter how flimsy the association.

11. Claimed an academic or professional degree after having stated they are a high school dropout or otherwise indicated their actual level of achievement, or claim multiple PhD's, MD's, etc.

12. 'Removed' an academic or professional degree or title from another more clueful poster. (Includes scare quotes such as 'Esq.', or 'Dr.')

13. Claimed one of the well known regulars of AUK is using a remailer to impersonate them, when all kook sign points to them.

In this section give your Prospective Kook THREE points for every YES answer. Give your Prospective Kook additional points for multiple occurrences.

1. Threatened to kill or cause bodily harm to another via mail or post.

2. Told someone they have caused the kook to harm himself.

3. Stalked/harassed an opponent off-line.

4. Mail-bombed anyone.

5. Spammed a newsgroup.

6. Posted a forged or altered newsgroup article.

7. Lost an account due to abuse.

8. Won a kook award.

9. Threatened a groundless lawsuit via mail or post. LA Law bonus: Additional point if a TV lawyer is used.)

(Grubor bonus: If they claim John Grubor/Law Systems Institoot as counsel)

10. Threatened to have their "agents" come after someone.

11. Had a FAQ posted about their kookiness.

12. Pretended to be a sysadmin or ISP owner.

13. CC'ed emailed complaints to irrelevant or non-existent organizations email addresses, such as the DOJ, AG, CIA, FBI etc.

14. Been TOSsed and then claimed to have canceled it, her/it/himself?

(*) PalmJob Exception Rule. Cannot be applied to a mere troll's points.

() Brad Jesness Factor. Not applicable to BJ, it is expected.

Scale/Rank :
1 - 10 points : Kook Wannabe. Needs to read Grubor's posting history on dejanews. Your Prospective Kook has much to learn. They may have just screwed up once or twice.

11 - 25 points : Journeyman Kook. Needs to Continue to mimic the real kooks. Your Prospective Kook could be a contender.

26 - 36 points : Kook First Class. Still a lesser light, but Your Prospective Kook HAS arrived! People killfile him/her.

36 - 50 points : Kook cum Laude. Someone is considering writing a FAQ about your Prospective Kook. Has been nominated for at least one a.u.k award.

51 + points : Kook Magna cum Laude. Your Prospective Kook has a FAQ. Your Prospective Kook will eventually win all the big awards. Your Prospective Kook can leap tall newbies with a single bound.

Not for your lack of trying. He's only gotten the GK nom, AFAICR & TTBOMK, in the past two years, which he promptly won. It's the only one he has coming, unless and until a membner of his fanclub proves that Mark Morgan is, in fact, a pederast/convicted & registered sex offender in Michigan. You've never come close to that, nor do I expect you will. Interestingly enough, I don't support fellow queers who commit child molestation, largely because that's the sort of thing which could win me kook awards, but also, then I'd be ostracised by my colleagues, with or without kook awards.

You might want to give your fellow fanbois some smacks -- they keep right on posting homophobia, even after you say things like that. As for "flooder", that's covered by the "somewhat annoying" description. "Asshole"? You mean, more of an asshole than his fans? No. Definitely not more of one than myself, to be sure -- I'm not lits0red by Bowtie the kook as a "Top Asshole" for nothing, you know.

Sounds fishy to me. I suspect you are prevaricating/bloviating/flat-out lying.

> You on the other hand, have no valid reason for your behavior, except you > are a miserable asshole just like Mark Morgan.

No, I'm an asshole who has a lot of fun on usenet, ripping apart such kooks as yourself, especially the ones who appear "as if by magic" in AUK, and start complaining about persecution when they're the ones who are verbally attacked, instead of their targets (honestly, my favourite kind of kook). AUK is not your flamewar weapon, and will not be used as your flamewar weapon. If you have kooks, AUK will help you tag them, but will not get rid of them for you. Instead, what you can do is grow up and learn not to try to run usenet. Meanwhile, what I'll do is continue to entertain myself, and occasionally others.

I generously gave you room to adequately defend your obsession with Mark Morgan, and you have chosen to spurn it, in favour of foaming about him, which only proves my point. The accusations you have leveled against him are unsupported by anything resembling proof, therefore they are baseless, unfounded, cowardly and without merit. You have no grounds for a beef with anything besides the flooding, which would end if you and your brother fans quit the sporging and sprogging. Your lack of a clue WRT how to present a kook to AUK is really quite amusing, on a certain level, but unfortunately, that level is a tad abstruse.

Why aren't new hams allowed to do what old hams do? No, I'm not talking about using voice on the shortwave bands. It's understandable that they have to pass a certain test to be able to do that.

What I am talking about:

I seen a site written by a ham with rules for new hams to follow all the time. However, one of the rules saying what new hams are not allowed to do at all is what I hear the old morse-code tested and passed hams doing all the time on ham radio.

(and several people posting in the newsgroups have also heard them doing it and know what I am talking about which is_

"Rules for new hams"

"Discussions of bodily functions should be off limits - not because of government rules, but because it's the right thing to do. Generally, other hams and their family members do not want to hear conversations that are not of"

And from the newsgroup postings, here I thought th older hams wanted the newer hams to be just like them.

Oh well, "everybody makes mistakes."

just like them

In this section give your Prospective Kook THREE points for every YES answer. Give your Prospective Kook additional points for multiple occurrences.

1. Threatened to kill or cause bodily harm to another via mail or post.

2. Told someone they have caused the kook to harm himself.

3. Stalked/harassed an opponent off-line.

4. Mail-bombed anyone.

5. Spammed a newsgroup.

6. Posted a forged or altered newsgroup article.

7. Lost an account due to abuse.

8. Won a kook award.

9. Threatened a groundless lawsuit via mail or post. LA Law bonus: Additional point if a TV lawyer is used.)

(Grubor bonus: If they claim John Grubor/Law Systems Institoot as counsel)

10. Threatened to have their "agents" come after someone.

11. Had a FAQ posted about their kookiness.

12. Pretended to be a sysadmin or ISP owner.

13. CC'ed emailed complaints to irrelevant or non-existent organizations email addresses, such as the DOJ, AG, CIA, FBI etc.

14. Been TOSsed and then claimed to have canceled it, her/it/himself?

(*) PalmJob Exception Rule. Cannot be applied to a mere troll's points.

() Brad Jesness Factor. Not applicable to BJ, it is expected.

Scale/Rank :
1 - 10 points : Kook Wannabe. Needs to read Grubor's posting history on dejanews. Your Prospective Kook has much to learn. They may have just screwed up once or twice.

11 - 25 points : Journeyman Kook. Needs to Continue to mimic the real kooks. Your Prospective Kook could be a contender.

26 - 36 points : Kook First Class. Still a lesser light, but Your Prospective Kook HAS arrived! People killfile him/her.

36 - 50 points : Kook cum Laude. Someone is considering writing a FAQ about your Prospective Kook. Has been nominated for at least one a.u.k award.

51 + points : Kook Magna cum Laude. Your Prospective Kook has a FAQ. Your Prospective Kook will eventually win all the big awards. Your Prospective Kook can leap tall newbies with a single bound.

I have no fellow "fanbois" to smack, that is a delusion apparently you and Mark share. There is no coordinated effort against Mark. I don't know anybody else that posts to RRAP and have never had any contact with any of the users of RRAP outside of direct posting to usenet.
Mostly, I am one of what remains of folks who refused to go to a moderated group and be told what we can and cannot post. I grew tired of Mark's tirade against the group for what a few folks did to him years ago...those folks are long gone from Usenet, yet Mark keeps crediting their acts to me/us through his false accusations. So now it is just a bantering of bullshit....Mark refuses to stop flooding and we refuse to stop razzing him for his stupidity, and the wacked out kooky crap that he says.

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

Oh, you may feel free to post as much as you like, and I'll feel free to taunt you for being unable to do anything about Mark except scream, and whine, and cry. Meanwhile, your ng will gain the reputation of being a haven for liars, hypocrites, homophobes, and bullies, all ganging up on Mark Morgan for being queer, dyslexic, and anti-code. Even now, you can't do better than to provide some kookshite where all your whinging is spelt out in elaborate detail, as though it proves something by being on a website, instead of being backed up by official records on websites neither created or maintained by freaked-out hams. Serious claims have been made about Mark Morgan, and nothing is there to back them up except hearsay.

Uh-huh. Does that mean you plan on backing up your claims soon? Because I'm doubting it. I think you have nada, aside from hatred for him. Irrational hatred's kooky, and I think that's you.

well this sadly a reasonably Ontopic post for RRAP better than most of the crap we see lately

the distrubing thing tome is that older hams feel empowered to tell younger hams waht to do beyond the rules in part 97

There are rules that we should go by that go beyond part 97. They're called, "good amateur practice."

A few months back Mork admitted he allowed a 17 year old boy to engage in anal sex with him. This can be easily confirmed by a quick google check.

Now, should AUK be provided with the links at this time? Or should Mork be allowed to dig himself in even deeper? Mork won't admit it but google has the goods.

I think het pr0n is what most of the gents around here are interested in, so prolly not. I'm just disturbed by anal sex in general, so I don't want to see it either.

I don't remember that episode. Was it after they jumped the shark and had Jonathan Winters playing Mork's centenarian, learning disabled baby?

too bad you are too stupid to quote

he/she admits that he/she is a spammer and then call everyone else a spammer - he/she is so fued up he/she doesn't know right from wrong and always tries to put the blame back on other folks as he/she has the brain

MINUTES OF THE AUGUST 5, 2008 MEETING
The meeting opened at 7:02 pm EDT with the Secretary (KD8CTL) reading the minutes of the July 1, meeting. (Not reported during the July meeting) They included a report from the Property committee showing that the clubhouse is in good shape, and all systems were working. No other committee reports were available. Since there was a health issue with the present Secretary, Gavrielah Hojnacki (KD8CTL)
George, W8FWG
offered his services to fill in the remainder of her term as “Acting Secretary.” This offer was accepted by the existing Secretary, and approved by the President, with an amendment to serve up to the time of the next election in March of 2009. This was agreed to by George, W8FWG. Self introductions followed, with the following radio amateurs present at the meeting: KD8CTL, KB9RQZ, N8ZBJ, WA8JSF, W8ERB, W9VLM, W8ILS, W4KAR, WB8ZYL, WA8QNF, K6IPC, W8DAO, KB8XI and W8FWG. Our President voiced concern of the ongoing uncertainly of the operation of our 146.670 MHz repeater in Herman. George, W8FWG reported for Chuck, WB8FCY, that this property may have already been sold by the DNR, to a radio or TV broadcasting company but that we had no assurance that that had taken place. George offered to contact the DNR (a ham in the DNR, whom he knows) to get the latest information on that site, and to report back to the President of the club, ASAP.
Treasurer’s Report: By
Paul, W9VLM, indicated we have received a request from the State of Michigan regarding our charter and status as a non-profit organization. This means a charge of $20

annually, and the Treasurer was instructed to pay it. At 7:36 pm Gavrielah had to leave suddenly (no reason given) and the roster of those present was turned over to George,
W8FWG. Glenn, WA8QNF asked this question of the President. “Mark, in the interest of the CCRAA would you be willing to step down as President of the organization.?”
The answer given by Mark was “No!” In view of the “turbulence” that occurred, the Property Chairman’s report (W8FWG’s report) did not get read, but it is included here as follows: All utilities within the building are operational, and the weekly routines are being kept up, the monthly check of the emergency engine was completed, an additional operating chart was made up and a new antenna tuning guide was added.
The lawn was not mowed, per the President’s request, because of his allergy to newly mown grass. The water leak at the roof has been corrected and one problem with a door switch remains and that should be taken care before the next meeting. Cataloging of the small parts cabinet
continues, and now that we have a new computer this should be completed by year’s end..
A motion made by Glenn, WA8QNF and seconded by Roy, WB8ZYL to “Remove Mark, KB9RQZ from the office of President of the CCRAA” was introduced, and a discussion followed. When it came to a vote, there was one ABSTENTION, one NO
vote, 11 YES
votes, and the motion carried. George, W8FWG, being appointed Acting Secretary took ending notes. The next meeting of the CCRAA is scheduled to be held at the Osceola
Clubhouse on September ...

How dare you waste my time with such tripe, such hearsay, when you and your fellow fans have been forging (Yes, forging) and frogging him _for years_ (regardless of whether you're organised about it) -- how the fuck do I know you or another fan didn't forge him that time? Answer: I don't.
So it's nothing but a load of fanwank, even if there is a post.

Get back to me when you have proof of his criminal record as a child molestor and status as a registered sex offender. Until then, I'll keep mocking the fuck out of you and your homophobia.

No, I'm a "male who wants to suck cock", but has so far only ever had straight sex, not that I don't like the latter kind of sex. Homosexuals --

The full description's on Kookpedia (there will in due course be a full lits of winners), but essentially, it's for those who screed (as the Unabomber did, in his Manifesto), and your fanboi/s has/have taken up screeding with a vengeance.

"Failure"? I have the trifecta of usenet success -- trained a kook and won the Woodhouse Dog Whistle to prove it, trolled a bunch of people into believing I had the authority to assign someone the position of FNVW and won the Salinger, and finally, won the Hammer of Thor for beating kooks like you into a fine paste with clues that are always beyond you. I'll never willingly move into a house, if I have to pay for it. Meanwhile, I have several kooks such as you and your gang on leashes, and am training them all.

A study conducted by Henry E. Adams, Lester W. Wright, Jr., and Bethany A. Lohr that they describe in a 1996 issue of the Journal of Abnormal Psychology under the title "Is Homophobia Associated With Homosexual Arousal" might also be relevant here. The abstract of the article reads: "The authors investigated the role of homosexual arousal in exclusively heterosexual men who admitted negative affect toward homosexual individuals. Participants consisted of a group of homophobic men (n=35) . . . they were assigned to groups on the basis of their scores on the Index of Homophobia (W.W. Hudson and W.A.
Ricketts, 1980). The men were exposed to sexually explicit erotic stimuli consisting of heterosexual, male homosexual, and lesbian videotapes . . . Only the homophobic men showed an increase in penile erection to male homosexual stimuli...Homophobia is apparently associated with homosexual arousal that the homophobic individual is either unaware of or denies."

The blog at http://n9oglvoice.blogspot.com is infested with links to multiple script servers. There is no way to be sure what they are loading onto your box, so be sure to be running the Firefox / Seamonkey addons "NoScript" and "Adblock Plus" before you visit Todd's infested blog. If you are using IE, make n9oglvoice.blogspot.com a domain in your untrusted zone. You want to make sure that the following external sites are blocked:

extreme-dm.com, widgetbox.com, mindistortion.tv, widgetserver.com, bravenet.com, and gmodules.com

So, I have severe dyslexia too. Having dyslexia is not an excuse. A spell check program works wonders for those who are not too lazy to use one, and it is just good Usenet/Message board etiquette to use one when you are aware that your spelling and grammer is not up to par.

I think that the terminology of the quote "Go fu*k yourself!, comes from the following:

A father and his son were having a discussion of when the father would procure a vehicle for the son on at a given time; whereas the son turns 16 and the father says "does your schmekel reach your tuchas"? and the son replies "NO" and the father tells him to come back when it does.
Awhile later - a year or so - the son again approaches the father with the same question and the father again asks the same of his son, again the answer is "NO"!
Then the son turns 18 years old and again comes to the father and asks the same stupid question again & if the father is going to procure a vehicle for him? Again the father ask the same stupid question and to his surprise the son answers "YES"! And that is where the terminology comes from, as the father says ""good then" - "GO FU*K YOURSELF""!

Mark, I have no trouble at all, there are no invasions into my life or affairs, you on the other hand seem to have quite a bit of trouble, perhaps you need to take another assessment of the sitution and maybe you can learn why you have so many problems. Either way, I wish you well.

First off Danny, I very seldom post on the newsgroups except my own, unlike some people (MARGIE KB9RQZ) and the many coward anonymous.
Secondly, it's not kiddy porn under US LAW, I would really suggest you read it...You can read right??

You know that getting a CLUB call is relativily simple. All you need is, what 3 members to sign on the dotted line. Apply to FCC for a Club License with callsign. Then Vanity it to what you like.

Heck Mark, Toad (the high IQ one) and some more of their faggot buddies could get on the air with a vanity call...lets see;

I1FAG...No, thats only available in Italy.
Oh here we go.
N9FAG/W9FAG/AA9FAG....wow it goes on and on.

What say Toad? or how bout you Marky? Want your special FAG call?
Bet you will be real popular on HF. IF you can put out a signal to be heard.
So far neither of you have managed that.

OK Toad show us your intelligence. Go to my BLOG and tell me to FUCK OFF over and over again. I need proof for the law suit.

Little RALPHY returns from school and says he got an F in arithmetic.

'Why?' asks the father?

'The teacher asked, 'How much is 2x3,''I said '6', replies RALPHY.

'But that's right!' says his dad.

'Yeah, but then she asked me 'How much is 3x2?''

'What's the fuckin' difference?' asks the father.

'That's what I said!'

I bought a bird feeder. I hung it on my back porch and filled it with seed. What a beauty of a bird feeder it is, as I filled it lovingly with seed. Within a week we had hundreds of birds taking advantage of the continuous flow of free and easily accessible food. But then the birds started building nests in the boards of the patio, above the table, and next to the barbecue.

Then came the poop. It was everywhere: on the patio tile, the chairs, the table everywhere!

Then some of the birds turned mean. They would dive bomb me and try to peck me even though I had fed them out of my own pocket.

And others birds were boisterous and loud. They sat on the feeder and squawked and screamed at all hours of the day and night and demanded that I fill it when it got low on food.

After a while, I couldn't even sit on my own back porch anymore. So I took down the bird feeder and in three days the birds were gone. I cleaned up their mess and took down the many nests they had built all over the patio.

Soon, the back yard was like it used to be.... quiet, serene and no one demanding their rights to a free meal.

Now let's see. Our government gives out free food, subsidized housing, free medical care, and free education and allows anyone born here to be an automatic citizen.

Then the illegal come by the tens of thousands. Suddenly our taxes go up to pay for free services; small apartments are housing five families; you have to wait six hours to be seen by an emergency room doctor; your child's 2nd grade class is behind other schools because over half the class doesn't speak English. Corn Flakes now come in a bilingual box; I have to 'press one' to hear my bank talk to me in English, and people waving flags other than 'Old Glory' are squawking and screaming in the streets, demanding more rights and free liberties.

Just my opinion, but maybe it's time for the government to take down the bird feeder. If you agree, pass it on; if not, continue cleaning up the poop!

One doubts your claim to "severe" dyslexia -- Google Groups isn't known for having much in the way of a spell check. Furthermore, he's trying to keep up with people who are out to forge and smear him for a bunch of reasons, none of them valid.

I'm talking to a few, some are far way, so are here in town.

What's more lame, your stepping out into the world and attempting to meet real people (of the opposite sex) or our hanging out in the anonymity of the cyber world.

I've been happily married for over 15 years; so I know the benefits to one's satisfaction in life are much greater when shared. I hope your endeavors are successful.

I agree. And if that Rush Limbaugh wasn't so liberal maybe we'd get something done (OK, he is a conservative, but doesn't have the guts to call the Republicans on their anti-conservative actions). With the commie-lib McCain courting Lieberman as veep, the presidential ticket is rock-solid socialist.

She told me that I have to stop masturbating.

I asked her why and she said, "Because I'm trying to examine you."

Yes I agree Google does not have a spell checker. However, Microsoft word as word processing programs do have wonderful spell check, and cut and paste is just a few mouse clicks away.

He's a kook, flooder and acts like an asshole, what other excuse do they need? It's the same excuse you use for your version of harassment...and before you say you don't harass anyone. Harassment, is in the eye of the beholder (victim), if someone feels harassed, and tells you to stop, and you don't, you are harassing them. I believe that Canada has stricter laws against this type of behavior then the U.S. However, you can correct me if I am wrong.

Heck. I don't even look at those "zzzzzzzzzz" posts. I don't open them at all.
Why? Because they are just more of Mark's juvenile attempts to change subject lines.
His comments don't count, anyway.

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

Hop Lee Trading Co., Inc. Issues Alert on Undeclared Sulfites in Flower Brand Dried Sweet Potato
Contact:
Phiana Chen
718-821-2315

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- August 12, 2008 -- Hop Lee Trading Co. Inc. of 337 Butler Street, Brooklyn, N.Y., 11217, is recalling Flower brand Dried Sweet Potato because it contains undeclared sulfites. Consumers who have severe sensitivity to sulfites run the risk of serious or life-threatening allergic reactions if they consume this product.

Flower brand Dried Sweet Potato is sold in a 12 ounce, un-coded, clear plastic package and was distributed nationwide. It is a product of China. (Who would have thought different)

The recall was initiated after routine sampling by New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets Food Inspectors and subsequent analysis by Food Laboratory personnel revealed the presence of sulfites in Flower brand Dried Sweet Potato which were not declared on the label. The consumption of 10 milligrams of sulfites per serving has been reported to elicit severe reaction in some asthmatics. Anaphylactic shock could occur in certain sulfite sensitive individuals upon ingesting 10 milligrams or more of sulfites.

No illnesses or allergic reactions involving this product have been reported to date. Consumers who have purchased Flower brand Dried Sweet Potato are urged to return them to the place of purchase for a full refund. Consumers with questions may contact the company at 1-718-821-2315.

It was the first day of Third Grade in a new town for Little Marky. As a test, his teacher went around the room and asked each of the students to count to 50. Some did very well, counting as high as 30 or 40 with just a few mistakes. Others couldn't get past 20. Johnny, however, did extremely well; he counted past 50, right up to 100 without any mistakes.

He was so excited that he ran home and told his Dad how well he had done. His Dad nodded and told him, "That's because you are from Alabama, Son."

The next day, in language class, the teacher asked the students to recite the alphabet. It's Grade Three, so most could make it half way through without much trouble. Some made it to S or T, but Little Marky rattled off the alphabet perfectly right to the end.

That evening, Marky once again bragged to his Dad about his prowess in his new school. His Dad, knowingly, explained to him, "That's because you are from Alabama, Son."

The next day, after Physical Education, the boys were taking showers. Marky noted that, compared to the other boys in his grade, he seemed overly "well-endowed."

This confused him. That night he told his dad, "Dad, they all have little tiny ones, but mine is ten times bigger than theirs. Is that because I'm from Alabama?" he asked.

"No, Son," explained his Dad, "That's because you're 18."

God Bless Texas !!

After having dug to a depth of 10 feet last year, New York scientists found traces of copper wire dating back 100 years and came to the conclusion, that their ancestors already had a telephone network more than 100 years ago.

Not to be outdone by the New Yorkers, in the weeks that followed, in California an archaeologist dug to a depth of 20 feet, and shortly after, headlines in the LA Times newspaper read: California archaeologists have found traces of 200 year old copper wire and have concluded that their ancestors already had an advanced high-tech communications network a hundred years earlier than the New Yorkers.'

One week later, The Houston Chronicle, a local newspaper in Texas, reported the following: 'After digging as deep as 30 feet in his pasture near Alvin, Brazoria County, Texas, Bubba Mitchell, a self-taught archaeologist and graduate of Texas A&M, reported that he found absolutely nothing. Bubba has therefore concluded that 300 years ago, Texas had already gone wireless.

Thank God for Bubba. Who said Texans were hicks? It's not the Texans, but his cousin Morky!

What's so surprising about that? 100 years ago was 1908. It was well known Alexander Grahm Bell invented the telephone earlier than that.

Why isn't it as well known today?

Well, that's our public schools education system.

I thought a redneck telephone sysyem was a bunch of empty cans tied together with strings.

It was well known as a "party line" telephone.

The local fair here is currently giving away "hillbilly air conditoners".

they're those little paper fans you use to cool yourself with.

How about Agamemnon's continuing declarations of "VICTOLLY!" on the "RTD

I would like to nominate Bucky Breeder, as trained by Kadaitcha Man and Snuhwolf, for the Barbara Woodhouse Memorial "Dog Whistle" Award, due to his ongoing meltdown over the two of them.

Damnitall! <fixes .sig with the Hammer> Terribly sorry about that, RADW.
I am not your Official Overseer until an election has been held (even then, only if the vote is in my favour), and I was wrong to leave it in my .sig for so long without correcting it (hadn't used that profile for days...), as well as being wrong to put it in so soon. Also, apologies to STROKE: Remember The 1st Three Letters.... S.T.R.

Please read:

STROKE IDENTIFICATION:

A neurologist says that if he can get to a stroke victim within 3 hours he can totally reverse the effects of a stroke... totally. He said the trick was getting a stroke recognized, diagnosed, and then getting the patient medically cared for within 3 hours, which is tough.

RECOGNIZING A STROKE:

Thank God for the sense to remember the '3' steps, STR. Read and Learn! Sometimes symptoms of a stroke are difficult to identify. Unfortunately, the lack of awareness spells disaster. The stroke victim may suffer severe brain damage when people nearby fail to recognize the symptoms of a stroke.

Now doctors say a bystander can recognize a stroke by asking three simple questions:

S * Ask the individual to SMILE.
T * Ask the person to TALK and SPEAK A SIMPLE SENTENCE (Coherently) (i.e. It is sunny out today)
R * Ask him or her to RAISE BOTH ARMS.

AND NOW THE TONGUE:
If he or she has trouble with ANY ONE of these tasks, call 911 immediately and describe the symptoms to the dispatcher.

New Sign of a Stroke -------- Stick out Your Tongue:
NOTE: Another 'sign' of a stroke is this: Ask the person to 'stick' out his tongue.. If the tongue is 'crooked', if it goes to one side or the other, that is also an indication of a stroke.

A cardiologist says if everyone who gets this e-mail sends it to 10 people; you can bet that at least one life will be saved.

Rosenblum is good, but the best syrahs in California (and maybe the world) are the Ojai single vineyard wines. Their Whitehawk may be the single best red wine I've ever had, regardless of varietal.

Not that long ago Californoia syrah was crap. Now that may be the best wine produced in the state. There are some seriously good Syrah.

Some of the Aussie shiraz is hard to beat in the $20 price range, but I think our high end is better than theirs.

Lessee, I've got some JC Cellars, Fess Parker, and Lagier Meredith, plus Mitolo from down under.

wrong MY posts are entirely ontpic when I denouce the forgeries I have that right it over rides hte subject of the NG

the forgeies are entirely Offtopic and not realted to the ng operation mine relate to the operation of the NG

Well, you do seem to object to the x-poasting from AUK, especially any such x-poasting which doesn't support you in the way you feel you deserve, because Mark is, IYO, an asshole who won't shut up and go away. Since that kind of describes myself, I'm not likely to become sympathetic very soon. BTW, are you aware that you and your fellow fanbois have a Kookpedia entry? You're welcome to come vandalise it, so I can have the fun of blocking your IP address indefinitely, if you like. I'm a sysop now, so that's no mere threat. Alternatively, you can join, and write a rebuttal page (which would not be deleted, unless you tried to use it as a revenge page against Mark), but that'd take a brain.

> Meanwhile, I will set back and chuckle at your buffoonery.

Defending someone from a pack of raging homophobes is merely a public service I offer to usenet in general, mainly because homophobes are one of the most despicable sorts of net.k00k (they have all the other sorts covered in RRAP, though, such as the real-lifers, the outer filth, the stalkers, and so on). Your self-defence that "you" aren't one of the 'phobes is more than a tad precious, since you're just one of the pack, and largely indistinguishable, in your nearly-identical-to-one-of-Mark's-own posting addy, from any of the other forgers and froggers, most of whom make no bones about their fear and hatred of gays (which they, in their ignorance, fear, and hatred conflate with bisexuals). You lie down with scum, so you can expect to be covered in it when you arise.

If you want me to stop "harassing" you, feel free to quit x-poasting to AUK anytime. X-poasting is what kookologists _do_, so you'll have to take your whine to court, if indeed you object to having it done to you. Note that I am unconcerned about such a thing happening, for good reason.

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

Hmmm. I'm of the opposite mind. I was an 'early adopter' of Chilean reds, but lately it seems their prices have increased considerably faster than their quality. And I can't say I'm crazy about malbec.
OTOH, there are a half-dozen Aussie reds under $20 that I consider the equal of most Napa reds in the $30-40 range.

is address me correctly

How should we address you:
Your Hinny
Your Hinness - the King of Homos & Queers
Your Hinness - the Queen of Homos & Queers
Your Hinness - The King/Queen of "BI" of Homos & Queers
Your Excellence - the non ruler of the CCRRA?
Hey Shi*head - you don't know what your talking about Hey FAKAR - are you really the "FAKE" King/Queen of this or any other NG

Pick any one or submit something else!

You what shit for brains, at lease I post my call-sign, at lease I have a fucking backbone, unlike a fucking anonymous poster on here!

So I tell you what chicken shit, Until you grow up, and stop being a pussy behind an anonymous posting, I have nothing to say to you. Only little children who like to hide behind keyboards or behind their mother's skirt would do what you do!

Todd's mother walked down to the basement and found Todd tapping furiously at his computer keyboard.

"What are you writing?", she asked.

"I'm writing a dime novel.", Todd answered.

"Oh? What is it about?" she said.

"I don't know," Todd replied. "I can't read."

Wow, impressive...NOT. LOL. You are begining to sound like one of those internet weenies who never goes outside and spends all his time

More blathering, BTW we don't dislike Mark because he is a "queer"
"your words", we dislike him because he is a pest, which led to his banning on two ham radio related sites, if usenet had a sysop, he would have been gone from here a long time ago..

Please, I would not waste my time with court. That is the kind of shit that Mark would do, except he runs to law enforcement with false claims of child pandering and reports a half a dozen persons for the same incident with no regard to facts.

My usual policy is to not accept candidates for Kook of the Month who are also up for the PAP, as the combination implies that the candidate is a low-grade kooky lamer. However, Bucky is /so/ pathetic and his meltdown /so/ spectacular that I shall make an exception in his case. Nomination accepted.

I'll nominate Catherine Burr of RAMD. She's back after an eight month absence and posting her usual copy and paste of newspaper articles describing how directors of bands, orchestras, and choirs are being arrested for sex crimes. Here are some of her posts (and she's kept it up throughout August).

I don't see much chance of them losing it before next year, the way they're going. Maybe if they do something useful, like create a moderated Big-8 Wicca group (assuming one doesn't already exist), or remove soc.religion.asatru -- but those don't seem likely.

If the Varnisher seconding is acceptable, then this nom is re-made, and if not (or if this nom is not), deferred to next month.

http://www.screedbomb.info/coosn/
Q: Who is eligible for a COOSN?

A: Kookologists with 10 or more verifiable UV points may exchange these points for a Cabal Obsidian Order Sombrero Number.

Q: Who is not eligible for a COOSN?

A: Certified net.kooks; notorious net.cretins; terminally clueless fuckwits; previous winners of kook-awards, unless an official pardon has been granted by the FNVW.

Q: How do I apply for a COOSN?

A: Make a Usenet post to alt.usenet.kooks (crossposting to your favourite newsgroups is acceptable); to ensure that the FNVW actually sees your request, try to use either of the following formats for the subject line:

[COOSN Application] Your name (or best known handle) here
[COOSN Request] Your name (or best known handle) here

Please provide a list of 10 UV points - along with verifiable evidence for each point wherever possible.

Q: Can one Kookologist nominate another Kookologist for a COOSN?

A: Yes, but the proposer should supply a verifiable list of 10 UV points for the nominee at the time of the nomination. Also, the nominee must accept the nomination before a COOSN is issued.

Q: What happens if my Sombrero Number application is refused by the FNVW?

A: The Office of Darth Bawl is always looking for new candidates. Nuff said.

Q: What are "UV points"?
1. Threats of violence, especially death. (one point per kook)
2. Lists, i.e. real lists, not just mentions of two or three names in the same post. One list per kook, unless the lists are clearly meant to serve different purposes.
3. Fanboi sites (one point per kook, not one point per site. Minimum qualification is a whole page about you; pages containing lists don't score extra if the list also appears on Usenet).
4. Fanboi newsgroups (one point per kook, not one point per group)
5. Attempts at real-life contact (e.g. posting phone numbers)
6. Fake awards, revenge nominations etc. (one point per kook)
7. Mentions in a newsgroup FAQ (e.g. soc.men).
8. Being the target of a Kooksuit (one point per kook)

"I am the only one who has outer filthed Ward" -- James C. "Crackhead" Cracked voluntarily self-immolates, in MID: 1159678991.838385.310840@m7g2000cwm.googlegroups.com

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization. Osama bin Laden wanted an aircraft to crash into the Pentagon. Abbie Hoffman merely wanted to levitate it." -- Paul Krassner, http://tinyurl.com/ehu3v

Now I have to come up with my candidate. My first instinct is to nominate Christmas Cake for her dramatic re-entrance into RAMD, including some unprovoked meltdowns and ridiculous ranting, but I'm going to hold off and see if I can find someone new to AUK or who at least hasn't won this award before.

Aggie would be perfect. He's already nominated for every single award that recognizes misinformation, so why not the office for it as well?

There is already an alt.religion.wicca.moderated. Of course, that wouldn't stop the B8MBies from poaching the group.

SRA is being used, so it won't happen. Removal of soc.men.moderated would be more likely, but that probably isn't in the cards, either.

The Treehouses for the Oppressed Njazis and refugees from Fort Machismo must not be destroyed! 'Twouldn't be fair, after all, since they're so widely scorned outside of their exclusive clubs. The socmans have nowhere else to go!

1. Two antennas met on a roof, fell in love and got married. The ceremony wasn't much, but the reception was excellent.

2. A jumper cable walks into a bar. The bartender says, "I'll serve you, but don't start anything."

3. Two peanuts walk into a bar, and one was a salted.

4. A dyslexic man walks into a bra.

5. A man walks into a bar with a slab of asphalt under his arm and says: "A beer please, and one for the road."

6. Two cannibals are eating a clown. One says to the other: "Does this taste funny to you?"

7. "Doc, I can't stop singing 'The Green, Green Grass of Home.'" "That sounds like Tom Jones Syndrome." "Is it common?" Well, "It's Not Unusual."

8. Two cows are standing next to each other in a field. Daisy says to Dolly, "I was artificially inseminated this morning." "I don't believe you," says Dolly. "It's true, no bull!" exclaims Daisy.

9. An invisible man marries an invisible woman. The kids were nothing to look at either.

10. DejaMoo: The feeling that you've heard this bull before.

11. I went to buy some camouflage trousers the other day but I couldn't find any.

12. A man woke up in a hospital after a serious accident. He shouted, "Doctor, doctor, I can't feel my legs!" The doctor replied, "I know you can't - I've cut off your arms!"

13. I went to a seafood disco last week...and pulled a mussel.

14. What do you call a fish with no eyes? A fsh.

15. Two fish swim into a concrete wall. The one turns to the other and says "Dam!"

16. Two Eskimos sitting in a kayak were chilly, so they lit a fire in the craft. Unsurprisingly it sank, proving once again that you can't have your kayak and heat it too.

17. A group of chess enthusiasts checked into a hotel and were standing in the lobby discussing their recent tournament victories. After about an hour, the manager came out of the office and asked them to disperse. "But why," they asked, as they moved off. "Because", he said, "I can't stand chess-nuts boasting in an open foyer."

18. A woman has twins and gives them up for adoption. One of them goes to a family in Egypt and is named "Ahmal." The other goes to a family in Spain; they name him "Juan." Year's later; Juan sends a picture of himself to his birth mother. Upon receiving the picture, she tells her husband that she wishes she also had a picture of Ahmal. Her husband responds, "They're twins! If you've seen Juan, you've seen Ahmal."

19. Mahatma Gandhi, as you know, walked barefoot most of the time, which produced an impressive set of calluses on his feet. He also ate very little which made him rather frail and with his odd diet, he suffered from bad breath. This made him. (Oh, man, this is so bad, it's good)..... A super calloused fragile mystic hexed by halitosis.

20. And finally, there was the person who sent twenty different puns to his friends, with the hope that at least ten of the puns would make them laugh. No pun in ten did.

They had frequently reprimanded an old and favored servant of two maiden ladies for his free behavior with the female servants. Caught one day in flagrante delicto, he was summoned to their presence, and while the girl was sacked, he was told that if he did not do better and turn over a new leaf, much as they valued him--his next escapade would be his last.

He promised amendment and matters went on very well for a time. One evening, he was not to be found when wanted, and, on a search being made, was discovered in the beer cellar, buggering the pageboy.

"How now," he was asked, "is this your amendment? You promised to turn over a new leaf."

"So I have" said he, "only I have begun at the 'bottom of the page!'"

Research has led to the discovery of the heaviest element yet known to science.

The new element, Governmentium (Gv), has one neutron, 25 assistant neutrons, 88 deputy neutrons, and 198 assistant deputy neutrons, giving it an atomic mass of 312.

These 312 particles are held together by forces called morons, which are surrounded by vast quantities of lepton-like particles called peons. Since Governmentium has no electrons, it is inert; however, it can be detected, because it impedes every reaction with which it comes into contact. A minute amount of Governmentium can cause a reaction that would normally take less than a second to take from four days to four years to complete.

Governmentium has a normal half-life of 2- 6 years; It does not decay, but instead undergoes a reorganization in which a portion of the assistant neutrons and deputy neutrons exchange places. In fact, Governmentium's mass will actually increase over time, since each reorganization will cause more morons to become neutrons, forming isodopes.

This characteristic of moron promotion leads some scientists to believe that Governmentium is formed whenever morons reach a critical concentration. This hypothetical quantity is referred to as critical morass.

When catalyzed with money, Governmentium becomes Administratium, an element that radiates just as much energy as Governmentium since it has half as many peons but twice as many morons.

Copying someone else's nym exactly is only a worthwhile endeavour for kookology (and only in certain esoteric areas of same), which is a usenet performance art that is simply beyond you and the rest of the MMFC.

I do indeed have someone in mind, harvested from sci.astro. Meet Lin Liangtai, expert on Martian biology:

Living Martian life was found by atomic force microscope.

Life found on Mars: atomic force microscopy of Phoenix reveals a halophile

<16b421b4-f90a-4fda-ae09-7829b5762309@w39g2000prb.googlegroups.com>
Atomic force microscope shows Martian dust looks more like a bio cell.
<bd345152-7db1-4c05-824c-245b98fca6af@1g2000pre.googlegroups.com>
NASA mistook bodily fluids as Mars water source.
<699213b4-717c-4c92-b629-f133095609a1@w24g2000prd.googlegroups.com>
Found: a bunch of carbonized lymph nodes at a footpad of Phoenix Mars Lander.
<34e0530b-f383-40af-b20b-af1d4ae9d3cf@n33g2000pri.googlegroups.com>
Why only Martians' Haversian canals need to be verified by lab instruments?

Mark should sue you for posting stupidity in his name. Also, initiating x-poasting to AUK and then setting followups to go only to your playpen is quite a cowardly little trick, ya little scumbag.

Tempranillo is also grown in Napa
Turnbull used to sell Tempranillo, I really liked it.
Usually it is blended in other wines.

60's are revising their hits with new lyrics to accommodate aging baby boomers.

They include:

Herman's Hermits --- Mrs. Brown, You've Got a Lovely Walker.
Ringo Starr --- I Get By With a Little Help From Depends.
The Bee Gees --- How Can You Mend a Broken Hip.

Bobby Darin --- Splish, Splash, I Was Havin' a Flash.

Roberta Flack--- The First Time Ever I Forgot Your Face.

Johnny Nash --- I Can't See Clearly Now.
Paul Simon--- Fifty Ways to Lose Your Liver

The Commodores --- Once, Twice, Three Times to the Bathroom.
Marvin Gaye --- Heard It Through the Grape Nuts.
Procol Harem--- A Whiter Shade of Hair.
Leo Sayer --- Yo u Make Me Feel Like Napping.
The Temptations --- Papa's Got a Kidney Stone.
Abba--- Denture Queen.
Tony Orlando --- Knock 3 Times On The Ceiling If You Hear Me Fall.

Helen Reddy --- I Am Woman, Hear Me Snore.

Leslie Gore--- It's My Procedure, and I'll Cry If I Want To.

And my favorite:

He accused other hams of panding children for sex, a Federal crime. He apparently called child services in multiple states reporting other hams for child pandering...which there is no proof that it ever occured.

Where? More like you are the admitted criminal, shooting a child in the back while he was running away. BTW you can only shoot an unarmed person if they are a threat. How can someone be threatening you if they are running away from you? Of course, we all know that more than likely this is just another chapter in the book of your fantasy life.

Slay any dragons lately in Fantasy Land?

http://www.screedbomb.info/coosn/
Q: Who is eligible for a COOSN?

A: Kookologists with 10 or more verifiable UV points may exchange these points for a Cabal Obsidian Order Sombrero Number.

Q: Who is not eligible for a COOSN?

A: Certified net.kooks; notorious net.cretins; terminally clueless fuckwits; previous winners of kook-awards, unless an official pardon has been granted by the FNVW.

Q: How do I apply for a COOSN?

A: Make a Usenet post to alt.usenet.kooks (crossposting to your favourite newsgroups is acceptable); to ensure that the FNVW actually sees your request, try to use either of the following formats for the subject line:

[COOSN Application] Your name (or best known handle) here
[COOSN Request] Your name (or best known handle) here

Please provide a list of 10 UV points - along with verifiable evidence for each point wherever possible.

Q: Can one Kookologist nominate another Kookologist for a COOSN?

A: Yes, but the proposer should supply a verifiable list of 10 UV points for the nominee at the time of the nomination. Also, the nominee must accept the nomination before a COOSN is issued.

Q: What happens if my Sombrero Number application is refused by the FNVW?

A: The Office of Darth Bawl is always looking for new candidates. Nuff said.

Q: What are "UV points"?
1. Threats of violence, especially death. (one point per kook)
2. Lists, i.e. real lists, not just mentions of two or three names in the same post. One list per kook, unless the lists are clearly meant to serve different purposes.
3. Fanboi sites (one point per kook, not one point per site. Minimum qualification is a whole page about you; pages containing lists don't score extra if the list also appears on Usenet).
4. Fanboi newsgroups (one point per kook, not one point per group)
5. Attempts at real-life contact (e.g. posting phone numbers)
6. Fake awards, revenge nominations etc. (one point per kook)
7. Mentions in a newsgroup FAQ (e.g. soc.men).
8. Being the target of a Kooksuit (one point per kook)

Hello Jay

Yeah the days back when SSB CB was ch 16 eh? That seems like yesterday but in reality it was some 30 years ago. I found my CB license renewal from 1975 the other day while rummaging through some old documents and that sort of blew my hair back. It was a renewal, which means my first one was in 1970, both care of my dad. Simpler times back then, never even locked the doors.

A man boarded an airplane in New Orleans with a box of crabs. A female crew member took the box and promised to put it in the crew's refrigerator, which she did.

The man firmly advised her that he was holding her personally responsible for the crabs staying frozen, and proceeded to rant and rave about what would happen if she let the crabs thaw out.

Shortly before landing in New York, she announced over the intercom to the entire cabin, 'Would the gentleman who gave me the crabs in New Orleans, please raise his hand?'

Not one hand went up.

So she took them home and ate them herself.

ands so you take a greater part in antisemtic harrassment

You are really a sicko - get over it - you bring all of these types of comments upon yourself when you quote "that you are a BI - Kosher Ham" unquote, WHO CARES WHAT YOU ARE! You are not a special Amateur Radio Operator!

I have probably been a "ham" longer than you have been alive.. Since 1954.

You were elected to a position in your radio club, and you flaunted this to everybody!
Then you were De-elected by the same membership and you flaunted this to everybody again! You act like a little 2yr old BRAT!

There is nothing anti-semitic about the comment about the antenna! CIRCUMSION is not only related to Jews, but in some hospitals it is preformed on Gentiles also. Therefore this is not quote "antisemtic harrassment" unquote! It is too bad that you can't just go with the flow and laugh with everyone else! It is a shame that you let your are mental challenged brain get in the way. You should listen to your doctor and take the pills he has prescribed for you.

bullshit

It is not bullshit - I have copies of your emails with that statement!!

> unquote, WHO CARES WHAT YOU ARE!

you amoug other obviously -

I really don't care what you are or who you are!

> You are not a special Amateur Radio > Operator!

at least I am a HAM unlike yourself -

I doubt that seriously - Most of the hams that I know that belong to the rainbow group, keep their discussions about their sexuallity to that group and don't flaunt it here in RRAP.

> I have probably been a "ham" longer than you have been alive.. Since 1954.

you have prooven you are not a good one no matter how long you have held a license and you dcontinue to prove that the procoders were lying when they claimed code testing made for better hams

How have I quote "Prooven" unquote that I am not a good one? I never mentioned anything about procoders - everything in ham radio has its good and bad points - and should be used accordingly - now you are reading in something that has no bearing on the subject - although I see that you cut off the comments I made about circumsion - that must have really gotten to you.

> You were elected to a position in your radio club, and you flaunted this > to > everybody!

no I did no such thing
Yes you did when I said that I was going to make application and join your club, and you quoted " that you were president and your wife was secretary and you would make sure that my application would never be voted on and that it would get lost" unquote!

> Then you were De-elected by the same membership and you flaunted this to > everybody again! You act like a little 2yr old BRAT!

no I did no such thing either - if you didn't do it then how did it get posted in here that you did??

YOU are your mery band of stalkers did all that I am not a part of any band of merry stalkers - I don't know anybody here in this group except some NUTCASE that continues to flaunt different subjects and thinks that he/she is normal!

There is nothing anti-semitic about the comment bullshit it is clear in context

No it is not clear in the context - concussion

If you are not a citizen of the USA, you should do it if any of your countrymen were victims of this tragedy!

Please join us in this FLY THE FLAG campaign and PLEASE forward this Email immediately to everyone in your address book asking them to also forward it.

We have a little less than one week and counting to get the word out all across this great land and into every community in the United States of America. If you forward this email to least 11 people and each of those people do the same ... you get the idea.

THE PROGRAM:
On Thursday, September 11th, 2008, an American flag should be displayed outside every home, apartment, office, and store in the United States. Every individual should make it their duty to display an American flag on this seventh anniversary of one our country's worst tragedies. We do this honor of those who lost their lives on 9/11, their families, friends and loved ones who continue to endure the pain, and those who today are fighting at home and abroad to preserve our cherished freedoms.

In the days, weeks and months following 9/11, our country was bathed in American flags as citizens mourned the incredible losses and stood shoulder-to-shoulder against terrorism.

Sadly, those flags have all but disappeared. Our patriotism pulled us through some tough times and it shouldn't take another attack to galvanize us in solidarity. Our American flag is the fabric of our country and together we can prevail over terrorism of all kinds.

ACTION PLAN:
So, here's what we need you to do ..

(1) Forward this email to everyone you know (at least 11 people).. Please don't be the one to break this chain. Take a moment to think back to how you felt on 9/11 and let those sentiments guide you.

(2) Fly an American flag of any size on 9/11. Honestly, Americans should fly the flag year-round, but if you don't, then at least make it a priority on this day.

Thank you for your participation. God Bless You and God Bless America!

Recall -- Firm Press Release
FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

Interior Alaska Fish Processors, Inc. Recalls Santa's Smokehouse Brand Smoked Keta Salmon
Contact:
Interior Alaska Fish Processors, Inc.
907-456-3885

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- August 13, 2008 -- Interior Alaska Fish Processors, Inc. of Fairbanks, AK is recalling some of its Santa's Smokehouse brand smoked keta salmon because it has the potential to be contaminated with Listeria monocytogenes, an organism which can cause serious infections in young children, frail or elderly people, and others with weakened immune systems. Although healthy individuals may suffer only short-term symptoms such as fever, headache, stiffness, nausea, abdominal, or diarrhea, listeria infection can cause miscarriages and stillbirths among pregnant women. The recalled product was sold in random weight portions and packaged in clear plastic vacuum sealed bags with the Santa's Smokehouse "teriyaki style smoked keta salmon" label on it. The only batch subject to the recall will be labeled with the batch number '637', found on the Santa's Smokehouse label. Approximately 150 pounds of this product was distributed through the company's retail store in Fairbanks, Alaska and through gift packs sold on the internet between mid December 2007 and July, 2008. The recall is the result of survey sampling by the Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation which revealed that the sampled product in question contained the bacteria Listeria monocytogenes. No complaints or instances of illness have been reported from consumption of this product.

If you have any Santa's Smokehouse smoked keta salmon with the batch number '637' please return it to Interior Alaska Fish Processors, Inc. with the label for a full refund. Consumers with questions may contact the company at 907-456-3885 order@santassmokehouse.com, or at 2400 Davis Road, Fairbanks, AK.

QST de W1AW
Propagation Forecast Bulletin 35 ARLP035
From Tad Cook, K7RA
Seattle, WA August 22, 2008
To all radio amateurs

ARLP035 Propagation de K7RA

Another week of quiet sun, but on Wednesday and Thursday, August 20-21, a new spot seems to be emerging. There is no sign that it is anything other than an old cycle 23 spot. Spaceweather.com reported it with a sunspot number of 11 for August 21, but NOAA did not, reporting zero instead for Thursday.
A late Thursday image at Http://tinyurl.com/5l8mcz suggests a spot in the northern hemisphere on the left side of the image.

About a year and a half ago in bulletin ARLP010 we speculated whether solar cycle minimum had been reached. The same issue mentioned a personal quest by JQ2UOZ to work DXCC at the solar cycle minimum running only one-half watt on 17 meters and higher using dipole antennas. In an email this week he said he has reached his goal. So far he has worked 138 countries, and you can see details on his web site at http://www.k4.dion.ne.jp/~jq2uoz/.

Tony Dixon, G4CJC produces a weekly report on the ten meter band, including calls heard, at http://www.southgatearc.org/bands/10metres/. Even at the bottom of the cycle, there is still propagation on 10 meters, although it tends to be sporadic-E skip, rather than F layer propagation we see when there are more sunspots.

This week NASA released an article with details on upcoming solar research initiatives, ranging from soon to 2015. One that is expected to launch in 2015 will place four satellites around the sun and it will observe solar activity on the other side, facing away from Earth. See details at http://science.nasa.gov/headlines/y2008/19aug_lws.htm.

For more information concerning radio propagation, see the ARRL Technical Information Service at http://www.arrl.org/tis/info/propagation.html. For a detailed explanation of the numbers used in this bulletin, see http://www.arrl.org/tis/info/k9la-prop.html. An archive of past propagation bulletins is at http://www.arrl.org/w1aw/prop/.

Monthly propagation charts between four USA regions and twelve overseas locations are at http://www.arrl.org/qst/propcharts/.

Instructions for starting or ending email distribution of this bulletin are at http://www.arrl.org/w1aw.html#email.

Sunspot numbers for August 14 through 20 were 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, and 0 with a mean of 0. 10.7 cm flux was 65.9, 65.3, 66.2, 66.5, 66.2, 67.3, and 65.9 with a mean of 66.2. Estimated planetary A indices were 5, 4, 5, 7, 23, 8 and 6 with a mean of 8.3. Estimated mid-latitude A indices were 4, 3, 4, 5, 15, 7 and 5 with a mean of 6.1.

OH! you want me to call you a FAGGOT - ok! You are a FAGGOT!

No I am not insane, nor am I in the need of any medical help - BTW what is this word (whinign) that you used today? From what language does it come? The online dictionary doesn't know anything about it. Is this some word that you use when playing POGO Scrabble??

this is interesting - in most states you cannot have an automatic device that will shoot someone when they come upon your premise to do you bodily harm when they break into your abode. But once they are inside past the door step, you can blast them with your trusty Gatling gun.

Good, I'm glad you're impressed. Now, either participate or don't, but if you don't, whining later about not having a voice will be laughed at by kookologists and Mark Morgan, since he _has_ participated. Mind you, he didn't join, which was naughty of him (he has three days to join before I revert his changes, and his page is, IIRC, now protected, so he can't make any more without joining), but that's easily corrected.

Naturally, joining and vandalising will get your changes reverted and yourself blocked for eternity. Do it more than once, you'll find only sysops will be allowed to change it, and then you'll have to join a third time. Neither Kevin nor I nor the others are willing to put up with vengeful bullshit.

Do or don't, I don't give a fuck, but you get a chance to rebut. If you would like to cement the k00ky rep of radio hams (and believe me (I speak as an eccentric, here, BTW, one not known for conformity), it's a very k00ky reputation, on- and offline -- street-corner preachers have nothing on you lot, nor do saucerheads) for all time, then just ignore the offer. I'm not a ham, so it doesn't matter a rat's fart in a crossfire hurricane to me. Thumping homophobes is what I do for kicks, especially the ones who whine that they're not, and it's just a co-inky-dink that they're running with 'phobes.

What part don't YOU understand?
Where an adult man and an adult woman join in coitus?

Your sick outlook is cartoonish, Todd...where an adult, overly endowed cartoon male has cartoon sex with a cartoon six year old female who's legs and vagina have been stretched to the splitting point so as to induce pain and spillage from between the six year old's legs??? You call that "art"??? Legal or not, your warped visage is sick and sad. You are, Todd, a Kiddie Porner. I wouldn't want you, a forty year old pervert in my neighborhood.

You are a very disturbed person, Todd.

I wonder if the Wal-Mart in your area would be interested to learn of your sick proclivities?

That can be arranged, complete with examples of your Hentai posts. I bet they'd love to see some color printouts of your cartoons.

Well, they are free to whine forever. Since RRAP is unmoderated, that's about all they can do. Their whining is rather precious, though, considering they're indistinguishable from the 'phobes (who are largely uncaring of the appellation, BTW) of RRAP.

Or so you say. Since I'm not inclined to believe you, you have an uphill battle proving your claim to be other than spurious, and Mark to be a k00k about anything more than masking the subject lines on Google Groups (which is often killfiled in its entirety by the clueful (which would mean most of this thread, including every post of yours, is invisible to said clueful)).

Or so you say. Given the reputation of hams, it's not that far-fetched.
Look at Wiseman. A radio ham and actual convicted child molestor...

Yeah, radio hams, regardless of medium, don't have much of a rep.

I am going to print out several of Todd's sick Hentai cartoons and send them along to Wal-Mart and include his name and dates of publishing them.

My bet is that Wal-Mart, who cares about community values, will then give Todd the heave-ho and send him packing.

Happy Trails, Todd!

Mark said all that in just 13 words?

My goodness. You must be quite the scribe to read into Mark's silly, half-witted posts that which was not said.

Good for you! Mark needs a translator.

Mark. You make major grammatical errors that are typical of functional illiterates. If you weren't such a Sloth you'd get and use a spell check program.

And stop rewriting your firing from CCRAA. They didn't give you the boot because of your sexuality and we ALL know that. They showed you the door because of your abnormal activities, your oddball activities, and because you simply are not a nice person. You were a detriment to their club and they plucked a cancer from their midst and discarded the lump of defective tissue before it caused more harm.

http://www.screedbomb.info/coosn/
Q: Who is eligible for a COOSN?

A: Kookologists with 10 or more verifiable UV points may exchange these points for a Cabal Obsidian Order Sombrero Number.

Q: Who is not eligible for a COOSN?

A: Certified net.kooks; notorious net.cretins; terminally clueless fuckwits; previous winners of kook-awards, unless an official pardon has been granted by the FNVW.

Q: How do I apply for a COOSN?

A: Make a Usenet post to alt.usenet.kooks (crossposting to your favourite newsgroups is acceptable); to ensure that the FNVW actually sees your request, try to use either of the following formats for the subject line:

[COOSN Application] Your name (or best known handle) here
[COOSN Request] Your name (or best known handle) here

Please provide a list of 10 UV points - along with verifiable evidence for each point wherever possible.

Q: Can one Kookologist nominate another Kookologist for a COOSN?

A: Yes, but the proposer should supply a verifiable list of 10 UV points for the nominee at the time of the nomination. Also, the nominee must accept the nomination before a COOSN is issued.

Q: What happens if my Sombrero Number application is refused by the FNVW?

A: The Office of Darth Bawl is always looking for new candidates. Nuff said.

Q: What are "UV points"?
1. Threats of violence, especially death. (one point per kook)
2. Lists, i.e. real lists, not just mentions of two or three names in the same post. One list per kook, unless the lists are clearly meant to serve different purposes.
3. Fanboi sites (one point per kook, not one point per site. Minimum qualification is a whole page about you; pages containing lists don't score extra if the list also appears on Usenet).
4. Fanboi newsgroups (one point per kook, not one point per group)
5. Attempts at real-life contact (e.g. posting phone numbers)
6. Fake awards, revenge nominations etc. (one point per kook)
7. Mentions in a newsgroup FAQ (e.g. soc.men).
8. Being the target of a Kooksuit (one point per kook)

Why is it that you are so brainless that you have to start using other person's words such as "Lames" and "Spineless" both words that were used here in the last few days, the first by Snarky and the second by the Toad. Not only are you dyslexic your seem to be fairly stupid too.

Why Mark continues to make his silly zzzzzzzzzzzz posts is beyond me.
I am one of many who don't even read them.

But yet he thinks he is accomplishing something, but what? Only his twisted mind knows.

I wonder what kind of looney tunes are going on in his scrambled cranium?

/Frequently_Asked_Questions_of_alt.usenet.kooks
http://tinyurl.com/5bnxal

1. What is this newsgroup, alt.usenet.kooks (AUK)?

A mass of electrons spread out upon bandwidth scattered across the globe for the express purpose of separating the wheat from the chaff of the net.

2. This is a joke, right? RIGHT?!!

No more a joke than the fact that ISPs let people on every day who have nothing better to do than annoy their neighbors enough to win by popular vote silly little awards created for just such buffoons as them.

3. What's this newsgroup for?

The newsgroup alt.usenet.kooks is for the discovery and discussion of Kooks on Usenet and the Internet. These people are known technically as net.kooks.

4. What's this newsgroup NOT for?

This group exists for recreational Kookology, not for Very Personal Vendetta. It is not to be used for general harassment of someone, or for net abuse such as spamming and flooding and cancelbombing in an attempt to gain vengeance on someone or get the denizens of AUK to shut up. Either way, it won't work, it's very messy, "Bob" will give you triple your money back, and you don't get a life.

Also, we [tinw] are not in the business of harassing the vulnerable or the insane. Occasionally an apparent net.kook proves to be genuinely ill. In such cases the person is disqualified from winning awards and other posters are asked to avoid exacerbating his or her problems. Similarly, trolling or kook-hunting in support groups is strongly discouraged.

5. Who let this newsgroup in here, and why wasn't I notified?

That's what you get for hogging the Beer Fund.

(Here you can view the control message that started it all, from our Mighty Founder MAC.)

http://web.archive.org/web/20070629092934/www.caballista.org/auk/cmsg.html

6. Who is a net.kook?

If you post uniquely strange, preferably incomprehensible articles, or you manifest a persistent, extreme, and somewhat bizarre obsession, you just might be a net.kook. And more.

It is important to note the subtle distinction between a net.kook, a net.cretin, a clueless newbie, troll, or garden-variety @$$hole. The newbie, one hopes, can acquire a clue on the installment plan even if he can't afford to buy one for cash; the cretin is merely stupid and/or irritating; the troll makes a fool out of himself by making a fool out of you, the @$$hole is, well, simply that. But a TRUE net.kook has a special fascination derived from his/her/its utter ineffability. Their behavior is irrational, if not downright weird, but they are seldom merely boring.

It is not considered appropriate to nominate clueless newbies, trolls, or longwinded spambrains as net.kooks. It is acceptable to nominate net.cretins, or simply to present them, without nomination, for whatever minor amusement value they may have; but the real focus here is on net.kooks in all their raging, indomitable glory.

Important Disclaimer: the fact that someone has been proclaimed a net.kook does not imply any psychological diagnosis in and of itself. A net.kook may or may not be clinically insane; that is not the concern of the AUK audience.

We hope.

7. Can you show me a few examples?

I'd rather not, but it may help to clarify things... The person who posted a handful of meaningless, ill-formed newgroup messages on May 21, 1994 was a Clueless Newbie. The person who hung around alt.religion.kibology during April and May 1994, constantly posting boilerplate "warning" messages telling people that ARK messages were intentionally meaningless, was a net.cretin. The people who post demented "scientific" theories, like Archimedes Plutonium's concept of the universe being one giant atom of plutonium, and seem incorrigible to criticism, are moderate net.kooks. The sort of being who constantly raves about the conspiracy against her/him/it is an extreme net.kook, especially if he/she/it automatically assumes that anyone who questions their world-view is an agent of the conspirators or is an ultra right-wing/left-wing extremist, and hides behind an anonymous remailer to avoid "persecution" even though they would get one hell of a lot less of it by not posting at all.

http://www.lowgenius.net/kookway.htm

8. How do I present a Kook on this group?

The preferred technique is to get the suspected Kook to start posting to AUK so that we can all see him/her/it in all their first-hand Glory. You can do this by posting followups to the suspect's weirder messages, with your followups nonchalantly crossposted to AUK. If the suspect responds to your messages without editing the Newsgroups line, you've achieved your goal.

Another acceptable method is to repost, complete and unedited, one or two of the suspected Kook's recent rants. If you do this, please provide a brief intro in the header describing what the hell you're doing, such as indicating who this person is, what group you found the message on, or why you think the rest of us should give a rat's @$$ about it.

You should be aware that if you try this with some perfectly reasonable posting, you may be flamed to net.hell and back and probably suspected of being a net.loon yourself. It is also considered extremely lame to nominate someone as a Kook simply because you have lost, or at least failed to win, a debate with them; persistently doing so is likely to get you nominated for Kook Awards. That someone fails to perceive the self-evident, unassailable wisdom of your viewpoint does not, in and of itself, constitute Kookery.

9. What are the Kook Awards?

The newsgroup alt.usenet.kooks offers a variety of widely-recognized and highly dubious honors for your service, applying to net.kooks everywhere. They recognize several kinds and many levels of net.kookery.

Here is a detailed list of AUK awards and descriptions.

http://www.kookpedia.net/index.php/Awards_index

10. Who the FSCK appointed YOU net.kookologist/god/nazi etc.

Nobody. We have a Gift.

11. Are there any holidays in AUK?

Why yes, there sure are:

March 30th - CALL to ARMMs

Commemorating the earliest most virulent Kook post flood of Usenet, and the great flamewar that followed in its wake.

June 26th - KOOKS DAY

Named in commemoration of Earl Curley checking into the Motel Deep 6 to serve a major in the pine penalty box, the same date as Edmond Wollmann got arrested riding the San Clemente railway...on his motorcycle.

August 15th - DEAD DOC TAVISH DAY

Named in honor of the death of one of Usenet's most famed identities due to excessive Usenet exposure; his virtual corpse is buried in a rural cemetery near New Bremen, Texas

September 10th - KAZOO DAY

This holiday commemorates Raymond Ronald "Kazoo" Karczewski's conviction for seven felonies. May Raymold be a warning to all kooks who are tempted to think that a "Sovereign Christ" is above the law.

December 20th - AUK BIRTHDAY

The anniversary of the newgrouping of alt.usenet.kooks

12. What should I do if I'm paged on the Red Courtesy Telephone?

Give the caller Gandalf the Gray's speech to the demon. Verbatim.

13. Is alt.usenet.kooks archived anywhere?

Why would you even want to know? [But if you truly must know, GIYF. You masochist, you.]

14. What should we do about the book?

Burn it.

15. Where can I find out more about net.kooks?

Several mini-FAQs on classic kooks of the past and present (along with several non-kooky legendary netters) are available on the World Wide Web in various archives. Be sure to set aside coffee and cats before reading. [Try the Wayback Machine, and look for insurgent.org, caballista.org, and netcabal.org.]

16. What are the AUK Offices?

[OFFICES] As well as the kook awards, kooks may compete to hold office for a month or longer. Nominations are made in exactly the same way as for awards; the difference is that the previous holder of the office always appears on the ballot paper when a new candidate emerges, and the winner remains in office until challenged again. At present, the offices are as follows.

Darth Bawl - This office is held by Usenet's biggest crybaby.

Village Idiot - The name says it all.

Kooki Information Minister - Named in honour of Iraq's Mohammed Saeed al-Sahhaf, this office is held by the kook whose claims are most noticeably at variance with known facts.

Ministry of Circle Jerks - Although many kooks are lone wolves, a few like to make friends with those who are as delusional as themselves. This office rewards the slurpfests that often ensue.

AUK Mascot - The AUK Mascot is AUK's pet kook or resident fanboi; reserved for those rare kooks who usually seem to enjoy AUK's attention (or at least tolerate roughhousing) and whose antics provoke widespread amusement; elected annually, during the month of May, to serve a one-year term.

Should the AUK Mascot disappear from Usenet during his term for 60 days or more, the FNVW would then have the option to call for a special recall election in which the MIA mascot would be replaced by another suitable net.kook.

http://www.kookpedia.net/index.php/Index_of_Offices

17. Are there any net.kook awards outside of AUK?

At various points of time there have been several, from the Christian groups' Steebie Award to alt.fan.art-bell's Angstrom Medal. At least two newsgroups, talk.politics.guns and comp.systems.mac.advocacy, have given out their own Kook of the Month awards. Check around from time to time to see what other net.kook awards might be around. [alt.atheism does them, too.]

18. What is the Cabal?

From the beginning of Usenet time, there has been but one force capable of holding it in check to remain in the realm of mortal existence. For today's Usenet world you need a Giant. A Behemoth. A Cabal of IMMENSE PROPORTIONS. A REALLY BIG CABAL to offer all news ORDER.

Within this force is the most ruthless and efficient organization on all Usenet, known as the Cabal Obsidian Order (COO). If YOU wish to know of this entity, read, learn, and do as you will.

SEE THE LIGHT OF COLLECTIVE WISDOM!!!

A. I SAID, what is the CABAL?

There Is No Cabal. Long Live The Cabal.

B. How does the Cabal function??

As well as any apocryphal organization can hope to function.

C. What are the weaknesses of the Cabal?

<chortle> What weaknesses?

D. What is the hierarchy and power structure of the Cabal?

Oh, you don't need to know that. Really. You can trust us, especially when it comes to information you haven't paid for.

E. What is the Cabal Obsidian Order?

The Cabal Obsidian Order (COO) is a profoundly secret collective of operatives designed to outrun, outgun and Eliminate the most vile scum and villainy the net has to offer.

F. How do I know if the COO is responsible for something?

If the COO's operatives are doing their job correctly, they'll be laughing at whoever is actually responsible.

G. Who are the leaders of the COO?

Leaders? Where we function we don't need Leaders.

H. What is the Beer Fund?

The more you contribute to it, the more we will tell you.

I. How may I apply to become an operative of the COO?

Pitiful begging at the Vote Wrangler's feet might help. Then again it might not.

19. Who is the FNVW?

Why, our highly esteemed Friendly Neighbourhood Vote Wrangler (FNVW), whose benevolent supreme dictatorship runs the electoral wheels of our great realm. Eight fearless folk have served, with distinction:

AUK VOTE WRANGLERS

Craig Dickson (1994-1995)
Matthew Legare (1995-1997)
Killfile Daemons (1997)

Robbie Honerkamp (1997-1998)
Phoenix (1997-2004)
Peter J Ross (2004-2006)
Sean Monaghan (2006-Present)
Pinku-Sensei (2006-Present)

On retirement, Phoenix accepted the high office of Friendly Neighborhood "Bob"father.

20. Do I have what it takes to BE a Vote Wrangler?

<chortle> If you have to ask, you don't have what it takes.

21. Who do you %$#@!s think you are to oppose ME, Lord High Poster-Child of the Macrocosmic Universe?

We are the ones who can and will humiliate your @$$ if you use our group as your personal piss bowl. You are a freak of the universe. You do not give the orders here. And whether you like it or not, the universe is laughing behind your back.

22. That was MEAN, just plain MEAN!!!

Payback's a bitch, ain't it?

23. Should I expect ONE CONSISTENT response to my rude and obnoxious online behavior from the denizens of AUK?

Absolutely NOT.

24. To whom should I complain if I think I have been treated unfairly?

<Darth Vader>
You think you have been treated unfairly? </Darth Vader>

25. What kind of response can I expect as a result of my stupid online behavior at AUK?

Guilty party receives one or a combination thereof of the following assorted reactions (not at all limited to these, mind you):

1. Complete silence while we blow you off
2. Complete silence while we reload
3. Complete silence while we pull the plug on your account
4. Complete silence while we sleep at the switch
5. Complete silence while we sleep in our beds
6. Complete silence while we laugh behind your back
7. Complete silence while we wipe the splattered food and/or drinks off our screens
8. Complete silence while we contemplate the known macrocosmic universe
9. Complete silence while the Vote Wrangler pays good money to watch professional Denver teams find new ways to lose
10. Complete silence while we bask in the pure glow of our obnoxiously self-righteous selves
11. Complete silence while we play high-stakes poker with Snoopy, Spike,

Andy, Olaf, Marbles and Woodstock
12. Complete silence while we never notice your NoCeM'd post
13. Complete silence while we never notice your spam-canceled post
14. Complete silence while we run your rude and obnoxious posts through goofyizers for reposting
15. Complete silence while the Trekkies among us watch the USS Defiant blast bad guys' ships into rubble and fly through the debris with that nice halo of sparks effect
16. Complete silence while we wait for our Gates-sponsored software systems to uncrash themselves
17. General laughter at your expense
18. General laughter and pointing at your expense
19. General laughter, pointing and personal insults at your expense
20. Someone exposes your true service provider to the Rabble
21. Someone does any of 1-20 and reports you to your state's Attorney General
22. Someone does any of 1-21 and reports you to the FBI National Computer Crime Squad (nccs@fbi.gov)
23. Someone does any of 1-22 and does highly amusing parodies of you during the entire process
24. Talk amongst ourselves about life, love and why they sell 8-hot-dog weenie sets with 10-bun packages
25. Sounds of awe as we wonder with dropped mouths how you were able to make a greater fool of yourself than you already had
26. Sounds of astonishment as we MARVEL at the FREAK
27. Flames in your generally specific direction
28. Flames of you in the third, fourth and fifth person
29. Flames from the Vote Wrangler from the other side of the Galactic Killfile just to annoy all hell out of you
30. Nominations for many noteworthy Kook awards

26. Can I really be kicked off my ISP for...

Being a total @$$hole?

If you try hard enough.

Top-posting like the pathetic imbecile that I am?

Usually not, but we can always try.

Forging someone else's valid e-mail address?

Absolutely.

Posting multiple copies of the same message to individual news groups (Excessive Multi Posting [EMP])?

Of course. It's the SPAMMING, stupid.

27. Can I really be thrown in jail for posting threatening messages?

Yes. People have been tried and convicted for sending threatening or harassing Email or Usenet posts. We do NOT support censorship of the Internet; however, posting a message stating you are going to cause virtual or unvirtual harm to someone will probably gain you a visit from your Friendly Neighborhood FBI Agent.

28. Fine. I'll just remain anonymous. That'll work, right?

BWWAAAAAAAAA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA HA!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Try it, pinkboy. An anon remailer service can be forced to turn you in for copyright violation, harassment, stalking; you name the crime - they've got the time. If you ran an anon remailer service what would be the point of protecting flagrant abusers of the net and the Law??

29. Okay, then I'll bust your #$%&$*!! @$$ off AUK instead!

Uh... yeah. Many denizens of AUK are abuse admins, know abuse admins, sleep with abuse admins, or otherwise have years of experience dealing with and educating others about precisely your kind of dubiosity. A good account is a terrible thing to waste, so don't sacrifice yours on our altar.

30. I just realized I am a Maroon. How can I improve my standing in the eyes of the Internet, my balloon doll, and, most importantly, "Bob"?

5821. SCHOOL ANSWERING MACHINE

This is the message that the Pacific Palisades High School California staff voted unanimously to record on their school telephone answering machine.

This came about because they implemented a policy requiring students and parents to be responsible for their children's absences and missing homework.

The school and teachers are being sued by parents who want their children's failing grades changed to passing grades - even though those children were absent 15-30 times during the semester and did not complete enough school work to pass their classes.

The outgoing message:
Hello! You have reached the automated answering service of your school. In order to assist you in connecting to the right staff member, please listen to all the options before making a selection:

To lie about why your child is absent - Press 1

To make excuses for why your child did not do his work -
Press 2

To complain about what we do - Press 3

To swear at staff members - Press 4

To ask why you didn't get information that was already enclosed in your newsletter and several flyers mailed to you - Press 5

If you want us to raise your child - Press 6

If you want to reach out and touch, slap or hit someone -
Press 7

To request another teacher, for the third time this year -
Press 8

To complain about bus transportation - Press 9

To complain about school lunches - Press 0

If you realize this is the real world and your child must be accountable and responsible for his/her own behavior, class work, homework and that it's not the teachers' fault for your child's lack of effort: Hang up and have a nice day!

If you want this in Spanish, move to a country that speaks it!

10. My wife and I can't come to the phone right now, but if you'll leave your name and number, we'll get back to you as soon as we're finished.

9. Hello, you are talking to a machine. I am capable of receiving messages. My owners do not need siding, windows or a hot tub, and their carpets are clean. They give to charity at the office and don't need their picture taken. If you're still with me, leave your name and home phone number and they will get back to you.

8. This is not an answering machine - this is a telepathic thought-recording device. After the tone, think about your name, your number, and your reason for calling.... and I'll think about returning your call.

7. Hi! John's answering machine is broken. This is his refrigerator. Please speak very slowly, and I'll stick your message to myself with one of these magnets.

6. Hi. This is John: If you are the phone company, I already sent the money. If you are my parents, please send money. If you are my bank, you didn't lend me enough money. If you are my friends, you owe me money. If you are a female, don't worry, I have LOTS of money.

5. A is for academics, B is for beer. One of those reasons is why we're not here. So, leave a message.

ALL of the 14.275 FRUITCAKES and USENET KOOKS have been going at ti HOT AND HEAVY for the past 3 hours on the NIMbusters Ham Board.

Folks it's almost as good as the old 'Mike and Judy Show' from 14.313 of years gone by...

Check it out. These fuckers are truly pathetic and funny. They remind me of cult members at airports handing out gospel tracts and kooky

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization. Osama bin Laden wanted an aircraft to crash into the Pentagon. Abbie Hoffman merely wanted to levitate it." -- Paul Krassner, http://tinyurl.com/ehu3v

No you fat fucking retard, I've been proving a point with your assistance, and it has worked out very well.

The point is that it is YOU who keeps cross posting to AUK, not I, and you've proved once again that you are my chimp...hook, line, and sinker.

BTW your ejection from CCRAA is even funnier. And your way out kooky story of shooting a kid in the back is even more outragously funny.

What's next Mark, are you going to go machine gun down another ham, joust some windmills, or some other totally lame fantasy.

Have a good day, I await your next fairy tale...they are quite the hoot.

He has a computer, he knows how to use it, and he can come here and read it...or he can choose not to...matters little to me. But again it is YOU who's cross posting to AUK.

5834. Labor Day Feast

From the Food Network...

Clambake Recipes and Tips

The traditional clambake is an all-day affair, although most guests arrive in the evening.

They're just in time to enjoy a few drinks before the tarpaulin is peeled off the steaming heap of corn, potatoes and soft-shell, cherrystone or littleneck clams. Some clambakes also include lobsters, chickens, sausages and eggs.

Whatever ingredients you choose, this fun and festive event culminates in a meal that is well worth the wait. And while you're waiting for the main event, have a bowl of creamy clam chowder or some clam cakes to get you in the mood.

10 Steps for a Traditional Clambake

Dig a pit on the beach, about two feet deep, two feet wide and three feet long.
Line the bottom with large stones.

Build a wood fire over the stones and keep it burning for about two hours, feeding it when necessary, to heat the rocks. Let the fire burn down to embers, about another two hours.

While the fire is winding down, wrap potatoes, littleneck clams, corn on the cob (in husk), onion quarters, mussels and spicy sausages, by group, in cheesecloth or foil.

Cover the coals with a thick layer of seaweed, preferably rockweed which has little pockets of sea water, but other seaweeds will work. This provides both protection from direct heat and the required steam.

Layer the packets of potatoes, clams, corn, onion, mussels and sausage, and then live lobsters, if desired.

Top with another couple inches of seaweed, and if you’re not using rockweed, a couple of quarts of seawater for steaming.

Cover the entire pit with a seawater-soaked canvas weighted down with either rocks or sand.

Continue your party for another hour or two until all the foods are cooked through.

Savor this fabulous summertime feast, served hot with plenty of melted butter and washed down with icy cold beer.

TEH WAY OF THE K00K
Never learn from your mistakes.
Always practice your mistakes; you may get them right.
Always pick on those smarter and tougher than you.
Always believe that only you know the TRVTH.
Never allow logic or reason get in the way of a good k00k.
When being overwhelmed by logic and reason: k00ksuit!
If you are going to be wrong, do it at the top of your lungs.
When caught in a lie: LIE!
When in doubt: Order the Crab Won Ton
Plagiarism is your friend. Use it.
Whenever contradicted; morph, start calling people names, and make false accusations. Include the children of your target in your allegations, even if they don't have any.
(06-Jun-05) When nobody else will listen, post to your own fan group.
(06-Jun-05) Obviously, since you have your own fan group, this must mean that you have fans. Post prolifically to your fan group - you wouldn't want to disappoint them!
(10-May-2005)Everyone reads usenet. Approval here means approval everywhere.
Post numerous blank posts, or posts containing only a message id.
Post numerous copy&paste web articles from crackerpot websites.
Never forget to call kookologists "k00ks."
If there are several, call them "sockpuppets" too
When all else fails, accuse various and sundry kookologists of e-mailing viruses to you. This is a sure-fire method of garnering sympathy and ensuring that the General Public will always see things your way. An especially effective sub-strategy here is to accuse them of infecting you with the 'Sasser' worm via e-mail.
Quote notorious scientists or writers - it makes it look as if they approve the drivel you are writing!
(9-Jul-05) Anytime your computer is infected with a virus, bogged down by spyware, attacked over your internet connection, or otherwise suffers from preventable problems, government agencies are responsible and are trying to silence you and are monitoring your computer files.

Ignore all traffic signs and feel free to trespass, you don't have to obey any rules.
Scare your enemies with lawsuits, police escorts and whines.
Always back up your empty (albeit noisy) threats with phony LARTs, false police reports, and harassing letters to the FBI and other gubbermint agencies.
Be vigilant in your redundancy. The more you repeat yourself, the more likely others will believe you!
If you can't find anyone as crazy as yourself to support you in the flamewars you start with the normal population, create sock puppets and use anonymous remailers that shamelessly hang on every word you write.
(17-Mar-05) When dealing with law enforcement, remember that it is they who have the problem, not you. Be sure to inform them of this at every available opportunity, as they will surely appreciate your constructive criticism. Be sure to make them aware that YOU KNOW YOUR RIGHTS! ("The cops like that, when people know their rights. That way they don't have to read them to you on the way to the station." - George Carlin)
The more your fake personalities adulate you, the more respect you'll get!
When confronted with a reality that you don't like: Announce loudly that you are departing, never to return as long as there's an Internet. Come back in three or four days and claim you were drunk, hacked, abducted by alience, or forged. Alternately you can just not even mention your prior departure, and if anyone asks you about it, either ignore them or respond with something along the lines of "YOUR NOT THE BOSS OF ME! PLONK!" People really know you mean business then.
Always remain clueproof.
(20-Mar-05) Anyone who does not believe that you are the reincarnation of [$DEITY_OR_PROPHET] is obviously an infidel lacking in faith whose soul in in peril of everlasting damnation.
When responding to one line challenges, post paragraphs of rants and screed in response.
Incoherency is not a roadblock to poasting.
Neither is illiteracy.
Delusions poasted often enough become fact.
Claim you will destroy <insert newsfroup> for attacking you.
When spnaked, send cmsg for Fanboi newsfroup(s).
Find your Lame, Use your Lame, Be your Lame!
Post Edit when the TRVTH hurts.
Always sneck the offending newsfroups.
Always poast pictures of yourself so you can be admired in all your k00ky glory.
Always accuse others of the very acts you are guilty of.
Post lots of boasts about your high IQ and incredible talents.
(20-Mar-05) If you repeat a lie often enough, it becomes the truth. Anybody who fails to understand this is engaged in a deliberate campaign of misinformation and character assassination.

Always <plonk> somebody just before replying the plonkee!
The k00k considers itself the most intelligent person in any conversation, possibly on the planet. Other people are benighted and ignorant, and have been waiting their whole lives for the k00k to rescue them from intellectual darkness.
Write a self-published book and claim it a success. Bonus points for comparing it to "Mein Kampf" and/or the Bible.
Declare yourself equal to a deity of your choice.
Claim that you've come from other planets.
Claim thousands of past lives.
Frothing complaints carry far more weight when you send them from "legal@" some domain.
Nothing strikes terror into the hearts of your detractors more than telling them that you're archiving their messages for possible use in the future.
Never forget that everyone else posting to Usenet is a paid disinformation agent looking to discredit you.
Usenet is governed by US law. If a poster in Romania killfiles you, he's obviously violating your 1st Amendment rights and can be sued.
Every news admin in the world hangs out in NANAU, and they're just dying to nuke the account of that meanyhead who just called you "fucknozzle". Drop 'em a line - that's what they're there for, after all.
AUK will be closed down. Just you wait and see.
They've nuked hundreds of accounts in the name of free speech and yours will be next.
The k00k will, without any trace of irony, lie, manipulate, impersonate, censor, and declare themselves powerful in ways ranging from the ability to have an account shut down to being God Herself, in order to convince people that they are not liars, manipulators, censors, or insane.
Abuse women while telling how many hundreds you've loved. Nevermind that you're one ugly motherfucker and that there were 30,000 femininas that thought you were a scumbag with bad teeth.
Remember that your ko0ky klaims are 'facts', and that 'facts' do not require proof.
Do not neglect to poast your responses to forums that the originator doesn't read. This will make the people in that forum very impressed with how you tear him to shreds without him being able to respond. They like it even better if you are off-topic for that forum.
Keep in mind that lack of evidence supporting your konspiracy theory actually _is_ evidence, of how effective the konspiracy is in hiding.
(06-Oct-05) When spanked, always retreat to the safety of the Ad Hominem.
(04-Aug-2005) When spanked mercilessly for days on end, proving with each poast just what an illiterate and ignorant fool you are, ALWAYS claim ownership of [person(s),froup(s)]. This works on so many levels. It inspires dread in your opponents that they will no longer be able to poast in their home froup and that they will eventually have to pay rent, to name just two.
Any problems with your poasts are the fault of the konspirators, who are trying to stop you from preventing the extinction of humanity.

Konspiracies that are able to subvert whole governments are always unable to silence konspiracy ko0ks.
The entire United States government is willing to spend millions of dollars for the sole purpose of harassing you.
Hollywood is making movies based on your personal life.
Do not consult psychiatrists or other mental health professionals. They are part of the konspiracy, and will sedate you and lock you away and keep you drugged if you tell them the truth.
Numerology and Astrology are respectable sciences and are useful for proving your case.
Everyone is Tim Hill, or David Green, or...
There is a fine line between trolling and kookery. Find that line and cross it repeatedly. When you are killfiled and/or LARTed for net.abuse as a result, claim victory. If you lose multiple accounts, this merely proves that you are indeed a world-class troll, with a black-belt in manipulation.
If you respond to every post someone else makes, they're obsessed. If they respond to less than 1% of your posts, they're even more obsessed.
Publishing people's real names, addresses, and phone numbers when there's no other way for you to come out of a flamewar with any dignity is cool, and proves that you are a master of secret internet information stores, and absolutely not to be fucked with.
You are the only sane one.
Those that give you a hard time about morally bankrupt things you yourself admit to are just persecutioners of the new inquisition.
Yelling in all caps and cursing at your detractors is debate. Your detractors laughing at you with sarcastic remarks is obvious anger and jealousy.
If doing something results in the loss of your account, legal hassles, or blunt trauma injury, do it again. It always works better the second time.
Asterisks, lots and lots of Asterisks.
Poking holes in kookscreed is stalking, and is a felony.
K00ks LOVE to "connect the dots". They are, of course, dots that only the k00k can see.

I puzzled it out, Wabbit. He [Mark] is currently x-poasting to AUK on an occasional basis, but then again, he was never afraid of winning kook awards, nor did he expect AUK to do his dirty work. OTOH, you, Wabbit, were in the forefront of the x-poasting from RRAP, two years ago, but now that you have one award win under your belt, plus two more noms for you (one made by the FNVW, and seconded, I think, by someone else -- an award which requires the sacrifice of common sense, decency, and reputation to win an unwinnable argument, to reverse an imperceptible slight, or overcome an insurmountable barrier -- indeed, the sacrifice of the reputation of hams on usenet, for the sake of the reputation of hams on usenet), I guess you're feeling a tad punked-out. That's only fair, since you and the rest of the fan club are punks. If you weren't, you'd own up to your sockpuppets. But if you weren't punks, you'd never have had unidentifiable sockpuppets.

I haven't done it with skype, but you basically hook it up just like echolink. We (me and another ham) uses to have echolink hooked into my Little Marky's at it again..... A new teacher was trying to make use of her psychology courses. She started her class by saying, 'Everyone who thinks they're stupid, stand up!' After a few seconds, Little Marky stood up. The teacher said , 'Do you think you're stupid, Little Marky?' 'No, ma'am, but I hate to see you standing there all by yourself!'

Little Marky watched, fascinated, as his mother smoothed cold cream on her face. 'Why do you do that, mommy?' he asked. 'To make myself beautiful,' said his mother, who then began removing the cream with a tissue. 'What's the matter?' asked Little Marky. 'Giving up?'

The math teacher saw that little Marky wasn't paying attention in class. She called on him and said, 'Marky! What are 2 and 4 and 28 and 44?' Little Marky quickly replied, 'NBC, FOX, ESPN and the Cartoon Network!'

Little Marky's kindergarten class was on a field trip to their local police station where they saw pictures tacked to a bulletin board of the 10 most wanted criminals. One of the youngsters pointed to a picture and asked if it really was the photo of a wanted person. 'Yes,' said the policeman. 'The detectives want very badly to capture him. 'Little Marky asked, 'Why didn't you keep him when you took his picture?"

ARLX008 FCC Vanity Call Sign Fees to Increase September 25

ZCZC AX08
QST de W1AW
Special Bulletin 8 ARLX008
From ARRL Headquarters
Newington CT August 26, 2008
To all radio amateurs

SB SPCL ARL ARLX008
ARLX008 FCC Vanity Call Sign Fees to Increase September 25

On August 11, the Federal Communications Commission announced that the cost of an Amateur Radio vanity call sign will increase 60 cents, from $11.70 to $12.30. Now that notice of the increase has been published in the Federal Register, the increase will take effect in 30 days, September 25, 2008.

The FCC is authorized by the Communications Act of 1934, As Amended, to collect vanity call sign fees to recover the costs associated with that program. The vanity call sign regulatory fee is payable not only when applying for a new vanity call sign, but also upon renewing a vanity call sign for a new 10 year term.

The notice in the August 26, 2008 Federal Register, entitled "Assessment and Collection of Regulatory Fees for Fiscal Year 2008," includes regulatory fees expected to recover a total of $312,000,000 during FY2008, encompassing all the services the FCC regulates.

The law requires the FCC to adjust the fee periodically so they aren't making a profit. By law they can only generate enough funds to sustain the vanity program for actual cost.

Michelle Malkin is actually an ASIAN SHEMALE. She/He/It has a 14" long COCK hidden inside her oversize panties. Alex Jones wants to get inside her pants and sit on her ENORMOUS MALE/FEMALE Transgendered organ in Macy's window in NYC so he can sell DVD's of the sorrid event on his paranoid website.

For now he's out at the DNC in Denver with his bullhorn promoting his latest 9/11 video: "Bin Laden Assfu-ked The Twin Towers" featuring new and never before seen video of human/goat-copulation in Tora Bora. What a hit!

First, you need three warning letters like I got. Then you have to be retested, like I did.

They don't call me "Two-Test" for nothing....

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

Don't count yourself out on a general license. You don't have to be smart. You just have to be committed. I got my general when I was 11. I did not understand the theory at all. However, I was committed and memorized all of the questions.

I realize that this was probably a poor way to get my license, but I really wanted it and I was too young and stupid to understand the theory.

sorry ole boy but you are not responding to lloyd davies but somebody faking being him thinking (after years of trying the same things over and over) that he can humilate lloyd by posting in his name this stupid notes everywhere he can

the most likely posters is Roger Wisemen AB8MQ

OTOH the license is not that hard to get I agree my wife manged and on that and something of a lucky draw of questions

From the blog of the "kosher ham" KB9RQZ....

>>>"why is dan baosting of a mental disorder it is interesting to watch Dan Jesswald claiming and braging about a mental disorder?

it is a strange thing not something id be bragging about if it were true about me, but in dan's case it appears he is trying to hide behind a claim of mental illness in his attacks aginst other hams such as myself perhaps this would explain his action if he [is] the man that sent the pandering note I have my metals from My service but I certainly object to any vet hiding behind PTSD to threaten people with murder as jesswald has done on a number of occasions."

Why be a hypocrite and try to hide behind the fact that folks don't agree with your promotioin of your sexual proclivites in regard to ham radio and the fact that you have dyslexia, as justification for your continued attack on other hams and on this group? You attacked the hams on QRZ and Ham Island, and subsquently you were banned from those sites. You disrupted this group so much that a moderated group was created in response. Most recently when you realized that you web attack had no effect on others, you took your attack off of the net and attacked other hams with unfounded accusations, which subsquently resulted in your ejection as President from the Copper Country Radio Amateur Association due to your behavior.

Considering all of the response that you get, there is no doubt that it is you who is wrong, and NOT EVERYONE ELSE.

Why criticize a combat Veteran who actually served his country by being subjected to the atrocities of actual war, when you yourself spent your whole military career doing nothing but cowardly hiding in relative safety on a military base. Shame on you, you are dispicable, no wonder those guy in the military abused you, you more than likely deserved it.

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization. Osama bin Laden wanted an aircraft to crash into the Pentagon. Abbie Hoffman merely wanted to levitate it." -- Paul Krassner, http://tinyurl.com/ehu3v

advertize his fellatio service. Guess it makes up for his lack in another physical area.

Mark Morgan was lying in bed with his new girlfriend, Gav. After having sex, Gav spent the next hour just stroking his penis, something she seemed to love doing.
Enjoying it, Mark turned and asked her, 'Why do you love doing that?'
Gav replied, 'Because I really miss mine.'

But you overcame that (or you'd not be in this NG). Good for you.

Some older adult hams show a similar lack of understanding and, being in their sixties and seventies, will probably not become technically savvy.
For a few, the gear cannot be made automatic enough. They need constant coaching.

[I had to delete a rambling, ill-mannered rant from here. Everything I said applied to me at some point, too.]

It's like the guy that buys a sailboat and can't find the start button. Too late to realize you need a Capt., 1st mate, Navigator, Engineer, Electrician, Bilge Rat, Chief, Cook and bottle washer on board. If not you better bring a friend who is.

Oh, that reminds me of a radio call I heard on a VHF Marine radio. Bunch of happy young drunks offshore on somebody's Dad's boat, lost at night, in the fog off Dana Point CA.

NOBODY knew a whit about navigation. Asked the USCG to come get them.
CG radio op said he could refer them to a commercial tow outfit for big bucks.
They figured it out.

Dayton, Ohio (IPP) - The next solar cycle was assigned the number 24 but has been canceled by the International Astronomical Union (IAU). Scientists were able to predict that this cycle would have been 30% to 50% stronger than the previous solar cycle and it would have started a year later than previously thought.

Scientists have been unable to accurately predict the intensity of future solar cycles until recent times. All of that changed recently when the Predictive Flux-transport Model was developed and put into effect. This new method is thought to be 98% accurate.

Dr. Povenmire Finootch of the Mount Palomar Astronomical Campus and the senior legal representative of the IAU takes full responsibility for canceling the next solar cycle and has a black eye to show for it. He recently got into a scrap with the head of the North American Ham Radio League, Brent Brookski over the canceling of solar cycle 24. Dr. Finootch claims that the IAU has complete authority over anything related to the visible as well as the invisible portions of the electromagnetic spectrum.

Ham operators take advantage of the increase in solar electromagnetic activity by bouncing radio signals off of the ionosphere to each other in the form of radio waves which are transmited via upper and lower sideband and cw (continous wave or morse code). When the solar cycle is in full swing it is possible for a Ham operator in North America to talk to his counterpart in New Zealand using a mere 5 watts.

Dr. Povenmire Finootch admits that he has a black eye but that nevertheless he had thoroughly throttled his opponent during a fist fight they had during the Gay Ham Operator's Convention (GHAC) in Key West last week. The two had become embroiled in a fierce argument over whether or not the IAU had any business sticking its nose into the business of Ham operators and this argument evolved into fisticuffs to the delight of nearby bar patrons.

Dr. Povenmire Finootch seemed to go over the edge when Brookski claimed that Dr. Finootch would not know the the difference between Ohm's Law vs Kepler's Law if it "bit him on the ass". Dr. Finootch replied, "Neither would you then !" Dr. Finootch did not realize that the Ham operator had a well concealed "hair lip" under his moustache and the Ham operator was equally unaware that Dr. Finootch had a wooden eye. The Ham operator had responded by saying, Wouldn't I, Wouldn't I" to which Doctor Finootch had replied, " Hair lip, hair lip !" And thus the fight was on.

The Last of The Kennedy Dynasty

As soon as cancer was found, I noticed the immediate attempt at Canonization of old Teddy by the main stream media .. telling us what a 'great American' he is.

I say, let's get a couple things clear & not twist the facts to change the real history .. he was caught cheating at Harvard .. while attending, he was expelled twice, once for cheating on a test, and once for paying a classmate to cheat for him...

While expelled, Kennedy enlisted in the Army, but mistakenly signed up for four years instead of two.. great. The man can't count to four .. His father, Joseph P. Kennedy, former U.S. Ambassador to England, pulled the necessary strings to have his enlistment shortened to two years, and to ensure that he served in Europe, not Korea, where a war was raging... no preferential treatment for him like he charged President Bush received ... Kennedy was assigned to Paris, never advanced beyond the rank of Private, and returned to Harvard upon being discharged... imagine a person of his 'education' NEVER advancing past the rank of Private ...

While attending law school at the University of Virginia, he was cited for reckless driving four times, including once when he was clocked driving 90 miles per hour in a residential neighborhood with his headlights off after dark. Yet his Virginia driver's license was never revoked. He passed the bar exam in 1959 ... amazing!! In 1964, he was seriously injured in a plane crash, and hospitalized for several months. Test results done by the hospital at the time he was admitted had shown he was DUI .. the results of those test remained a 'state secret' until in the 1980's when the report was unsealed ...

On 19 July 1969, Kennedy attended a party on Chappaquiddick Island in Massachusetts . At about 11:00 PM, he borrowed his chauffeur's keys to his Oldsmobile limousine, and offered to give a ride home to Mary Jo Kopechne, a campaign worker. Leaving the island via an unlit bridge with no guard rail, Kennedy steered the car off the bridge, flipped, and into Poucha Pond. He swam to shore and walked back to the party -- passing several houses and a fire station -- and two friends returned with him to the scene of the accident.

According to their later testimony, they told him what he already knew, that he was required by law to immediately report the accident to the authorities. Instead Kennedy made his way to his hotel, called his lawyer, and went to sleep.

Kennedy called the police the next morning. By then the wreck had already been discovered. Before dying, Kopechne had scratched at the upholstered floor above her head in the upside-down car.

The Kennedy family began 'calling in favors', ensuring that any inquiry would be contained. Her corpse was whisked out-of-state to her family, before an autopsy could be conducted. Further details are uncertain, but after the accident Kennedy says he repeatedly dove under the water trying to rescue Kopechne, and he didn't call police because he was in a state of shock. It is widely assumed Kennedy was drunk, and he held off calling police in hopes that his family could fix the problem overnight.

Since the accident, Kennedy's 'political enemies' have referred to him as the distinguished Senator from Chappaquiddick... He pled guilty to leaving the scene of an accident, and was given a SUSPENDED SENTENCE OF TWO MONTHS. Kopechne's family received a small payout from the Kennedy's insurance policy, and never sued. There was later an effort to have her body exhumed and autopsied, but her family successfully fought against this in court, and Kennedy's family paid their attorney's bills... a 'token of friendship'?

Kennedy has held his Senate seat for more than forty years, but considering his longevity, his accomplishments seem scant. He authored or argued for legislation that ensured a variety of civil rights, increased the minimum wage in 1981, made access to health care easier for the indigent, and funded Meals on Wheels for fixed-income seniors and is widely held as the 'standard-bearer for liberalism'. In his very first Senate roll, he was the floor manager for the bill that turned U.S. immigration policy upside down and opened the floodgate for immigrants from third world countries. Since that time, he has been the prime instigator and author of every expansion of and increase in immigration, up to and including the latest attempt to grant amnesty to illegal aliens.

Let's not allow the spin doctors make this jerk a hero -- how quickly the American public forgets what the real legacy is --

@ Mark's blog at http://khkb9rqz.blogspot.com contains the claim that the @ person who heard and reported an alleged false CW S.O.S. was one Bill @ Lauterbach, WA8MEA. The story posted on NIM Busters said something like @ "I had to listen for 15 minutes before I could dig the call sign out of @ the QRM" -- implying that it was a very weak signal indeed.
@
@ If anyone takes the time to actually look Mr. Lauterbach up on the net, @ he'll see that Mr. Lauterbach is an owner of hamradiofun.com and that @ Mr. Lauterbach is a member of Courage-Handi-Hams because Mr. Lauterbach @ is deaf!
@
@ Mark, if you're gonna lie, at least check out the self-consistency of @ your lies beforehand! Don't claim that a deaf man was digging weak @ signals out of QRM.
@ If I were Mr. Lauterbach, I'd be filing complaints against KB9RQZ with @ both my local police and with the FCC.
@
@ The rest of us are going to file this story right beside Mark's tall @ tale of shooting a teenager a couple of weeks ago. It's going into our @ fiction section.

SB PROP @ ARL $ARLP036
ARLP036 Propagation de K7RA

ZCZC AP36

Propagation Forecast Bulletin 36 ARLP036
From Tad Cook, K7RA
Seattle, WA August 29, 2008
To all radio amateurs

SB PROP ARL ARLP036
ARLP036 Propagation de K7RA

Our Sun is still very quiet, but last week's Propagation Forecast Bulletin ARLP035 mentioned a new sunspot emerging on August 21-22. Spaceweather.com showed the sunspot number on those days as 11, which is the smallest non-zero sunspot number. Because of the way the daily sunspot number is calculated, one sunspot gets ten points for one group, and one point for one sunspot within that group. Five sunspots in three groups yields a daily sunspot number of 35.

But the official sunspot number from NOAA showed zero on both days. You can see it for yourself at, http://www.swpc.noaa.gov/ftpdir/indices/DSD.txt. It seems that this little spot that tried to emerge never grew large enough to be counted as a sunspot. Instead it was just a little magnetic wrinkle, but one interesting aspect was the polarity indicated a Cycle 24 event, not Cycle 23 as we reported last week. John Andrews, W1TAG of Holden, Massachusetts wrote, "Your current report on the ARRL website indicates that the tiny sunspot presently visible is from the old solar cycle. The current Mt. Wilson magnetogram data shows a dipole with the south pole leading the north, which in the northern hemisphere indicates a new cycle spot."

In a subsequent message, John wrote, "On the other hand, those of us playing at 505 and 137 kHz are quite delighted with the quiet Sun! A little kick every now and then to recharge the supply of free electrons, and we're all set. The transatlantic stuff is MUCH easier than it was 4-5 years ago. Oh well, the pendulum will swing the other way with a vengeance, I'm sure. Then you'll be happy, and I'll be sad."

If we don't see any sunspots this weekend, Sunday will mark 42 consecutive days with no sunspots. This will also bring the 3-month moving average for daily sunspot numbers (that we present monthly) clear down to 1.76, the lowest on this side of Cycle 23. This would be the three month average centered on July.

That makes the 3-month moving average for the past 14 months look like this:

Jun 07 18.7
Jul 07 15.4
Aug 07 10.2
Sep 07 5.4
Oct 07 3
Nov 07 6.9
Dec 07 8.1
Jan 08 8.5
Feb 08 8.4
Mar 08 8.4
Apr 08 8.9
May 08 5
Jun 08 3.7
Jul 08 1.8

We calculated the July 2008 average by adding together all daily sunspot numbers from June 1 through August 31, then dividing by 92, the number of days in that period. Likewise, the June 2008 average used the sum of all sunspot numbers from May 1 through July 31.

You can see why many thought the minimum was last October, but we've instead reached a new low for the recent period.

The forecast for the next week is a planetary A index of 5 on every day, indicating more of the same quiet and stable geomagnetic conditions. The prediction for September 5 is a planetary A index of 18, probably from a recurring coronal hole and associated solar wind.

Geophysical Institute Prague predicts quiet conditions August 29 to September 3, and quiet to unsettled September 4.

Jim Henderson, KF7E of Queen Creek, Arizona notes that over the past few days (August 25-27) at 1400z-1600z during his local morning hours, conditions on 20 meters to Europe, across UA3/4/9/0 and Asia have been great. With no sunspots, he sees good effects from solar wind streams energizing these paths.

But on Thursday, August 28 he noted an upswing in solar wind at, http://www.swpc.noaa.gov/ace/MAG_SWEPAM_6h.html and reinforced the observation with data at, http://www.swpc.noaa.gov/rt_plots/bou_12h.html. This caused a decline in conditions, but at 1445z he noted copyable signals from EY8/K4ZW in Tajikistan on 14.2176 MHz. He noted that HS0ZEE (Chiang Mai, Thailand) seemed to be coming strongest from the northeast, 90 degrees away from normal headings and with pronounced echo and rapid auroral flutter.

Randy Crews, W7TJ of Spokane, Washington, offered this on August 27 in a message titled "Bumping along the bottom":

"I see we have been spotless now for 37 straight days, which I think exceeds the number of spotless days in October of 2007 and could possibly exceed the 6 week period of spotless days we had in Sept/Oct of 1996. Possibly this month could set a double minimum in Cycle 23. One thing that has really helped the Bands in the last few days along with A and K indices of 0-2 is that the Sun is void of any Coronal disturbances....BIG difference! If we could get some Cycle 24 spots, we would surely be off and running! As it has been said, it's darkest just B4 dawn."

If you would like to make a comment or have a tip for our readers, email the author at, k7ra@arrl.net.

For more information concerning radio propagation, see the ARRL Technical Information Service web page at, http://www.arrl.org/tis/info/propagation.html. Monthly propagation charts between four USA regions and twelve overseas locations are at, http://www.arrl.org/qst/propcharts/.

Instructions for starting or ending email distribution of this bulletin are at http://www.arrl.org/w1aw.html#email.

Sunspot numbers for August 21 through 27 were 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, and 0 with a mean of 0. 10.7 cm flux was 67.1, 67.6, 67.9, 67.1, 66.6, 66.9, and 66.6 with a mean of 67.1. Estimated planetary A indices were 4, 4, 2, 4, 2, 3 and 3 with a mean of 3.1. Estimated mid-latitude A indices were 4, 2, 2, 2, 1, 1 and 2 with a mean of 2.

Since this group seems to attract a few kooks who want to defend our resident pest. I suppose that they should earn something for their efforts.

So I now annouce an award program sponsored by this group.

This months award is the "Golden Throated Goo Gobbler Award"

The qualification are simple, you are not a ham, and through your defense of our pest, you have convinced the group that you want to perform oral on our resident Kook.

I have been convinced.... I hereby nominate Snarky of AUK. In his never ending ramblings in defense of the pest, he has announced that he is a "Fellow Queer" and has convinced me that he has a sexual attraction for our Kook.

Anyone Second the Nomination?

A Jewish congregation in suburban Boston honors its Rabbi for 25 years of service by sending him to Hawaii for a week, all expenses paid.

When he walks into his hotel room, he finds a beautiful nude woman lying on the bed.

She greets the Rabbi with, "Hi, Rabbi, I'm a little something extra that the President of the Temple arranged for you."

The Rabbi is incensed. He picks up the phone, calls the President of the Temple and shouts, "Greenblatt, what were you thinking? Where is your respect? I am the moral leader of our religious community! I am very angry with you and you have not heard the end of this."

Hearing this, the naked woman gets up and starts to get dressed.

The Rabbi turns to her and asks, "Where are you going? I'm not angry with you."

==> GULF COAST PREPARES FOR GUSTAV

As of Friday, although Tropical Storm Gustav is still several days away from landfall on the US mainland, disaster preparations are being rolled out along the Gulf Coast. ARRL Leadership Officials, with the support of the ARRL Headquarters staff, are taking measures that will facilitate emergency communications among ham volunteers, among hams and served agencies such as the Red Cross, and among Leadership Officials during the expected emergency and in its aftermath. ARRL Section Managers in the Gulf Coast states of Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas are marshaling resources and setting up procedures that will take effect as the storm approaches the mainland.

Support from the ARRL Headquarters staff includes referrals from local and national media, shipment of Amateur Radio equipment via the Ham Aid program, Section Manager liaison and referral of inquiries from Amateur Radio operators. Two special Web sites are available for Amateur Radio operators looking for information and volunteer opportunities: <http://www.arrl.org/gustav/> and <http://www.arrl.org/gustav/vol.html>. In addition, news will be updated on the ARRL Web site over the weekend and early next week, as Gustav moves toward the Gulf Coast.

On Thursday, as Gustav was slamming into Haiti and heading toward Jamaica, WX4NHC, the Amateur Radio station at the National Hurricane Center in Miami, activated at 12 PM EDT (1600Z). The NHC requested all land based stations as well as ships at sea in the areas affected to send them weather data (measured or estimated) and damage reports.

A post to their Web site stated: "If you are in the affected area and normally monitor on a local Net on VHF, 40 or 80 meters, we would appreciate your checking into the HWN NET or EchoLink/IRLP Net once per hour to receive the latest Hurricane Advisories and to report your local conditions. Please do not venture outside during the hurricane to gather weather data."

In addition, the VoIP Hurricane Net activated Thursday at 11 AM EDT (1500Z), according to a post by Jim Palmer, KB1KQW, VoIP-WX Net Scheduler.

Also on Thursday, FEMA posted a news release that said, in part: "The Department of Homeland Security's Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) is coordinating plans and preparatory activities of numerous federal agencies in close communication with state, tribal and local officials as Tropical Storm Gustav threatens to return to hurricane strength prior to impacting Gulf Coast states. All residents in the region are encouraged to make personal preparations. Information is available at www.Ready.gov on how families and individuals can best prepare before the storm.

"FEMA and its federal partners are in close communications with states along its potential path in order to review plans, pre-station assets and personnel, and respond to any request for assistance. FEMA's work with states using a Gap Analysis tool to determine in advance of storms where federal assistance is most likely to be needed has helped federal and state agencies to develop pre-scripted mission assignments and other contingency plans to help improve response and recovery efforts."

The news release also provides details on preparations now underway by several other agencies, including the American Red Cross and the Army Corps of Engineers.

Louisiana Governor Bobby Jindal declared a state of emergency for his state on Wednesday, and he activated 3000 National Guard troops, with more on call. The state of Mississippi declared a state of emergency on Thursday. Governor Haley Barbour stated, in part: "I urge all Mississippians to please take this storm seriously. One of the most important lessons we learned after Hurricane Katrina was that there is no substitute for awareness and self-help, especially in the days before the hurricane is predicted to hit."

==> THE SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER QEX IS HERE

The September/October issue of QEX is out, and it is full of theoretical and practical technical articles that you don't want to miss.

In this issue, Mark Spencer, WA8SME, describes a VLF receiver system that automatically logs received signal data so we can learn about some propagation conditions such as sudden ionospheric disturbances during Solar Cycle 24 in "SID: Study Cycle 24, Don't Just Use It." Phil Anderson, W0XI, gives us a detailed analysis of crystal set receiver circuitry in "A Great Teacher: The Crystal Set." Bertrand Zauhar, VE2ZAZ, brings us another great project that goes well beyond a simple battery charger with his "Rechargeable Battery Cycler."

Jim Kocsis, WA9PYH, presents "Press-n-Peel Circuit Boards," a simple, reliable way to make your own circuit boards using Techniks, Inc Press-n-Peel Blue etch-resist material. Henry J. Rech offers some thoughts about, "Receiver Performance Measurement and Front End Selectivity," and Frank Witt, AI1H, describes "Optimum Lossy Broadband Matching Networks for Resonant Antennas," in this reprint of an April 1990 "RF Design" article.

Would you like to write for QEX? It pays $50 per printed page. Be sure to check out the Authors Guide <http://www.arrl.org/qex/#aguide> for more information. If you prefer postal mail, please send a business-size self-addressed, stamped envelope to QEX Authors Guide, c/o Maty Weinberg, ARRL, 225 Main St, Newington, CT 06111-1494.

QEX is edited by Larry Wolfgang, WR1B, and is published six times a year. The subscription rate for ARRL members in the US is $24. For First Class US delivery, the rate is $37 for members, $49 for nonmembers. For international delivery via air mail, including Canada, the subscription rate is $31 for members, $43 for nonmembers. Subscribe to QEX today <http://www.arrl.org/qex>.

==> CHECK OUT THE SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER NCJ

NCJ, The National Contest Journal is what everyone interested in radiosport needs to have in their shack. Filled with the latest news from the contesting world, NCJ is the voice of radiosport. Whether you are new to contesting or are a seasoned pro (or somewhere in the middle), you will find something in NCJ just for you.

In the September/October issue, Stan Stockton, K5GO and Bob Wilson, N6TV, provide a dialogue on "CW Skimmer: Point/Counterpoint." To go along with this article, Pete Smith, N4ZR, talks about "So You Want to Skim? Practical Issues in Deploying CW Skimmer in a Contesting Environment." Eric Scace, K3NA, writes about "Distributing Receiving Antennas" in the first of a multi-part article. If you're a top-bander, you don't want to miss "A Simple 2-Element Vertical Array for 160 Meters" by John Barcroft, K6AM.

Dennis McAlpine, K2SX, takes a look at "The Wacky World of State QSO Parties," while Jon Platt, W0ZQ/m gives his take on "One Rover's View on Propagation during the 2008 Minnesota QSO Party." Bill Santelmann, N1AU, remembers his son in "A Tribute to my Son, Stuart, KC1F." Stu, a founding member and past president of the Yankee Clipper Contest Club, became a Silent Key in May of this year. ARRL News Editor S. Khrystyne Keane, K1SFA, lets NCJ readers take a sneak peak at the October issue of QST in "October is Radiosport Month in QST."

Of course, there are all the regular columns and features you expect from NCJ: "Workshop Chronicles," by Don Daso, K4ZA; "Contest Tips, Tricks & Techniques," by Gary Sutcliffe, W9XT; "Propagation," by Carl Luetzelschwab, K9LA; "VHF-UHF Contesting," by Jon Jones, N0JK; "Contesting on a Budget," by Paul Schaffenberger, K5AF; "DX Contest Activity Announcements," by Bill Feidt, NG3K; "RTTY Contesting," by Don Hill, AA5AU; "Contesting 101," by Kirk Pickering, K4RO, and "Contest Calendar," by Bruce Horn, WA7BNM.

All this and more in the September/October issue of NCJ. NCJ is published six times a year by the ARRL; it is edited by Al Dewey, K0AD. Subscribe today <http://www.arrl.org/ncj/>!

==> "THE DOCTOR IS IN" THE ARRL LETTER

This week, ARRL Letter readers are in luck! The ARRL's very own Doctor, author of the popular QST column "The Doctor Is IN," answers a question from his mailbag:

Question -- John Hoffman, KJ4GER, of Woodstock, Georgia, asks: I am reading the "ARRL General Class License Manual" <http://www.arrl.org/catalog/?item=9965>. In a few places, it mentions the 75 meter band. On my ARRL-provided "US Amateur Radio Bands" chart, it shows an 80 meter band and a 60 meter band, but no 75 meter band. What is the 75 meter band, and why does it not show up on the official band chart?

The Doctor Answers -- John, 75 meters is an designation for the 3.6-4.0 MHz phone band, a portion of the 3.5-4.0 MHz 80 meter allocation. If you convert 4.0 MHz to wavelength (300/4) you will find that the top end of the band has a wavelength of 75 meters.

Historically, 75 meters refers to the voice portion of the "official" 80 meter band. The term 80 meters is often used to refer to the entire band. Most HF radios have a bandswitch position for 80 meters that covers the entire band, not one for 75 meters. Unlike any other band, you will rarely hear anyone refer to "80 meter phone." I cannot offer any logical explanation for the anomaly -- perhaps someone will fill us in on how this came to be.

If you know the answer to this question, send an e-mail to the Doctor <doctor@arrl.org>. Do you have a question or a problem? Send your questions via e-mail <doctor@arrl.org> or to "The Doctor," ARRL, 225 Main St, Newington, CT 06111 (no phone calls, please). Look for "The Doctor Is IN" every month in QST, the official journal of the ARRL.

==>SOLAR UPDATE
Tad "Heat and haze of crimson sunsets" Cook, K7RA, this week reports: Our Sun is still very quiet, but last week's bulletin mentioned a new sunspot emerging on August 21-22. Spaceweather.com showed the sunspot number on those days as 11, which is the smallest non-zero sunspot number. If we don't see any sunspots this weekend, Sunday will mark 42 consecutive days with no sunspots. This will also bring the 3-month moving average for daily sunspot numbers (that we present monthly) clear down to 1.76, the lowest on this side of cycle 23. This would be the three month average centered on July.

The forecast for the next week is a planetary A index of 5 on every day, indicating more of the same quiet and stable geomagnetic conditions. The prediction for September 5 is a planetary A index of 18, probably from a recurring coronal hole and associated solar wind.

Geophysical Institute Prague predicts quiet conditions August 29 to September 3, and quiet to unsettled September 4.

Sunspot numbers for August 21 through 27 were 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, and 0 with a mean of 0. 10.7 cm flux was 67.1, 67.6, 67.9, 67.1, 66.6, 66.9, and 66.6 with a mean of 67.1. Estimated planetary A indices were 4, 4, 2, 4, 2, 3 and 3 with a mean of 3.1. Estimated mid-latitude A indices were 4, 2, 2, 2, 1, 1 and 2 with a mean of 2.

For more information concerning radio propagation, visit the ARRL Technical Information Service Propagation page <http://www.arrl.org/tis/info/propagation.html>. To read this week's Solar Report in its entirety, check out the W1AW Propagation Bulletin page <http://www.arrl.org/w1aw/prop/>. This week's "Tad Cookism" brought to you by Elizabeth Maua Taylor's "August."

==>IN BRIEF:

* This Weekend on the Radio: This weekend, the NCCC Sprint on August 29. The ALARA Contest, the SCC RTTY Championship and the YO DX HF Contest are all August 30-31. The SARL HF CW Contest is August 31 and the MI QRP Labor Day CW Sprint is September 1-2. Next weekend is the International G3ZQS Memorial Straight Key Contest on September 5-7. On September 6, be sure to look for the Russian RTTY WW Contest, the NCCC Sprint, the Wake-Up! QRP Sprint and the AGCW Straight Key Party. The All Asian DX Contest (Phone), the RSGB SSB Field Day and the IARU Region 1 Field Day (SSB) are September 6-7. The North American Sprint (CW) and the DARC 10 Meter Digital Contest are September 7. The Tennessee QSO Party is September 7-8. All dates, unless otherwise stated, are UTC. See the ARRL Contest Branch page <http://www.arrl.org/contests/>, the ARRL Contest

Update <http://www.arrl.org/contests/update/> and the WA7BNM Contest Calendar <http://www.hornucopia.com/contestcal/index.html> for more info. Looking for a Special Event station? Be sure to check out the ARRL Special Event Station Web page <http://www.arrl.org/contests/spev.html>.

* ARRL Continuing Education Course Registration: Registration remains open through Sunday, September 7, 2008 for these online course sessions beginning on Friday, September 19, 2008: Amateur Radio Emergency Communications Level 2 (EC-002); Amateur Radio Emergency Communications Level 3 (EC-003R2); Antenna Modeling (EC-004); HF Digital Communications (EC-005); VHF/UHF -- Life Beyond the Repeater (EC-008), and Radio Frequency Propagation (EC-011). Each online course has been developed in segments -- learning units with objectives, informative text, student activities and quizzes. Courses are interactive, and some include direct communications with a Mentor/Instructor. Students register for a particular session that may be 8, 12 or 16 weeks (depending on the course) and they may access the course at any time of day during the course period, completing lessons and activities at times convenient for their personal schedule. Mentors assist students by answering questions, reviewing assignments and activities, as well as providing helpful feedback. Interaction with mentors is conducted through e-mail; there is no appointed time the student must be present -- allowing complete flexibility for the student to work when and where it is convenient. To learn more, visit the CCE Course Listing page <http://www.arrl.org/cce/courses.html> or contact the Continuing Education Program Coordinator <cce@arrl.org>.

* ARRL HQ to Close for Labor Day September 1: ARRL Headquarters will be closed Monday, September 1. Headquarters will reopen at 8 AM Tuesday, September 2. We wish everyone a safe and enjoyable holiday weekend.

* No ARRL Audio News August 29: There will be no ARRL Audio News today, Friday, August 29; ARRL Audio News will resume production on Friday, September 5.

* ARRL Emergency Communications Level 3 Online Course to be Revised: New enrollments in the online Level 3 course will be suspended effective October 1 to allow us to update the course curricula. We expect the updated course to be available in the first quarter of 2009.

* New HF Digital Protocol to Debut at September Conference: WINMOR, an HF digital protocol designed for use with the Winlink 2000 network, will be unveiled at the upcoming ARRL/TAPR Digital Communications Conference in Chicago September 26-28.

* FCC Vanity Call Sign Fees to Increase September 25: The FCC will increase the vanity call sign fee from $11.70 to $12.30, effective September 25, 2008.

* Hobby radio author Tom Kneitel, W4XAA, SK: Tom Kneitel, W4XAA (ex-K2AES), died August 22 at age 75. He was a prolific author of articles and books on monitoring, CB radio and building electronics projects.

* ARRL and Citizen Corps Assist Schools with NOAA Emergency Radios: ARRL and Citizen Corps are teaming up to offer assistance to local school districts in setting up and registering their NOAA Weather All Hazard Public Alert Radio.

* ARRL Applies for Expansion of 500-kHz Experimental License: On August 22, the ARRL applied to the FCC for expansion of the 500-kHz experimental license WD2XSH. If approved, this application will raise the total number of stations from 20 to 40. This will provide greater geographic coverage, including Alaska and Hawaii, and will provide more opportunities for ground-wave testing. Also included are requests for an expanded frequency band (495-510 kHz) and portable operation within 50 km. The current four modulation modes (CW, PSK-31, FSK-31, and MSK-31) are included. -- Fritz Raab, W1FR

"Consider that language a moment. 'Purposefully and materially supported hostilities against the United States' is in the eye of the beholder, and this administration has proven itself to be astonishingly impatient with criticism of any kind. The broad powers given to Bush by this legislation allow him to capture, indefinitely detain, and refuse a hearing to any American citizen who speaks out against Iraq or any other part of the so-called 'War on Terror.'

"If you write a letter to the editor attacking Bush, you could be deemed as purposefully and materially supporting hostilities against the United States. If you organize or join a public demonstration against Iraq, or against the administration, the same designation could befall you. One dark-comedy aspect of the legislation is that senators or House members who publicly disagree with Bush, criticize him, or organize investigations into his dealings could be placed under the same designation. In effect, Congress just gave Bush the power to lock them up." -- William Rivers Pitt

"It has become clear in recent months that a critical mass of the American people have seen through the lies of the Bush administration; with the president's polls at an historic low, growing resistance to the war Iraq, and the Democrats likely to take back the Congress in mid-term elections, the Bush administration is on the ropes. And so it is particularly worrying that President Bush has seen fit, at this juncture to, in effect, declare himself dictator." -- Frank Morales

I didn't mention any names! You assumed as usual that somebody was attacking you! You seem to be extremely paranoid! You should either continue to constantly look over your shoulder, or see a doctor for your paranoia and have him/her prescribe some very heavy dosages of whatever that might cure you of your problems! Until you have time to see the doctor, you should refrain from posting in this NG, take 2 Tylenol and call me in the morning!

no I assmued someone was being attacked your comand of english is even worse than my spelling

I have a great command of the English Language.. Besides spoofing your dyslexia (we used to have a very well educated person in this area, that called himself the "SMOOTHTALKER" on the cb bands and he loved to purposely STUTTER to obtain that name), and you appear to do the same thing. At times you type long sentences very well with no mistakes, only when you are trying to emphasize that you are right about a subject, and most other times you claim dyslexia! You are a fool - as you don't fool anybody with that action. Everybody in this NG and I guess most of the others that you xpost to - laugh at you for being so simple and acting so stupid! You should take a vacation from this NG - and let us post in peace on what ever Ham radio subject of mind with out you constant interference and subject changing!
There is no official moderator to this group, we don't need you acting as one. You should go harass other folks on other groups. I have yet to see you post anything of revilence about amateur radio to this NG! All you post is garbage that someone is a quote "FAKE, etc." unquote. If you think that they are a "FAKE" then go report them to somebody!

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh
since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization. Osama bin Laden wanted an aircraft to crash into the Pentagon. "Plenty of people post under their real names and do not attempt to hide their contact info. You are scared of being 'outed' because you are a pathological abuser of usenet, and people rightly despise you for it. You're afraid of being reported to the authorities or, better, visited by a couple of guys with baseball bats. Other people don't have this obsessive fear. Ward Hardman himself has posted plenty of personal information - nothing that anyone else added was hidden in any way. You're so fucking scared you've built up this whole sick mythology about different categories of bad dudes who 'out' scum like you.

"Meanwhile you are the ugliest pigfucker in the universe. You are the coward without ethics. You call me a 'newbie' - ha! what an asshole you are. Those who want to remain anonymous do so. There is absolutely no way you could identify me, not unless you had the sort of subpoena power that only gets turned on for big-time terrorists. That's because I chose to be anonymous. Some people don't. Only really stupid dicks like you choose the sort of semi-anonymity which leaves you in constant fear.

"What a dickless wonder you are 'Snarky' you fat asshole."

"When I told Abbie Hoffman that he was the first one who made me laugh since Lenny Bruce died, Hoffman said, "Really? He was my god." The combination of satirical irreverence and sense of justice that Bruce and Hoffman shared was the real spirit behind the Yippies--a term I coined to describe a phenomenon that already existed: an organic coalition of stoned hippies and political activists who engaged in such actions as throwing money on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, then explaining to reporters the meaning of that symbolism. Folksinger Phil Ochs summed it up: "A demonstration should turn you on, not turn you off." So when journalists link the Yippies with misleading bedfellows, at best it's careless shorthand; at worst it's deliberate demonization. Osama bin Laden wanted an aircraft to crash into the Pentagon. Abbie Hoffman merely wanted to levitate it." -- Paul Krassner, http://tinyurl.com/ehu3v
